

Baer Wins Clean-Cut Decision Over Levinsky in Grueling Bout

NERVY KINGFISH ABSORBS LACING STAYS ON FEET

Vicious Body Attack by Californian Keeps Chicago Fish Peddler On Defense—Crowd Pleased

RENO, Nev., July 5.—(AP)—Curly-headed Max Baer, one-time California butcher boy, stood smiling but firm among the front-rank contenders today as a result of an impressive 20-round decision over King Levinsky, Chicago's ex-fish peddler, here yesterday.

Eight thousand fans sat on the pine boards of Jack Dempsey's open-air arena, as a late afternoon sun settled toward the Sierra peaks, and witnessed the complete route of the rugged Chicago battler.

They saw Baer wage a determined, vicious, ceaseless body attack throughout the contest.

Levinsky Punished
They saw Levinsky, punished as few fighters have been punished for 20 rounds, return gamely to the attack time after time though his side was raw from blows which caused him to wince.

They saw Referee George Blake raise Baer's hand in victory and they were satisfied. There was no question about the winner.

It was the Californian's second decision victory over his opponent. He won the first in a 10-round fight in New York last year.

Though the 20 rounds were furiously fought there was no knockdown. Levinsky's haymaker swings to his opponent's jaw failed to slow up the slugging Baer. The Chicago Kingfish, on the other hand, refused to fall before the body barrage which sapped his strength.

Unable to Halt Baer
Levinsky, who came into the ring at 160½ pounds, was outweighed six pounds. He challenged the superiority of the heavier opponent by slugging attacks in the first and second and ninth and tenth rounds. After that the fight was all Baer's.

Levinsky was unable to protect himself from Baer's body battering and at long range he was outclassed in boxing.

The referee gave the Chicagoan five rounds, called one even and credited the rest to Baer.

Levinsky's handlers revealed after the fight their charge injured his right hand in the third round as he connected with Baer's elbow. The Kingfish's knuckles were badly swollen and he was forced to go to a hot springs for treatment.

The 8000 fans paid $23,000 to see the battle.

BEAVERS, STARS KNOTTED AGAIN FOR LEADERSHIP

By the Associated Press.
Hollywood beat Sacramento twice in yesterday's holiday double-header, while Portland broke even with Los Angeles, throwing the Stars and Beavers, back into a tie for Pacific Coast league leadership.

Portland had little difficulty in beating Los Angeles in the first game, 7 to 2, but the Angels shut out the Beavers, 3 to 0 in the night cap. Portland took the series six games to three.

By taking the doubleheader, 11 to 5 and 4 to 1, Hollywood nosed out Sacramento in the series, five games to four. Home runs were plentiful.

After the Seattle Indians had won seven straight games, the San Francisco Seals broke up the winning streak by taking both holiday games yesterday, 9 to 6, and 7 to 0. Seattle won the series, six to two, one having been rained out.

Oakland won the morning game from the Missions, 10 to 2, but the Reds came back to win after lunch, 12 to 4, taking the series seven games to two.

YANKEE CATCHER BREAKS JAW OF SOLON SLUGGER

WASHINGTON, July 5.—(AP)—While Carl Reynolds nursed a broken jaw, President Griffith of the Washington Senators awaited decision today from President William Harridge of the American league concerning the crippling haymaker Catcher Bill Dickey of the Yankees let fly here yesterday against the slugging outfielder.

After the fracas, which followed the decisive play in the first of two games Washington took from the league leaders, Griffith telegraphed Harridge. He asked the maximum fine and suspension of the Yankee catcher until Reynolds is able to return to the lineup for what he described as "the most atrocious act one ball player ever perpetrated on another." Griffith also demanded that

SENATORS HALT YANKS' RUNAWAY BY DUAL DEFEAT

By Herbert W. Barker.
(Associated Press Sports Writer.)
If the New York Yankees should make a runaway of the American league pennant race this year, it won't be the fault of Walter Johnson's Washington Senators.

Knocking over the leaders twice in their Fourth of July doubleheader, the Senators became the first club in the league to gain an edge over the Yankees in games won and lost this season. Of the 17 games the Senators and Yankees have played this season, Washington has won nine.

