

GUARDSMEN HOME WEDNESDAY MORN FROM CAMP DUTY

Special Train Due About 11 o'Clock—Many Medford Visitors at Annual Co. A Banquet Saturday

(By Capt. C. Y. Tengwald)
 CAMP CLATSOP, Ore., June 26.—(Sp.)—With the big annual brigade review and combat demonstration out of the way the end of this year's camp is in sight and only one day more, Monday, will be put in with routine drills; then preparations will commence to "break camp" and return home.

Sunday, the sun shone brightly and camp was deserted, most of the boys going to the beaches and nearby towns.

Company A was "on guard" from Friday night to Saturday night, and was kept on the jump every minute of the time on account of the vast throngs of visitors arriving for the big events Saturday. The boys acquitted themselves nobly in their duties and were complimented for the fine manner in which they handled the exacting "guard duty."

Friday night an unexpectedly large crowd thronged the camp area to witness the night firing of the machine gun companies with tracer and illuminated machine gun fire.

All the boys are feeling fine and there is not a single one on the "sick list." All are acquiring nice coats of tan and adding weight.

During the night firing Friday night Lieut. W. H. McBee discovered quantities of communist literature was being distributed in cars parked in the camp area, but was unable to intercept the persons passing it out. However, most of the literature was picked up and turned over to the proper authorities and an investigation is under way to ascertain who was responsible for its distribution.

The annual Company A camp banquet was held Saturday night in the mess hall and Cook Ralph Smith certainly did himself proud. The menu consisted of leed cantaloupe, sliced tomatoes with mayonnaise dressing, half fried chicken, new peas, mashed potatoes, ice cream and cake, coffee. Among the guests present were Mrs. Ralph P. Cowgill, Mrs. Weldon H. McBride, Miss Wanda Cowgill, Mrs. B. B. Baucum and Mrs. G. C. Herring, also several former members of the company who are now living in Astoria and Portland, also a number of guests from Graham, Ore., the home of Headquarters Company 1st Battalion, this unit being attached to Company A for meat.

Lieut. A. J. Miller, reserve, U. S. A., was a camp visitor Thursday, spending the afternoon and evening here.

Hal Hoss, secretary of state, called on the officers of the company yesterday and asked to be remembered to his many Medford friends.

Band Director Hanslik of the 186th Infantry band, one of the outstanding musical organizations of the northwest, was presented with a copy of Victor Tengwald's Grater Lake waltz song and was so impressed with it that he stated that he was going to set it to dance music and play it next year at camp and on public appearances in Portland, where the band is located.

Major James H. Tierney, U. S. army, in charge of reserve officer instruction in the southern Oregon area is also a camp visitor, and it will be welcome news for the many reserve officers in Medford to learn that Major Tierney has again been assigned to his same area for another year, in orders just received from Washington.

We break camp early Tuesday morning, enroute for home, arriving in Portland at 11:30 a. m., and remain there all day, leaving Tuesday night at 11:30 p. m., and will arrive in Medford on our special train about 11 o'clock Wednesday morning.

SHERIFF ROASTS MEIER FOR LACK OF AID TO NEEDY

The plan of Ernest H. Lister, Josephine county sheriff, to aid the unemployed, was considered at the courthouse in Grants Pass last evening at an open meeting called of people with regular salaries.

In a formal letter, published in the Grants Pass Daily Courier, Sheriff Lister urged the people to attend the meeting that a plan might be worked out to aid the hundreds of people without work in the county. He said that he had visited every town and district in Josephine county, and conditions were desperate.

In his letter, the sheriff said of Governor Meier:

"It is probable that his (Governor Meier's) so-called relief program will become effective the same time his free power program shall get into action. But, after all, the governor should not be censured. How can he, in the security of his millions, be expected to appreciate and understand the desperate need of a prospect of work, without money or other resources, and without even enough supplies in the house for a couple of days. We have hundreds of men with us just like that, and what I mean is hundreds."

Fowler Talks At Grange Meeting
 RAMS VALLEY, June 28.—(Sp.)—Bob Fowler gave an instructive agriculture talk as part of the program at Saturday night's Grange meeting. Among other numbers were a vocal solo by Miss Doris Richardson and piano selection by Miss Helen Buerston.

During the business session it was voted to initiate the writing candidates, June 30. Refreshments were served by the H. E. C.

KERBY YOUTH IS KILLED IN MINE

Funeral services were held this afternoon for Alfred (Shorty) Ramsey, 18, of Kerby, who died Sunday afternoon after a bucket, falling 50 feet, had struck him on the head. With Bob Tompkins, the two were operating a mine alone, and the latter had to summon aid to get the unconscious youth from the bottom of the mine shaft.

Although Dr. C. L. Ogle was waiting at the foot of the mountain with an ambulance, the boy died while being carried down the mountain.

Alfred Ramsey was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Ramsey of Kerby. He is survived by one brother, Marvin and two sisters, Alma and Ardy Ramsey.

Entertainers Will Appear on Program Val Valente Dance

Traveling with Val Valente and his famous dance band are some musicians whose talents are not confined to the instruments they play, according to word received here by members of Hullah Shrine patrol, sponsoring the Valente dance at the fairgrounds pavilion Thursday evening.

Several high-class entertainers are in the personnel and special arrangements have been made at the pavilion for those to attend who do not care to dance.

Besides the many spectators who are expected to answer the Shrine invitation, a large number of the valley's dance fans are already buying their tickets, which are on sale by members of the patrol.

Newspaper Plant's Juice Not Taxable

WASHINGTON, June 28.—(AP)—The bureau of internal revenue ruled today that newspaper plants are industrial enterprises and electric energy consumed is therefore not taxable under the new revenue law.

HOLD BINGS BACK GROWERS ADVISED

Cherry growers of the Ashland district have been advised by Walter U. Friedrichs to refrain from harvesting the bing crop until after July 4, if possible, due to the number of California cherries still on the market. Mr. Friedrichs is representative of the firm of Jacobs, Matlock and Burt company of San Francisco, wholesale dealers in fruit and produce.

Mr. Friedrichs has been conferring with growers throughout the valley for the past few days. The Ashland crop is generally contracted for annually by this firm.

The right BLEND... the right BALANCE

A "balanced" blend... the right Domestic and Turkish tobaccos in the right amounts... blended in a different way... "welded" together.

That's the Chesterfield Cross-Blend... an important reason why Chesterfields are milder and taste better.

It isn't just taking the tobaccos and mixing them hit-or-miss.

The Chesterfield Cross-Blend makes one type or one variety of tobacco partake of the qualities of another. It "welds" together all that is best in each variety.

It's a balanced blend in the truest sense... giving you what really amounts to a new kind of tobacco... Chesterfield tobacco... milder, more fragrant, better-tasting.

that's why Chesterfields TASTE BETTER
