Comment on the Day's News

BY FRANK JENKINS

As these words are written, James Mattern and Bennett Griffin, who flew safely and rather casually over the wild and dangerous waters of the north Atlantic, are enroute to Moscow by train after "cracking up" in a Russian bog.

One is reminded of the soldier who fought through three wars and then was killed by a brick that fell on his head from the top of a building.

HERE is the moral—if you care for morals:

If you have something WORTH WHILE to do, DO IT, taking whatever chances are necessary.

We take plenty of chances every day, no matter what we do.

DOWN in Portland the other day—or so, at least, it is alleged—masked bandits entered the offices of a firm of attorneys at night, held up the watchman at the pistol's point, and stole from the safe the petitions for an initiative measure proposing consolidation of the University and an Agricultural College.

We're getting to be a wild and woolly lot here in Oregon, aren't we?

THESE petitions, proposing a law of very great importance to the state of Oregon, have been hawked around all over Oregon, in the hands of persons of no official standing. Names on them have been purchased at so much per name.

Now, we read, they have been hatched at the pistol's point by desperate and unscrupulous persons, intent upon interfering at any cost with the processes of law in this sovereign state.

THERE have been ugly stories in the past about this business of petition shoving.

It has been asserted, on reasonably good authority, that petitions proposing laws that would be injurious to certain interests have been circulated and filled, at so much per name, and that after the petitions were filled and ready to file they were SOLD at a high price to the interests that would have been injured by the proposed law.

We have a name in this country for that kind of business. It is known as RACKETEERING.

IT isn't a very pleasant situation when unscrupulous individuals can take advantage of the processes of law-making to practice racketeering is it?

THIS writer has urged for many years that this practice of private and unofficial circulation of petitions for initiative and referendum measures be done away with, and that in its place we adopt the system of placing petitions with responsible public officials, such as county clerks, where those who wish to sign may go and do so.

That, at least, would do away with petition racketeering. If such has actually existed in the past, as there seems to be reason to suspect.

HERE is a purely personal question:

What do you think of the personal feud between Governor Meier and Secretary of State Hoos, which is more than a year has been aired so liberally in the newspapers?

THIS writer, who is merely one individual among many thousands of individuals, thinks it is very, very far indeed beneath the proper dignity of two of the highest officials of this state of ours, of which we are all exceedingly proud.

GOVERNOR MEIER is a good man and an able official. With his desire to provide installment payment for automobile licenses, which precipitated the latest brawl, this writer is in complete accord, believing it to be a sound method of meeting an existing emergency.

Secretary of State Hoos, whom this writer has known intimately for many years, is also a good man and an able and conscientious official, whose administration of his office has been above reproach.

It isn't a pleasing spectacle when men of such unquestioned ability and talent become so deeply involved in a personal quarrel that they forget the dignity of their high offices and quarrel and bicker and brawl in public like a couple of irresponsible boys making faces at each other.

Beth Bailey To Serve Pen Term

KLAMATH FALLS, July 9.—(AP)—Beth Bailey, confessed check forger, will be taken to the state penitentiary at Salem next Wednesday to serve a sentence not to exceed 10 years.

UNCLE SAM MUST TRIM WAR DEBTS SAYS M'DONALD

Conference Authorized by Reparations Agreement Will Seek Reduction in Powers' U. S. Obligations

WASHINGTON, July 9.—(AP)—Official intimations that the United States was willing to consider further war debts cuts in view of the new agreement sharply curtailing German reparation payments met with stern protests today on Capitol Hill.

The expressions of resentment continued, despite a state department declaration that the American government's policy had undergone no change since President Hoover's memorandum statement of June 20, 1931, which opposed debt cancellation, but said capacity to pay should be the basis for fixing the amount of debts.

By MELVIN K. WHITEHAUSER, Associated Press Staff Correspondent, LAUSANNE, Switzerland, July 9.—(AP)—The reparations agreement scaling down Germany's bill from an original $64,000,000,000 to approximately $12,500,000,000 was initiated today by delegates of the leading powers, and almost before the ink was dry preparations were started for the world economic conference authorized in the treaty.

Convinced that a great stride had been made toward putting Europe's economic house in order, Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald of Great Britain, whose indomitable determination was largely responsible for the agreement, turned his attention to adjusting the agreement of Lausanne to world problems. That means bringing in the war debts of $11,000,000,000 owed to the United States.