The Senators snapped Vernon Gagne's 11-game winning streak in the opener, 5-3. They turned the second battle into a rout by scoring six times in the first three innings and winning, 16-6, despite homers by Larry Crockett and Ruth, the latter's 23rd of the season.

Taking advantage of the enforced idleness of the Philadelphia Athletics, the Detroit Tigers moved into second place by tripping the St. Louis Browns twice, 2-0 and 12-7.

Cleveland won the first game from Chicago, 4-2, as Wes Ferrell pitched his 15th victory of the year, but the Indians succumbed to Ted Lyons' mastery in the nightcap, 2-1.

In the National league, the Pittsburgh Pirates increased their lead to a game and a half by outslugging the Chicago Cubs twice, 6-5 and 6-5.

The Cubs dropped into third place, a game back of the Boston Braves, who trounced the Phillies twice, 8-6 and 9-0.

Cincinnati punched out a 7-3 decision over the St. Louis Cardinals in the first game and then fought the world champions to a 3-3 tie in the 13-inning nightcap, halted by darkness.

The Giants and Brooklyn were rained out.

LEGION JUNIORS BOW TO 'STARS'

The Jackson county Junior American Legion team was defeated by the Ashland Stars, 10 to 5, Monday at the Ashland Fourth of July celebration. A Normal school pitcher was too much for the kids, who, however, held their older opponents in check until the 13th inning. The Juniors were ahead in the early part of the game, but were unable to maintain their lead. Alva Merritt pitched the opening stanza for the Juniors.

The Juniors will play Klamath Falls at Klamath Falls Thursday, in the first game to decide the district title. Klamath Falls has a strong squad. If the locals get by Klamath Falls, in the three-game series, they will meet Marshfield and Eugene for the right to go to Salem.

The second game of the Klamath-Medford series will be played in this city, either next Saturday or Monday.

CIRCUIT COURT DOCKET BARREN

No cases are scheduled this week for the circuit court, but Circuit Judge H. D. Norton will be on hand most of the week for the transaction of routine business.

The only legal matter pending is that of Niedermyer, Inc., against the Pacific Record Herald and Earl R. Fehl. It is expected to be called next week and will be heard before Judge E. J. Latourette of Oregon City, assigned to the case by the supreme court when an affidavit of prejudice was filed against Judge Norton by Fehl.

The plaintiff has five days in which to reply to the answer of Fehl filed Saturday, in which Fehl alleged that Niedermyer, Inc., owed him approximately $22,000 for promotional work and services rendered in connection with the building of the Holly theater. It is a counter claim against the mortgage held by Niedermyer, Inc.

LOCAL GOLFERS IN OVATION FOR CHAMPION EGAN

M. Chandler Egan who won for the fifth time the northwest golf title in Portland Saturday returned to his home here Sunday, making the trip by motor. Playing golf as usual the next morning, Egan was forced to hold an impromptu reception, as he went over the course, clicking the same sort of par golf that brought him victory over last year's title holder in the finals, and made his average after the qualifying round six under par.

Egan took his extraordinary achievement with characteristic modesty. "I was even more surprised at winning than the newspaper boys, and that's saying a lot," said he. "Every time I won a match the news hounds would follow me about and sniff and try to figure it out, and then give it up. I had been playing good golf before the tournament, but developed a blister on my hand, and wasn't very hot in the qualifying round. I felt less confidence in winning through to the finals than many times in the past when I failed. But I didn't worry, didn't take things too seriously, and as the tournament went on surprised myself by playing better and better. I think my mental attitude had a good deal to do with it. I played cool, win, of course—always do—but I refused to get hot and bothered, and would have missed no sleep if I had lost.

"As a result I was on my game all the time, and won out simply by playing better golf. The newspaper boys couldn't—any of them. The gallery reported me over 50 years old instead of 48. Everyone knew I had won the national title over a quarter of a century ago—six years before my opponent in the finals was born—so why I didn't fall over and break up into little pieces they couldn't fathom. The biggest kick I got out of the tournament was the facial expressions of the sport writers. I have an idea they are still trying to explain it."

It is probable that Egan will enter the qualification round for the national amateur which will be held in August, but he has not definitely decided as yet. Three years ago Egan played in the national and was put out by William, whom he defeated in the third round in Portland last week.

