GUNTHER HERE IN INTEREST OF 3A Charles Gunther, manager of the department of Oregon State Motor association, with headquarters in Portland, is in Medford, accompanied by E. S. Parsons and Fred Brown, making renewals of membership in the organization. While here he is making his headquarters at the out- of-state registration office on South Riverside avenue.

Mr. Gunther stated that the pur- pose of his visit here is to promote motor interests in the field, to edu- cate the people to the hazards of false auto clubs, to invite the tourists and be courteous to them. Conventions on the Pacific coast this summer are bringing more visit- ors into Oregon than any previous year, and auto registrations in south- ern Oregon are now verifying this statement, he pointed out.

Mr. Gunther has just completed a survey of the eastern Oregon terri- tory, where tourist travel is being considered more than in previous years.

The slogan adopted by the organiza- tion, Mr. Gunther said, is "Sell the tourist one more day." By selling the tourist another day in Oregon, the number visiting the state this season would leave $4,500,000 more in the state, according to Mr. Gunther.