At the ceremony of signature the prime minister made a speech in which he declared, in effect, that the United States would have to reconsider those debts.

Dignified New Chapter

"This begins a new chapter," he said. "We have closed one book and opened a new one. Agreement has not been easy. There are too many old memories which are not easy to uplift.

"Lausanne must put into effect a universal framework. Europe can not live alone. The arrangements signed here must have a response elsewhere."

The immediate problem was the extending of an invitation to the United States, which was the subject of several conversations today. This matter was considered most delicate.

GERMAN PARTIES AGAINST TREATY

BERLIN, July 9.—(AP)—When Chancellor Franz von Papen faces the new recharging in August he may be himself in the paradoxical position of seeking support for the Lausanne treaty from the parties that backed his predecessor, Dr. Heinrich Brüning, and of finding himself deserted by the parties that lifted him into the governmental saddle.

Unless both Adolf Hitler's national socialist and Dr. Alfred Hugenberg's socialist change their attitude, they are likely to vote against the treaty.

Headquarters of both parties today issued statements saying they were dissatisfied with results of the Lausanne conference.

ROOSEVELT, SONS ON SEA VOYAGE

NEW YORK, July 9.—(AP)—Democratic candidate for the White House will cook his own meals, wash dishes and be his own housekeeper next week.

But between such menial tasks, Franklin D. Roosevelt will turn his mind to thoughts of the most important undertaking he has ever faced—a campaign for the presidency.

The governor sets sail Monday on a 45-foot yawl which has been rented for $150. His only companions, as he cruises up the New England coast, will be three of his four sons.

Tesla Certain Planets Also Have Inhabitants

NEW YORK, July 9.—(AP)—Nicola Tesla is convinced that other planets are inhabited and intends to devote the rest of his life to "establishing intelligent communications between two planets."

The famous inventor will be 78 tomorrow, but his vitality is such that "I could climb a tree 100 feet tall right now."

He calls his present endeavor "annihilation of distance" and said today "the transmission of energy to another planet is only a matter of engineering." He declared it to be "mathematically certain" other planets are inhabited.

"Every planet," he explained, "has to pass through practically the same phase of existence, the earth did, and life is started on them during that favorable phase by rays of some sun."

"It is conceivable," he added, "that there is civilization on other planets far ahead of ours. If communication were established by the earth, the consequences to the inhabitants of the earth would be incalculable."

Rich Gold Strike Starts Miners On Stampede In Idaho

OROFINO, Idaho, July 9.—(AP)—With announcement of a giant free milling gold lode south of Pierce today, citizens expected an influx of hundreds of prospectors from all over the northwest.

J. R. Crawford, the miner who discovered the reported lode, six feet thick, filed on or controlled more than 400 acres and a prospector named Spencer staked out 40 acres more.

Samples of gold ore assaying as high as $1110 a ton and others of lesser value showing $20, $197 and $326 a ton apparently started a hectic stampede.

$5000 FOR NURSE IS JURY'S VERDICT AGAINST HUTTON

LOS ANGELES, July 9.—(AP)—Painting after she heard that a $5000 verdict had been returned against her husband in Myrtle St. Pierre's breach of promise action, Almee Sempie McPherson Hutton, the evangelist, toppled backward on the porch of her Lake Elsinore lodge tonight and, according to physicians, received a concussion of the brain.

LOS ANGELES, July 9.—(AP)—The jury considering the damage suit for breach of promise by Myrtle St. Pierre against David L. Hutton, husband of the Angelus temple evangelist, Almee Sempie McPherson-Hutton, today brought in a verdict for the Pasadena nurse in the sum of $5000.

The verdict was voted unanimously, members of the jury of seven men and five women reported although in California a verdict may be returned by a majority of not less than 9 to 3 in civil cases.

Mark Jones, attorney for Hutton, was not in court but he announced through an associate that an appeal would be taken.

Miss St. Pierre, nurse, had asked for damages of $200,000 claiming that Hutton betrayed her under a promise to marry and later filled her, marrying the evangelist.

The jury had been out about six and one half hours, after hearing brief instructions from Superior Judge Lester W. Roth.

WOULD ELIMINATE 'C' GRADE FRUIT

WENATCHEE, Wash., July 9.—(AP)—Elimination of "C" grade fruit from the standard packers was urged upon Oregon fruit growers at the final session Friday of the Washington State grade and pack conference. Washington packers requested that Oregon join with Washington in relegating the "C" grade from the standard classifications.

