

Society and Club Events Reviewed for Week

Edited by
Eva Nealon

Medford Society Responds to Call Of Beaches, Lakes

Beaches, mountain and river resorts will be the gathering places this week end of Medford society folk as they venture forth to celebrate Independence day, the glorious Fourth.

Diamond Lake, Lake O' the Woods, Oregon Caves, Crater Lake, Greenleaf City, Brookings and the banks of the Rogue will be the most favored, according to social chatter yesterday.

Among out of town guests arriving for the holiday is Jack Scudder of San Francisco, son of Mrs. H. Chandler Egan, in whose honor Mrs. Egan will entertain at her river place Monday. Guests invited for the day are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Ruhl and daughter, Roxana, and Mr. and Mrs. F. Corning Kenly and son, Corning, Jr.

Mrs. C. N. Black entertained yesterday at her river lodge and numerous picnic parties have been planned for today and tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fluhrer are entertaining a group of friends at their cabin at Lake O' the Woods. Mrs. Fluhrer having left for the resort with a party of folk several days ago.

San Franciscans Here for Holiday At Rogue Lodges

Attracted here by the Rogue River along which banks they have their summer lodges, two groups of San Franciscans and Burlingame residents arrived here on the Shasta Saturday afternoon.

F. D. Madison had as his guest, who will remain for the fourth, Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. George Keller, Mrs. George Martin and Miss Louise Boyd.

Andrew Welch, accompanied by his daughter, Miss May Welch, and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Bruck, arrived for the holiday, to vacation at their place on the river.

Squibbs To Visit Carpenters Here Early This Week

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Squibb of Pasadena, Cal., are expected to arrive here Tuesday to be house guests for several days of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter at their home on the Old Stage road.

Mr. Squibb is now planning establishment of a boys' school near Santa Maria, which will be patterned along the same lines as the Kent school in New England, and will be known as Midland ranch school.

A dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. Squibb will be given by the Carpenters Tuesday evening. Guests for the affair will be Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morrill, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Ruhl and Dr. and Mrs. Emmens.

Mrs. Edwin Opens Social Season at Crater Lake Home

Opening the social season at Crater Lake, Mrs. A. R. Edwin was hostess Thursday at a cafeteria bridge luncheon in her lovely home at government camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Edwin were awarded Mrs. E. C. Solly's, and low, Mrs. Edward Clark.

Guests of Mrs. Edwin were Mesdames D. S. Libbey, John Sargent, Don Fisher, E. White, Lowell Smith, Russell Andrews, Charles Simson, Earl W. Court, Clark, Belvidere, and Solly.

Mrs. White is a guest at the lake from Boise, Ida., of Mrs. Fisher.

Lovely Luncheon Given Wednesday By Mrs. McCaskey

Mrs. H. D. McCaskey was among hostesses of the past week, entertaining at luncheon Wednesday at her country home, complimenting Mrs. Wm. Aldrich's mother, Mrs. E. S. Buserd, and Mrs. Katherine Heffernan, who are guests here.

Covers were placed for Miss Carlton, Mrs. L. A. Salade, Mrs. Gordon Voorhies, Mrs. F. Corning Kenly, Mrs. L. A. Salade, Jr., Mrs. Heffernan, Misses Roxana Ruhl and Frances Sparrow.

Guild Bridge Club Announces Event

A jolly event for Wednesday afternoon is planned by the Guild Bridge club of St. Mark's. Covered dish luncheon will be served in Lithia park at Ashland, where the summer heat will be forgotten under the leafy canopy, offered by a wealth of trees.

Following luncheon bridge will be played.

Mrs. J. A. McDougall will act as hostess for the afternoon.

Carpenters, Hosts At Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter entertained at dinner Tuesday at their country home, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morrill, who are from Honolulu for the season, Mr. and Mrs. Corbin Eggle and Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Emmens.

Methodist Missionary Groups to Mission

The Women's Foreign Missionary society of the First M. E. church, will meet in joint session, with the Women's Home Missionary society, Tuesday, July 12, at 2:30.

Mrs. Simmons, hostess

Mrs. E. W. Simmons was hostess at her home on Laurel street last week to members of the Evening Bridge Club. There were two tables in play and high scores held by several.

GIRL SETS OFF OLYMPIC BLOOMS

Here's Lillian Blederman, an Olympic Games hostess, framed in gladioli which has been named the official flower of the international athletic event to be held in Los Angeles.

