

NURSE INDISCREET DECLARES SISTER IN HUTTON'S TRIAL

Drank Wine and Kicked High On Peewee Golf Course, Is Claim—'Iron Dave' to Deny Fiery Love

LOS ANGELES, June 30.—(AP)—David Hutton, the rotund choir singer and husband of Evangelist Althea Semple McPherson Hutton, was to take the stand today to deny that he was the fiery lover pictured by Myrtle Joan St. Pierre, attractive Pasadena nurse, who is suing him for $200,000 for alleged breach of promise.

"Mr. Hutton positively will take the stand," said Mark Jones, one of the defense attorneys.

The defense, opening its case yesterday, had a few more witnesses to summon today to lay the groundwork for their case by presenting the 30-year-old nurse as a "woman with a past." As soon as their witnesses finished their testimony, Hutton was to take the stand, it was announced.

Sister Hurts Case.

Drama supplanted the humorous side of the case with the appearance on the stand of Mrs. Gladys Caswell, sister of the plaintiff. The sister testified for Hutton.

Mrs. Caswell testified that her sister had drunk wine and otherwise departed herself and once "danced, kicking high and showing off" before male friends at a miniature golf course.

Under cross-examination, Mrs. Caswell denied she was attempting to harm her sister, saying that she "had to be subpoenaed or the story would not be told about her sister."

"I am trying to help her find herself," Mrs. Caswell declared.

"Isn't it a fact," asked Attorney Lorin Andrews for Miss St. Pierre, "that you told a friend they offered you a signed check for $5000 if you would testify against your sister?"

"I don't remember," the witness replied.

Mrs. Caswell admitted that Hutton and an investigator for Angelus Temple had approached her, asking that she "try and get in touch with Myrtle and get her to start a new life."

OREGON BOURBONS UNITED ON STAND FOR F. ROOSEVELT

How they would vote in event the "Stop-Roosevelt" movement assumes definite proportions and the New Yorker's cause should develop into a lost one, has not been determined.

In nearly every case, however, the answer is, "I have no second choice." But conversation among the Oregonians develops a profound respect for and admiration of Governor Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland. This sentiment apparently is much more pronounced than is the feeling for Newton D. Baker.

The cardboard banner of the Oregon group was torn from its standard during last night's riot demonstration by a mezzanine floor spectator, and was retrieved by Martin Fitzgerald, young delegate from La Grande, after some little difficulty. Crumpled and torn, it was again fixed to the pole and brought back to the Oregon seat row.

Three delegates, ex-Governor Walter M. Pierce, H. J. Stillings and W. M. Dalrymple, voted for the minority submission plank. The other seven voted for repeal.

Off To Visit Panama Pigmyies

To complete their collection of ancient American Indian relics, Mr. and Mrs. Martin C. Mogensen of San Francisco and Spring Hill Farm, Martinez, California, sailed on the Dollar Liner President Grant for Panama this week with a recently discovered Carib village as their destination.

Scientists recently discovered a new village of Pigmy San Blas Indians on the East Coast of Panama. They are living in the Stone Age without pottery or weapons other than bows and arrows. Their culture is reputed to be exactly the same today as it was when Columbus first landed on the American Continent.

The Pigmyies are less than five feet high, wear gold nose rings, bind their ankles and live in community houses.

Mr. and Mrs. Mogensen are widely known up and down the Pacific Coast for their excellent stable of show horses and hunters, having won more than 150 awards in the Horse Shows of Coronado, Santa Barbara and Menlo Park.

Mr. Mogensen is the National Advertising Representative of this newspaper.

ROGUE PUBLICITY WILL BE MAPPED AT C. C. MEETING

A meeting of Medford business men, called by the fish and game committee of the Medford chamber of commerce, will be held at the chamber building at 9:00 a. m. tomorrow, for the purpose of discussing an intensive publicity program for the Rogue river section and southern Oregon in general. This proposed publicity program is closely allied with the question of closing the Rogue to commercial fishing and all those interested in these projects are requested to attend the meeting.

According to T. E. Daniels, committee chairman, this will undoubtedly prove one of the most important gatherings, insofar as it affects the development of the Rogue river section as a recreational area, that has been held in southern Oregon for some time, and considerable interest has already been manifested in the extensive program prepared for presentation to the meeting.

The project has already been brought to the attention of the board of directors of the chamber of commerce, at a special meeting held Tuesday afternoon, and the opinion of the directorate was that the plan has a great deal of merit, and should be developed as much as possible by local interests.

Tomorrow's meeting at the Chamber of Commerce building, will not be of great length, and will be called to order promptly at 9:00 o'clock.

Medford's delegation to attend the meeting of the state highway commission, relative to reduction of load limits on logging trucks, will include George Brewer and Floyd Hart, representing the timber interests of the district, and H. S. Deuel, representing the Medford chamber of commerce.

The delegation will be armed with petitions signed by over 1000 Jackson county residents, as well as a letter from the Jackson county court, urging the highway commission to make no new regulations which will have the effect of prohibiting the trucking of logs over state highways.

The local chamber of commerce and the Jackson-Josephine unit of the Oregon Mill and Tract Operators' association have been cooperating in the presentation of data to the highway commission on behalf of reasonable regulation of logging trucks.