The Orley was included with the yellow Newtowns in exception from the "C" grade regulations, and summer varieties of apples were exempt from color and maturity requirements.

The conference voted a permit charge of 35 cents a ton on fruit going to by-products plants, the money to be used in department of agriculture work.

FLIERS DISMANTLE SHIP IN PEAT BOG

BORISOV, U. S. S. R., July 9.—(AP)—James Mattern and Bennett Griffin, American round-the-world fliers, who had expected by this time to be winging their way above the Pacific ocean, spent today in the mud of the peat bog where their plane cracked up in landing Thursday.

Mattern was limping from a bruised knee. Griffin had a black eye and scratches on his forehead were covered with pieces of adhesive tape. Both fliers kept their spirits up.

When an Associated Press correspondent found them, they were dismantling their plane preparatory to shipping it to Moscow for repairs.

BIG TAX REFUNDS MAIN TARGET FOR TREASURY PROBE

High Federal Officials to Be Asked if Investigation Is Welcome—Garner Would Avoid Embarrassment

WASHINGTON, July 9.—(AP)—High government officials are to be given an opportunity to tell the house rules committee Monday whether they would welcome an investigation into federal fiscal affairs as favored by Speaker Garner.

Secretary Mills and Eugene Meyer, governor of the federal reserve board and chairman of the board of reconstruction finance corporation, will be invited by Chairman Poy to give their views on the resolution calling for a special committee of house members to make the inquiry.

Irregularities Charged

Hearings on the proposal were begun today with Representative McFadden (R., Pa.), charging irregularities in the treasury department, the federal reserve board and banks and particularly with regard to tax collections and refunds.

Garner told newspapermen that if the Republican organization thought it best for the country not to investigate the treasury at this time, he would defer it temporarily.

The speaker said the investigation also be directed particularly at the $3,730,000,000 the treasury has allowed taxpayers in refunds, rebates and credits, including the $98,000,000 returned to the United States Steel Corporation.

DR. HOWARD GIVEN ANNUAL RED CROSS MEETING JULY 15TH

A telegram has been received by the Mail Tribune from the American Osteopathic association in session at Detroit, Mich., stating that Dr. W. W. Howard of this city has been appointed terminological chairman of the seventh annual convention, which has been in session during the week.

Dr. Howard, a prominent member of the national organization, has been honored at previous conventions with positions.

Ruth's Next Waits Divorce Court Cue

HOLLYWOOD, July 9.—(AP)—A surprising turn to the contemplated "friendly divorce" of Ruth Chatterton and Ralph Forbes, both of the screen, took place last night with the announcement of George Brent, leading man for Miss Chatterton, that he and Miss Chatterton were to be married as soon as the Reno ink is dry on the divorce papers.

Scott and Aldrich Resignation Denied

PORTLAND, Ore., July 9.—(AP)—A report, said to have been published today in a Salem newspaper that Leslie M. Scott and E. B. Aldrich had resigned from the state highway commission, was denied by Governor Meier. He said neither commissioner had indicated any intention of quitting the commission.

Nanking Shaken By Shell Blast

Fortune Smiles

George Slaughter, 65, who has been earning $12 a week as a Santa Rosa, Cal., city park caretaker was advised he was an heir to share in $28,000,000 Texas oil estate. He smiled and kept on working, unable to believe the story true.

STATE GASOLINE SALE ADVOCATED

BOISE, Idaho, July 9.—(AP)—A proposal that Idaho go into the gasoline business to bring down the price was broached today by George G. Barrett, state treasurer.

Analyzing in a statement the costs of delivering the gasoline to Idaho, he said it could be brought here at 20.3 cents a gallon and with the state charging two cents for overhead, a saving of more than four cents a gallon could be made.

"During March," he said, "Idaho used 2,334,925 gallons of gasoline. If the state made it possible to buy gasoline at 22 cents a gallon instead of the present 26 1/2 cent product, this would mean a saving of $127,571 a month or $1,530,859 a year. In two years we would have sufficient money to pay the state's bonded debt."

LOCAL MEN ORGANIZE CRATER FLYING CLUB

The club still lacks three members of having the desired number. Anyone interested in becoming a member can get in touch with Dan Howland of the E. R. White Machinery Company, or Archie Pierce at the Pierce Auto Freight Lines.