Medford Women Named to State D. A. R. Positions

Mrs. B. G. Harding of Medford, who was elected to the office of state registrar of the Oregon society, Daughters of the American Revolution, at their conference in Portland last March, has been appointed by Mrs. John Y. Richardson, state regent, to be state chairman of genealogical records for the society. Mrs. William Holt will be state chairman of radio and both ladies will serve during Mrs. Richardson's administration.

Other southern Oregon women heading state committees are Mrs. William Bell, Roseburg, Washington bi-centennial committee; Mrs. R. E. Watenburg, Klamath Falls, state chairman of national old trails, and Mrs. Bert Thomas, Klamath Falls, the D. A. R. magazine. Mrs. Gordon McCracken, of Ashland, an honorary state regent, is an advisory member of the state board, and Mrs. William Campbell, regent of Umpqua chapter, Roseburg, is also a state board member.

Luther Leaguers Present Comedy

The Luther Leaguers of Zion English Lutheran church, provided a delightful social evening for the members and friends of the church last Thursday evening. Aside from other informal amusements and refreshments, the leaguers gave the two-act humorous play, "The New Minister Arrives." Those taking part in the play were: Miss Edna Brewold, Mr. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. O. Clark, Miss Ruedy Hall, Miss Dorothy and Vera Andren and Miss Bernice Crow. Preceding the play Miss Irene Brewold, secretary of the league, gave a brief account of the organization of the league, its rapid growth, activities and future objectives, and followed with a brief synopsis of the play to be given and what characters would be portrayed by different members of the league. Between acts special readings were given by Misses Bernice Crow and Ruby Hall.

Lundys Greeted By Many Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Lundy and very young son, Michael, who were guests here from Portland last week of Mr. Lundy's parents at their home on the Jacksonville road, were the incentive for much informal entertaining.

Mrs. Lundy, Sr., was hostess at dinner in their honor, preceding the Shrine dance Thursday evening, and the Ralph Jennings entertained with a swimming party and picnic supper for their pleasure Friday.

The Lundys left Saturday for their home city where Mr. Lundy is a member of the United Press staff at the Portland bureau.

Altaz Society Adjourns for Summer Season

St. Ann's Altaz society met for its last session preceding summer adjournment Tuesday. A lawn party will be held, however, some time during the month of July.

Bunch Home, Section Of No-Hot Party

The home of Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Bunch on the Jacksonville road was the scene Thursday evening of a no-hot party for 18. Dinner was followed by bridge.

Mrs. Guy Leaves for Portland Visit

Mrs. Minnie Guy, who has completed a successful year conducting piano classes in the Rogue River and Gold Hill schools is leaving today for Portland to attend a public school piano normal course, under the direction of Mrs. Clifford Moore.

To Visit In Seattle

Mrs. David Rosenberg and daughter Nannette, left Saturday noon on the Shasta for Seattle, where they plan to spend a week visiting relatives and friends.

DeSouzas To Holiday At Crescent City

Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeSouza and daughter Martha are motoring to Crescent City to spend the week end and holiday.

Dixie Club Party Changed to July 10

The Dixie Club picnic has been postponed to be held July 10 at the cabin of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hamlin.

Will Motor To Coast

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. McElhose and daughter, Mary Louise, are planning a trip to the coast for the holiday.

Wilson-Childreth Engagement Told At Lovely Party

At a lovely party Friday evening at her home, 129 South Ivy street, Mrs. Cora A. Wilson announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Edna Helen Wilson to Kenneth Childreth, son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Childreth of this city. The wedding will be solemnized at the Wilson residence Saturday evening, July 16.

The announcement of the event, was cleverly concealed under the wings of dainty yellow and black butterflies pinned on the nut cups at the three small tables.

Guests for the evening were the Misses Leneve Sinkins, Virginia Gregory, Genevieve Brown, Geraldine Latham, Marjorie Gregory, Vera Childreth, Esther Hubler, Mary Wilson, Neva Childreth, Iva Fewell, and Mrs. Harry Wilson and the honor guest, Miss Wilson.

Bible School Ends With Fine Program At Friday Session

The Daily Vacation Bible school, which opened June 20 and closed with a program and demonstration Friday, was described as a great success. There were 120 pupils, representing eight denominations, in attendance.

Pupils were instructed by a faculty of 10 teachers from the Christian and Presbyterian churches. Rev. W. R. Baird led the music and taught the adult class in the New Testament. Rev. E. Iverson gave several talks, which proved helpful and Mrs. W. S. Gilmore was general supervisor of the school.

