

Chan Egan Defeats Hogan 4 and 3 to Win Northwest Golf Title

MEDFORD'S STAR FORGES TO FARE IN FINAL ROUND

Wipes Out Portland Youth's Lead in Morning Round to End Match on 15th Hole in Afternoon.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 2.—(AP)—With a masterful display of approach and putting H. Chandler Egan, Medford, twice national champion, defeated Eddie Hogan, Portland, 4 and 3 today to win his fifth Pacific Northwest amateur golf championship.

Mrs. Vera Hutchings, Vancouver, B. C., vanquished Mrs. Brent Potter, Palo Alto, defending champion, 7 and 6 to win the women's title.

Egan, a national golf figure for thirty years, proved too much for the Portland boy who will be 21 in November. For a time in the morning round Hogan appeared on his way to the championship, being 3 up. But Egan stepped out the lead to finish all square at noon.

Egan was out in front on the second afternoon hole, where he teed out of bounds, then gained a birdie four with a chip shot 50 feet off the green. They squared again at the third, but Egan took the fifth and sixth, and Hogan was unable to square the match again. The match ended at the 15th.

Mrs. Hutchings won the first hole of the match and never thereafter lost the lead. She was five up on Mrs. Potter at the end of the morning round.

Mrs. Potter had difficulty with her putter, her ball several times timing the cup, and that was the principal reason for her defeat. Both had plenty of trouble with their tee shots.

FANS WILL SEE GREATEST GIRL BASEBALL STAR

The S. K. S. L. girls baseball club which meets the Valley All-Stars at the fairgrounds park Sunday, July 17, is a team made up of stars, with Corene Jaax, first sacker, hailed as the greatest girl baseball player in the world.

To watch her in action would soon justify that statement for she has played five years of baseball against men teams and can field, bat, and run bases in a style to parallel professional men first basemen.

Her powerful physique, trained by constant athletics, gives her the strength to take a hard swing at the ball and the ability to throw a baseball long distances.

In this latter respect she is becoming quite proficient and wherever she plays she usually is challenged by one of her masculine opponents to a special long distance throwing contest. She has written Lou Puhl, of the Valley All-Stars, that she will meet any of the All-Star players in a contest for long distance throwing when she arrives in Medford for the girls' game Sunday, July 17. ## VALLEY BASEBALL TRUCE ON HORIZON

Officials of the Rogue River Valley Baseball league have, in an attempt to prevent the league from breaking up, sent word to Manager George Young of the Grants Pass Athletics, that if the latter team will return to the league, Crescent City will be accepted as a fourth team in the league, and Medford and Hill, Cal., dropped.

The Athletics left the league several weeks ago after a misunderstanding among the teams. Now, due to financial losses and lack of interest on the part of the fans as well as the difficulty of keeping the league together, Grants Pass is considering the advisability of returning to the league, says Manager Young.—Grants Pass Courier.

HAGEN ASCENDS WESTERN THRONE

CLEVELAND, July 2.—(AP)—Back on his happy hunting grounds of golf where he first arose to national fame, Walter Hagen fought the battle of his life today to ascend the western open throne for the first time.

While a heavy gale raged and a large gallery stormed the fairways, the veteran of a thousand golfing wars came from behind with a dramatic rush of par-crashing golf in the final four holes to beat out Olin Dutra, California's gay caballero, by one shot, 287 to 288.

OUTSIDERS TAKE OREGON TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

PORTLAND, Ore., July 2.—(AP)—Both of Oregon tennis titles left the state for another year today when slender, blonde Gracyn Wheeler, up from Los Angeles, celebrated her eighteenth birthday by defeating another Californian, Dorothea Schwartz, San Francisco, and Henry Prusoff, Seattle, turned back Oregon's only threat, Henry Neer, Portland.

Miss Schwartz carried the new champion to 10-8 in the first set, the two alternating on winning their service until the 17th game, when Miss Wheeler broke through to win Miss Schwartz' service, then took her own to win the set.

The grueling pace of that first set told on the San Franciscan, and Miss Wheeler took the second, 6-2.

Neer battled on even terms with Prusoff in the first set until the ninth game. Then Prusoff broke thru, and found little difficulty in finishing the match. The sets stood 6-1, 6-2, 6-1.

Edmiston will be umpire. In the semi-finals, H. G. Wilson was defeated by Joe Patton 7-5, 12-14, and Butler defeated Patton 6-2, 6-4.

BUTLER, BOGGS IN NET FINAL TODAY

With several upsets already recorded in the city tennis tournament, Harry Butler and Carter Boggs will meet each other at the junior high courts this morning at 9:30 o'clock to decide the winner of the Mail Tribune trophy. The chief turnover of the contests, which started Thursday, was the defeat of the southern Oregon champion, Jimmy Edmiston, by Harry Butler, 6-8, 6-4, and 6-2.

Carter Boggs won his position in the finals, eliminating Alvin Tollefson, 6-1, 4-6, and 6-4. Carter is booked as a "wonder" this summer, as he came in ahead of Harry Garfield, Jimmy Edmiston and Joe Patton, all ranking above him, to be in today's contest, for which J. E.

BLIND BUYING

Merchants would be amazed if their patrons attempted to shop BLIND-FOLDED... Such a thought would be out of the question. Business men spend a lot of money to properly DISPLAY merchandise so that buyers may examine what they purchase... may be sure that FULL MEASURE is given... so they may KNOW that they are getting value received.

Audit Bureau of Circulation Ends "Buying Blind" For Advertisers

To buy ordinary "claimed" circulation is just like shopping blindfolded... An accurate audit of newspaper circulation is just like displaying merchandise—the merchant who advertises or the woman who places a classified ad KNOW what they are buying—there's no Guesswork! Because the Mail Tribune wants to DISPLAY ITS CIRCULATION, so that advertisers may KNOW what they are buying, this newspaper is a member of Audit Bureau of Circulation.
