

A'S WIN, 18 TO 17, AFTER EIGHTEEN INNING WARFARE

Jimmie Foxx Finally Scores Winning Run in Spectacular Long Distance Frolic — 58 Bingles Recorded

By GAYLE TALBOT, Associated Press Sports Writer. The Philadelphia Athletics were only six games out of first place in the American league today, having written into the record one of the most spectacular long-distance victories in baseball history. Eighteen innings they traveled yesterday to beat out the Cleveland Indians, 18 to 17, and it was a game the likes of which won't be seen once in a blue moon. It was won and lost a half-dozen times before Jimmie Foxx finally scored the deciding run.

Burnett Gets 9 Hits. To give some idea, Johnny Burnett of the Indians collected nine hits in 11 times at bat, and his teammates, Averill and Morgan each cracked five. Foxx, with six hits, including three home runs, knocked in eight runs for the A's. Simmons had five. There were 58 hits. Burnett's feat, for all the records cracked five. Foxx, with six hits, including three home runs, knocked in eight runs for the A's. Simmons had five. There were 58 hits.

The veteran Ed Rommel went the last 17 innings for the Athletics and in the end gained the nod over young Wesley Ferrell, who was firing them over the last 11 and a fraction frames for the Indians. But for the fact that Ed Morgan, Cleveland first baseman, let an easy roller trickle through his legs after two were out in the ninth, Cleveland would have won then and there.

Yanks Lose Twice. What made the victory doubly sweet to the A's was the fact the Yankees were being taken over the jumps twice by St. Louis, 10 to 9 and 8 to 7. The Yanks don't look like the team they were a week ago, before Bill Dickey took his celebrated swipe at Carl Reynolds and Lefty Gomez dropped his cloak of invincibility. The Browns knocked Gomez from the hill in the first game to hand him his third straight defeat.

Detroit divided a pair with the Red Sox, winning the first, 7 to 5, and dropping the second, 13 to 2. While Alvin Crowder pitched steady ball, Washington belted three White Sox flippers for 19 hits and a 13 to 3 victory.

The leading Pirates made a flying raid into the east and picked up an 8 to 7 win over Brooklyn when Hank Wilson let a drive get away from him in the ninth. The rookie, Bill Swift, was credited with his fifth straight triumph. Chicago's dazzling sophomore, Lonnie Warneke, shut the Braves out, 4 to 0 for his 12th success of the year.

The Cincinnati Reds belabored the Giants twice, 6 to 4 and 4 to 2. Bill Hallahan and Dizzy Dean hurled the Cardinals to a double win over the Phillies, 7 to 5 and 3 to 1.

BOGGS PRESENTED TRIBUNE TROPHY

The Mail Tribune trophy for the winner of the city tennis tournament, has been presented to Carter Boggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Boggs, who was successful in defeating Harry Butler in the tournament which closed last Sunday. Being prominent in the tennis clubs of the city and valley for the past few years, Boggs was never able to conquer the championship until this summer, although twice he has been runner-up for the title. In winning Medford's championship, Boggs was successful in defeating Jimmy Edmiston, southern Oregon flash who held the city championship title as well as that of southern Oregon. L. Alvin Tollefson was another star who went out of competition in the last tournament.

YEAR IN JAIL AND $1000 FINE METED HOAXER

the real kidnappers and had done everything possible to help obtain return of the baby and capture of the kidnappers. After the motion for arrest of judgment was denied, Prosecutor Anthony Hauck recommended, in view of the jury's plea for mercy, that Curtis be sentenced to two years in state prison and a fine of $1000. In an impassioned plea to the court before sentence was imposed, Fisher dwelt at length upon his assertion that prejudice had caused Curtis' conviction.

He said that Curtis was tried "in a court room steeped with prejudice in which the most famous man in the country, Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, sat throughout the trial. "It all worked out beautifully," he shouted, "they brought in the verdict wanted."

As soon as arguments were concluded Curtis was called to the bar, where he faced Judge Adam O. Robins without apparent nervousness. "You have been convicted by a jury of committing a misdemeanor," said Judge Robins. "It now becomes my unpleasant duty to impose sentence. In my ten years of experience I have never given a sentence so much consideration and thought."

"The jury recommended mercy. There is evidence that you are a respectable citizen, but these matters cannot sway the court. I sentence you to serve one year and pay a fine of $1000."

Jacksonville defeated Medford 13 to 8 yesterday as Jacksonville in the weekly baseball game before a fair sized crowd. Medford was out-hit, two to one, but failed to take advantage of six errors by the Pioneers, who were also strengthened by three Junior Legion players.

Jack Hughes for the winners struck out ten men, and Ray Coleman thumped out a home, as the features of the game, as the features of the game, as the features of the game.

20 TOURIST CAMPS FOR FAIR VISITORS. CHICAGO—(AP)—A system of 20 tourist camps, which may have as many as 500 cabins each, is being installed to help care for the automotive influx expected in connection with the world's fair here in 1933.

The Century of Progress exposition has worked out a system for authorizing the "official" tourist camps and will co-ordinate the camps with the auto-route markings leading to the fair.

Italy Stores Naval Fuel.

ROME—(AP)—The Italian navy is storing fuel oil for an emergency. Senator De Carretto reported that 150,000 tons are on hand and by 1940 will increase to 750,000 tons, about half of what would be needed in war.

Montana's fire loss in 1931 was slightly more than two million dollars or three quarters of a million more than in 1930.