Study Club Gavel Goes to President At Ashland Picnic

The annual picnic of the Wednesday Study club is always well attended and this year was no exception to the rule. The picnic was held in the Ashland park on June the 29th, and seventeen members, their husbands, and several guests, making a total of thirty-five, gathered round the tables and did full justice to the bounteous fare prepared by the club's committee. Guests of the club were, Mesdames Morris, Mundy, Robinson, Vilas, Misses Jane Smedicor and Faye Woolsey. Judge Colvig was also present, and added much to the pleasure of the evening. At a brief business meeting called by the president, Mrs. Miles, all matters pertaining to the past year were concluded. Mrs. M. M. Morris was unanimously elected to membership, and a rising vote of thanks was given Mrs. F. K. Deuel and her committee, for their never-failing ability to provide "good times" for the club in the past two years. Ending her two years as president of the Wednesday Study club, Mrs. Miles presented the gavel of office to her successor, Mrs. J. H. Cochran, who announced her committee for the coming year, after which the club adjourned to meet again in September. cordial invitation to her home on Thursday, July 17 to greet Mrs. John Carlin, was given by Mrs. A. J. Hanby.

Schafers Entertain At Swimming Party

Mrs. Violet Schaffer and daughters, Doris and Lola, entertained Friday evening with a swimming party and buffet supper at Table Rock. Swimming in the Rogue was followed by serving of the buffet supper on the terrace of their attractive country home.

Methodist Ladies Aid Has Meeting

The Ladies Aid society of the First M. E. church, met in regular home coming Tuesday afternoon, in the church parlors. Mrs. F. M. Corlies presiding. Mrs. Cora Calder led the devotions. Mrs. A. S. Bitten, in behalf of the Queen Esther circle, presented Misses Josephine and Helen Power in two piano duets. Vocal solo, "I Love a Little Cottage," Miss Jeanette Trill. Miss Josephine Power, accompanist. A special feature of the afternoon's program were three piano numbers, "Humoresque," "Beautiful," "Good Night, Sweetheart," played by Master Roger Wolf, aged six years. During the social hour the Queen Esther circle, played in the juvenile violin contest, conducted by Max Dolin in an attempt to locate new genius in the violin world of San Francisco.

Baptist Group Has Meeting at Myers Home on Tuesday

Mrs. A. B. Myers of Stewart avenue was hostess to the Ladies' Auxiliary of the First Baptist church Tuesday. The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. F. O. Stinson. Scripture, Psalm 33, by Mrs. Hazel Lester; prayer, Mrs. Mary Stickland. The missionary program was in charge of Mrs. Lester. She spoke of Dr. Ashmore, the first white man to land in Swatow, China, in 1863, and the results following the work he started. There are now 11,64 members of the Baptist churches in China. Mrs. W. H. Eaton told of Ruth Chang, a teacher at Kaying, China. She held short term schools to teach the women to read. In one of these women, 85, learned to read.

False Economy

Mrs. Rachel Mead told of the education of girls. Esther Sing taught in the Junior college at Ninapoo, China, under the Presbyterians and Baptists.

Mrs. Hilda Hague told of Stella Wong, who has been with Louise Campbell in the girls' school of S. China, training the Chinese girls for Christian service. When the new rule was enforced, that a Chinese principal should be obtained for the school, Miss Stella Wong was selected.

Mrs. Mary Stickland gave a report of the work of Pearl Chiang of Changshu, China, in the Girls' school held in old Chinese building.

"Trail of Chinese Women," by Mrs. J. D. Shaffer. Work by Marie Dowling, who is now in the states, was reported by Mrs. L. J. Knox. Mrs. P. H. Daily then gave an interesting review of the study book, "Lady Fourth, daughter of China." Every fourth woman in the world is a Chinese.

Closing prayers were led by Mrs. A. B. Mead and Mrs. M. L. Daily. The social committee then entertained with contest games.

Dr. I. H. GOVE

Guaranteed Dentistry —at prices in line with present times.

235 East Main Street Upstairs. Phone 872-J CONSULTATION FREE

To Wed Smith's Son

Florence Watson of Schenectady, N. Y., is engaged to marry Walter Smith, youngest son of Alfred E. Smith, former New York governor.

Mrs. Henselman is Hostess Thursday

Mrs. George Henselman was hostess Thursday afternoon at a lovely luncheon at her home, which was decorated with an abundance of summer flowers, a gift of her friends.

Following luncheon bridge was played with prizes given to Mrs. Harry Prentice, Mrs. Roland Hubbard and Mrs. Berthold Barnum.

