Outfielder Walker, Pitcher Goldstein Among Bright Prospects of Outfit — Star in White Sox Defeat

By GAYLE TALBOT. (Associated Press Sports Writer) Bucky Harris' exploits at Washington in 1924 and '25, when he led the Senators to two pennants and one world championship, will pale by comparison if the former "boy manager" lands his Detroit Tigers as high as second place in the current American league race.

Two of the brightest prospects being shepherded by Harris are Gerold Walker, the young outfielder from Toronto who had a trial last year, and Isadore Goldstein, the 22-year-old pitcher picked up from Beaumont in the Texas league.

Walker stands second to Jimmie Fox among American league hitters with an average of .377, and Goldstein has been credited with three victories and only one loss.

They were co-stars in yesterday's 9 to 3 win over the Chicago White Sox. Goldstein limiting Detroit to five hits and Walker connecting for three doubles. Two other Tiger Cubs, Stone and Davis, hit home runs.

A's Wallop Red Sox. The Philadelphia Athletics supplied the day's other successes in the American league by wallopping the recumbent Boston Red Sox, 13 to 3 and 9 to 4 in a doubleheader.

St. Louis was rained out at Cleveland in the only other game scheduled.

Pittsburg's new-won leadership of the National league grew to a full half-game as the second place Chicago Cubs dropped the day's lone encounter to the Cardinals, 4 to 1.

MAJOR FOOTBALL BANS BROADCASTS ON GAMES

NEW YORK, June 28.—(AP)—Football and radio have come to the parting of the ways so far as the Eastern Intercollegiate Athletic association is concerned.

Food with the prospect of dwindling receipts, this powerful group of 12 major eastern college and universities has voted to prohibit radio broadcasting of all football games played at their home stadiums or under their jurisdiction next season.

"We must take advantage of every opportunity to increase financial receipts of football games," said Major Philip B. Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at West Point and president of the organization, declared in announcing the drastic decision.

The association comprises a dozen of the largest schools in the east, including Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Pennsylvania, Brown, Pittsburgh, Navy, Army, Columbia, Syracuse, Dartmouth and Penn State.

Indications that other sections of the country may follow in the association's footsteps came from Chicago where Major John L. Griffith, western conference athletic commissioner, said Big Ten athletic directors were unanimously in favor of banning football broadcasts.

The question would be considered at the National Collegiate Athletic association meeting in Pasadena, Calif., July 28-29.

FINAL WORKOUTS FOR BOXING CARD

A galaxy of leather pushers will go through final workouts at the city playground this evening in preparation for Promoter Mack Lillard's fight card at the armory Wednesday night.

The main eventers—Jimmy Byrne and Jack McCarthy—are expected to tune up their punches along with the 20 or so assorted athletes working out regularly in the open air arena.

Interest of the fans has been captured by a pair of bouts which will precede the 10-round feature. Circus Red Howe, Marshall's bid for first fame, has been training hard at the playground and he has attracted quite a local following.

Both boys will be seen in six-round bouts Wednesday night. Howe meeting Jack Hayes of Portland and Killen swapping blows with Ray Litman of Grants Pass.

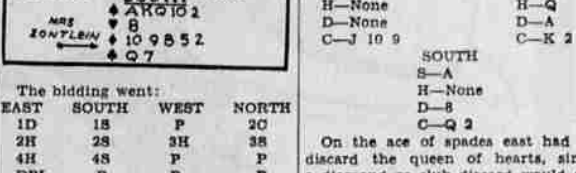

Tips on CONTRACT

A SQUEEZE END PLAY A doubler sometimes lends himself to being the victim of an end play whereby he is compelled to lead away from a king to an ace-queen or similar situation.

Usually by elimination from the hands of declarer and dummy of all suits except the one desired led, the declarer puts the doubler in the lead on one of the last few tricks of the hand.

In addition, sometimes it is necessary to prevent one of the defending side from holding a card by which he can avoid leading the suit the declarer wishes led.

A hand played by Mrs. Maude Hilda Zontlein of New York illustrates the point. Doubled at four spades, she succeeded at her contract by an end play in which a squeeze, the applying of trumps to force discards, helped. The profit was large, since she was vulnerable and had 100 honors. Here was the hand:

The bidding went: EAST SOUTH WEST NORTH 1D 1S P 2C 2H 2S 3H 3S 4H 4S P P DBL P P P West led the king of diamonds, then a heart. North took the second trick with the ace of hearts and immediately led a diamond, east taking it and returning a heart to force trumps.

Mrs. Zontlein cross-ruffed hearts and diamonds, then led trumps so that east was left with only one ace of diamonds and the king and deuce of clubs. The lead of south's last diamond put east in the lead so that he had to lead a club away from the king. South's queen of clubs took the twelfth trick and dummy's ace of clubs the last.

Here was the play: WEST NORTH EAST SOUTH 1. K 3 6 2 2. 10 4 4 8 3. 2 7 4 5 4. 6 3 4 2 5. 7 5 4 10 6. 9 5 4 J 10 7. 6 4 4 9 8. 3 4 J 6 9. 4 4 3 7 10. 8 4 4 7 11. 9 5 4 8 12. 10 8 2 2 13. J 4 4 7

The climax trick was the tenth, when south led the ace of spades. The situation after nine tricks was: NORTH S—None H—None D—None C—A 8 5 4 WEST S—8 H—None D—None C—J 10 9 SOUTH S—A H—None D—8 C—Q 2

On the ace of spades east had to discard the queen of hearts, since a diamond or club discard would set up tricks for the declarer. Then the lead of the diamond eight by south put east into the lead with nothing to play but clubs.

A spade led by east on the fourth trick would have rendered it impossible for the declarer to compel east to lead clubs.

GOLFING SHRINERS DEFEAT BROTHERS

Medford's golfing Shriners are proving too much for the be-fezzed brothers of nearby towns who fancy themselves as niblick swingers.

Some time ago the Medford contingent, which includes Jack Thompson, O. O. Alenderfer, A. P. Johnson and Jerry Jerome, handed an Ashland quartet a 9-to-3 beating over an 18-hole course.

Sam Baker, A. K. Cass, Chas. Cooley and Carl Hammelbacker, the Shrine members of the Grants Pass area, hearing of the prowess of Medford Hillarites, issued a challenge.

Again the locals waged victorious warfare, recording a 10 1/2-to-1 1/2 win over their challengers.

The local contingent is now looking for new fields to conquer and talking about what they will do at the national convention in San Francisco if allowed to play.

BEAVERS, ANGELS FOES FOR WEEK

(By the Associated Press) Teams in the coast league open nine-game engagements today, culminating in doubleheaders next Monday, July 4.

Hollywood, still in first place in the standing by the margin of one game over Portland, plays host to Sacramento, with a fair prospect of strengthening the lead. Portland stays at home to receive the Angels, and although the southerners are in fourth place, only seven games separate them from the Ducks, so closely are the leaders bunched.

The San Francisco Seals remain in the north this week, shifting from Portland to Seattle for a series with the Indians. In San Francisco the tail-end Missons engage the Oaks from across the bay.