It sure is a lot prettier sight to look at thousands of white-faced cattle than thousands of bald-faced delegates in one corral howling like mad and milling for nothing. They brand the cattle so you can tell 'em and have to put badges on the delegates, so there's not much difference after all.

WALLOWA, Ore., July 9.—(AP)—Among the possessions of F. M. Davis, aged and apparently poverty-stricken recluse who died recently, were found cash and securities totaling $80,000.

VETO BY HOOPER AWAITING RELIEF BILL ON MONDAY

Two Billion Unemployment Measure Given Final Congressional Approval by Senate Adoption, 43-31

WASHINGTON, July 9.—(AP)—With President Hoover's veto message awaiting it at the White House, the $2,100,000,000 unemployment relief bill emerged from congress today, hearing the controversial provision for loans to individuals.

Final congressional approval was given the measure when the senate adopted the conference report by a vote of 43 to 31 after little more than an hour's debate.

Senate Democrats rallied to the support of their vice-presidential candidate, Speaker Garner, in his conflict with President Hoover over loans to individuals, but prepared to give way for a compromise bill after the veto.

To Hoover Monday.

The completed bill was not sent to the White House today because the house was not in session, but it will go forward Monday. The veto message is ready to be sent to congress.

REYNOLDS' WIDOW AND CHUM HELD FOR DEATH QUIZ

WINSTON SALEM, N. C., July 9.—(AP)—Smith Reynolds' widow and his life-long chum, Albert Walker, were taken into custody today as material witnesses for a coroner's jury investigating the death of the young heir to the Reynolds tobacco millions.

Bianche Yurka, New York actress, and close friend of Mrs. Reynolds, the former Lily Holman, popular Broadway torch singer, was directed to hold herself at the call of the court of inquest, which adjourned until 1 p. m. Monday.

Announcing the action of the jury, J. Eric McMichael, assistant solicitor, said the discovery of new evidence, including fingerprints outlined in blood on a bathroom door, in the palatial Reynolds home, undoubtedly weighed largely with the jurors in reaching their decision.

The stains were said to have been found today on the door connecting the bathroom with the bedroom where Mrs. Reynolds was reported to have been at the time her husband suffered a bullet wound through his head on a sleeping porch adjoining the bedroom.

In a later statement, McMichael revealed that a towel, stained with what appeared to be blood, was also found in the bathroom.

WRONG ROGERS ELECTED, CLAIM

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 9.—(AP)—Declaring the Will Rogers who received the most votes in the Democratic primary for congress-at-large is a "fictitious person," former Congressman E. B. Howard today protested the filing of the Moore, Okla., schoolmaster to the state election board.

Howard asked a recount with the ballots for Rogers eliminated, alleging the schoolmaster sought to deceive voters by filing under the name of the Oklahoma humorist.

To the best of his information, Howard asserted, the candidate is William C. Rogers, a Republican.

PARTY MACHINES GENERATE STEAM FOR CAMPAIGNS

President Hoover's Acceptance Speech Will Reveal Lines Cleavage Between Parties On Major Issues

By EDWARD J. DUFFY, Associated Press Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—(AP)—Robert Hoover and Franklin D. Roosevelt have given other problems precedence, but the political machines due to whirl through the next four months are generating steam, none the less.

Pending the president's speech accepting the nomination, probably early in August, few conclusions can be drawn on the full effects of cleavage between the parties as to the dominant economic and prohibition issues.

Two Prospects Loom.

Once he has stated his views, however, it can soon be shown whether two prospects now engaging widespread conjecture are to materialize. Those prospects are:

That the choice to be put up to

HOMESICK VETS LEAVE CAPITAL

WASHINGTON, July 9.—(AP)—Leaders of the bonus marchers army were fighting tonight against a homesick urge in the ranks which was leading some to take advantage of the new federal loans on service certificates to provide their transportation home.

No coercion was used to prevent the men borrowing from the $100,000 fund for train fare and subsistence en route, but Walter M. Waters, the veterans' commander in chief, in addressing the men at the largest encampment at Anacostia, asked that they remain and press their demand for full payment of bonus certificates.

Veterans' administration officials worked long after hours to keep pace with applications for transportation.

ELKS OPEN CONCLAVE IN BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 9.—(AP)—The purple and white of the Elks' grand lodge fluttered tonight over Birmingham, its playground for the next five days.

Grand Exalted Ruler John E. Coen of Stirling, Colo., accompanied by 30 grand lodge officers, arrived during the day for the 68th annual assembly.