Hensons to Reside In Klamath Falls

Mr. and Mrs. Riley D. Henson and son Stanley left for Klamath Falls Saturday morning, where they expect to make their future home. Mr. Henson has been transferred to Klamath Falls by the Foster-Kleiser Co., where he has been employed for the past 16 years. The Hensons have been residents of Medford for the past 20 years and express much regret at leaving this wonderful valley. They will be greatly missed here.

Missionary Meet Is Postponed

The meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the First Christian church has been postponed from Tuesday until Thursday afternoon in the church parlors at two o'clock. It was announced yesterday, Mrs. Everett Eads' group will be in charge of the presentation period.

Miss Williams on Holiday in North

Miss Helen Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Williams, is spending the week end with relatives in Portland, having left for the northern city Thursday. She will return Tuesday morning to resume her position at the Brown and White agency.

Mrs. Anderson On Trip North

Mrs. Bert Anderson will leave Tuesday for Seattle, Wash., to visit her brother Carl Evans and wife for a few weeks.

Gerhardt's Have Guests at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Phil W. Gerhardt, 125 Columbus street, last Wednesday evening had as dinner guests Dr. and Mrs. Geo. P. Kabele.

Progressive Dinner Given Thursday by The Younger Misses

Misses Marjorie Mulholland, Mollie Brown and Doris Patton were hostesses Thursday evening at a progressive dinner party for about 30 guests.

Starting with the first course at the Mulholland home, the guests continued to the Brown home for the second, and on to the Patton residence for the third, where the evening was completed with swimming, ping pong and dancing.

The guest list for the happy occasion included: Misses Betty Stenquist, Lucille Littrell, Marjorie Mulholland, Helen Patton, Mollie Brown, Anna Mae Paxon, Gertrude Boyle, Marguerite Boyle, Ruby Stone, Burdette Stennett, Marian Moore, Adra Edwards, Carol Dodge, Margaret McCurdy, house guest of the Pattons, Doris Patton, and Messrs. Dick Suelzer, Earl Littrell, Paul Culbertson, Sam VanDyke, Wilton White, Tom Paxon, Roger Early, Max Carter, Dick Sleight, Emil Mohr, Arthur Iverson, Bill Prentice, Harold Gebauer and Bob Carter.

Levy Pupils Give Pleasing Recital

The violin recital, presented by pupils of Victor Levy of the Institute of Musical Education at the First Christian church last Sunday was a delight to the music lovers of the city in attendance. A violin orchestra, including 30 players, played in perfect rhythm and intonation and soloists were equally pleasing with their performances.

Noel Evkins of the piano department, presented three of his pupils who also won the approval of the audience. Piano accompaniments throughout the recital were played by Mrs. Vernice Levy, who was highly commended for her work, as was Mr. Levy for his accomplishments with the young pupils who have taken lessons for only 10 months.

Sutherland Entertain At Bridge Friday

Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Sutherland and Mrs. Louis Smick were hosts at dinner and bridge Friday evening honoring a group of their friends. A portion of the evening was enjoyed in the garden around the fish pool, at the Sutherland home on Pennsylvania and Peach streets.

At bridge, high school prizes were awarded Miss Elbow Mae Wilson and Norman Gail.

Shower Honors Mesdames Kent, Greb

EAGLE POINT—A shower in honor of Mrs. Art Kent and Mrs. Clarence Greb was given June 30 at the home of Mrs. E. T. Seaman, with Mrs. Seaman, Mrs. Charles Walker, and Mrs. C. F. Davies as hostesses. Those present were: Mrs. John Smith and daughter Hazel, Mrs. John Hankins, Miss Violet Spencer, Dorothy Coy, Dorotha Pearce, Mrs. John Greb, Mrs. Grace Cowden, Garrel Charley.

Stinsons Stop Here on Eastern Oregon Trip

Mrs. L. G. Stinson and little daughter, Marie Josephine, and sons Lowell and Freddy of Sacramento, Cal., visited friends in Medford and Ashland last week, having stopped here enroute to eastern Oregon, where they will spend the summer. While here they were guests of the Wm. Wehrli, Mrs. Mack Smith and Mrs. May.

Sloops and Party Here From South

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Sloop had as their guests for the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Pogue of Santa Cruz, Calif., whose marriage was a recent event in that city. Mrs. Pogue daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. King of Exeter, Calif., was Miss Phillips before her marriage. She is a sister of Mrs. Sloop.

While here they made a trip to Crater Lake. They will return south this week to Santa Cruz to make their home.

Miss Wilson Home From Stay in North

Miss Elbow Mae Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wilson has returned to Medford, following a three week's vacation trip in Washington. During her stay she was guest at two house parties, which she pronounced quite delightful upon her return home.