BUTTE, Mont., July 5.—(AP)—In a little suburban church where once they served as altar boys, funeral services for six youths who grew up together were played together yesterday morning met death together will be held this week.

The six youths, none over 20, all victims of a Fourth of July celebration explosion, whose bodies will be interred following a single church service, are Joseph Cronch, William Cronch, Stanley Verrich, Stanley Sizzic, Joe Mutich and Ralph Kavan.

The six friends were found dead early yesterday morning, their bodies torn and broken from the explosion of several hundred blasting caps. The bodies were thrown about a baseball field where they had gathered to celebrate the holiday.

NANDIE PLANNING UNIQUE NEW CAFE

F. E. Nandie, well known local culinary expert, who was formerly associated with the Rex cafe in the pastry department for six years, announced today that he has purchased Geary's cafe. Within the next two weeks this restaurant will be transformed into an entirely new type of place, carrying out extensive plans of the owner, who will also change the name to fit its unique character.

For the past two years Mr. Nandie was employed as pastry chef at the Pelican grille in Klamath Falls, maintaining his home in Medford during that time. In addition to serving delicious meals and pastries at his restaurant, Mr. Nandie will also retail bakery goods.

Trowbridge Cabinet works will have charge of designing and constructing a new front and remodeling the interior of this cafe.

Mayor Welcomes "Grand Hotel" as Art Triumph

To the manager of the Fox Craterian:
I appreciate the important part the cinema art occupies in the entertainment life of a community and the unstinted praise being given the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production of "Grand Hotel." I bespeak a hearty Medford welcome.

E. M. WILSON, Mayor.

FLAMES DESTROY BASEBALL PARK

SEATTLE, Wash., July 5.—(AP)—Seattle's baseball park was in ruins today, destroyed by fire of unknown origin, but believed by firemen to be incendiary.

The flames which quickly destroyed the structure, valued in 1913 at the time of construction at $100,000, for a time threatened to leap Rainier avenue and endangered nearby lunch stands and buildings adjacent to the park.

While several fire companies were endeavoring to check the flames, fire mysteriously broke out in two homes a few blocks away.

The Seattle team had lost a double header to San Francisco only a few hours previously and later left for the south for a week's stand against Oakland. The Indians are to return here in two weeks. It was believed their new home would be the playground at the civic auditorium.

GOOD TIMES NEAR FOR MEDFORD IS WORD FROM SEER

"Medford isn't going to take the bump on the nose other cities have,"—thus said the Great Zoro. Reading the astrological chart of this city yesterday after opening a week's engagement at the Holly theater Sunday, he predicted "better times noticeable the second week in July for Medford, now in the second cycle of its revolution."

"The financial pickup will continue," the man who can see more in a birthday than most folks do in a lifetime, added. "Medford will know steady progress. The worst is over. She was born in the year of the sun," he declared, turning the chart with a quick movement of his psychic hands, while an immense ring with a single "42", its only ornamentation, flashed through the signs of the zodiac.

"Her greatest industry will always be crops, regardless of what minerals you may find. Last year was the year of the sun. That's why she had more produce than we could sell. This year,

WRECKED HOMES, AFFAIRS OF THE HEART, ALL NEWS THIS YEAR WILL CONCENTRATE ON LOVE AND ITS OPPOSITE, HATE.

The scandals will be domestic, not financial. Watch the papers and see." The coming year, 1932, Zoro added, will be the year of Mercury. A year for action. Plans which have developed under Venus who inspires great dreams but little action, will develop into work for the working man. The big interests may continue to suffer but not the laborer.

Two dark spots on the Medford chart were then revealed to the astrologist through another swift turn of the wheel, "an epidemic in September, a bitter election and a lot of mid-slitting in November" (which shouldn't be blamed on the stars.) Tomorrow Zoro will conduct at the theater "An Answer All Day," which means that he will devote his day to answering the tremendous supply of questions anticipated. All persons, desiring a glimpse into their futures, the promises their birthday charts hold, are invited to submit their questions. Through-out his performance Zoro will answer them and those which are not cared for during the performance will be answered and placed in sealed envelopes and held to the theater lobby for the questioners.