From Seattle, Miss Wilson motored to Yakima with Mrs. Terry, daughter, Miss Penelope and son Richard, who were returning home from the University of Washington. Following a week's visit there, Miss Wilson motored south with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Carpenter, who are visiting relatives at Perrydale. Enroute here, they visited in Bend, and stopped at Crater Lake.

W. R. C. To Observe 40th Anniversary

The Women's Relief Corps will meet in regular session at the armory Thursday at 2:00 p. m.

The 40th anniversary of the corps will be observed and guests for the afternoon will be the Ashland and Central Point corps.

Mrs. Paige and Sister Are Visitors Here

Mrs. Warren Paige and little daughter Patricia, of Oakland, Cal., accompanied by Miss Madeline Gleason, instructor in the Lakeview schools, stopped here last week on their way to Portland and were guests of Mrs. Paul Greiner and Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Kelly at their home on Oregon Terrace.

Mrs. Paige continued to Portland to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Gleason. She will be joined there later in the season by Dr. Paige of Oakland.

Mrs. Gault Honored at Shower Friday

Complimenting Mrs. Henry Gault, who is receiving congratulations upon the arrival of twin babies, a son and daughter, born several weeks ago, a group of her friends entertained with a shower Friday afternoon.

Many lovely gifts were received by mother and babies and a pleasant social afternoon enjoyed.

Bridge Club Meets With Mrs. Greiner In Steiger Garden

Mrs. Paul Greiner entertained members of the Building Bridge club Thursday at a charming party at the home of Mrs. J. J. Steiger. Cards were played in the garden and high score was held by Mrs. Theo. Bickert.

Mrs. Edward C. Kelly assisted her mother in serving refreshments.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. R. Marshall, 1130 West Tenth street, and will be in the form of an evening lawn party Thursday. The event will close meetings for the club for the summer season.

Larry Wilson Has Party on Birthday

Honoring the sixth birthday of her son, Larry, Mrs. Helen Holt Wilson entertained Thursday afternoon between the hours of 2:30 and 4:30. Games were played on the large lawn at the Holt home on Corning Court and refreshments served in a festive setting.

Young friends joining Larry in the celebration were: Jimmy and Joan Elliott, Carol Lee Pace, John Wortman, Billy and Don Johnson, Dorothy Haas, Maurice Campbell, Judy Miller, Larry Hayes, Sally Lee Russell, Mary Lee Putnam and Joan Wilson.

Assisting Mrs. Wilson in serving refreshments were Mesdames Wortman, Johnson, B. C. Wilson, and Russell.

Ernest Lee Barnes' Guests In Portland

Last week-end Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lee Barnes motored to Portland where they were entertained at dinners and dances by their host of Portland friends. Mr. and Mrs. Barnes formerly made their home in Portland and since coming to Medford have made frequent trips to their former home city. While in Portland they were guests at the Portland Hotel.

Mrs. Gault Honored at Shower Friday

Complimenting Mrs. Henry Gault, who is receiving congratulations upon the arrival of twin babies, a son and daughter, born several weeks ago, a group of her friends entertained with a shower Friday afternoon.

Many lovely gifts were received by mother and babies and a pleasant social afternoon enjoyed.

Have Money

Keep A Line On It

WHEN you get money HOLD ON to it; for if it "slips off of your hook" it is GONE. Then you will have nothing to show for your hard work. Increase your bank balance. Hold on to the money you earn.

START SAVING REGULARLY NOW

We Welcome YOUR Banking Business

Farmers and Fruitgrowers Bank

THINK! Medford, Oregon THINK!

Partners in Community Development

HAVE MONEY! HAVE MONEY!

Gardner Drug, Inc.
206 W. Main Street

.. OPEN ..
Sunday and July 4th

Films—Swimming Caps—Fountain Prescriptions

NEXT TO CRATERIAN

Larry Schade
YOUR FAVORITE JEWELER SINCE 1918

Watch and Jewelry Repairing

CONGER FUNERAL PARLOR

West Main at Newtown

Office County Coroner

OUR GUESTS

No hotel in San Francisco offers a finer welcome nor a more personal service than the Clift. The Clift's standards are, we are sure, your standards. You can expect the best here and be sure to get it at every month's rate. Rates $3.00 single... $5.00 double.

At Geary and Taylor the Clift is a landmark. On the main floor are two other equally famous rooms, the Florentine Room and the unique, delightfully airy and airy just off the main lobby, which spans some 540 guest beds. Numerous suites, each Clift, physically one of the best in the city. Numerous suites, each Clift, physically one of the best in the city. Numerous suites, each Clift, physically one of the best in the city.