

THEVENOW RISES FROM BENCH TO SHOW OLD FORM

Injury to 'Pie' Traynor Gives Discarded Pirate Short-stop New Chance — Hitting Defeats Brooklyn

By HERBERT W. BARKER Associated Press Sports Writer. Baseball holds scarcely any job more thankless than the task of filling the third base shoes of Harold (Pie) Traynor, but Tommy Thevenow is making an excellent stab at it.

Thevenow lost his place at short-stop in the Pittsburgh Pirate infield early in the season because of his puny batting average and robs the bench day after day until last week when Traynor went out with a finger injury.

Batting Improved. Since then he not only has fielded well, but has shown distinct signs of emerging from his long batting slump. His average for his last four games stood at .313 today and he has been getting his hits where they would do the Pirates the most good.

Yesterday it was his hitting that enabled the Pirates to trim Brooklyn, 5-3, give Steve Swetonic his 10th victory of the season and increase Pittsburgh's lead over the second place Chicago Cubs to two and a half games.

It was Pittsburgh's ninth victory in eleven games. Since May 19 the Pirates have won 24 games and lost only 14 for an average of .708.

Cubs Bow to Braves. The Cubs bowed to Huck Betts and the Boston Braves, 2-3, although the Braves got only six hits.

In the American league, the Yankees pounded Hadley and Cooney for 15 hits, including homers by Joe Sewell and Arndt Jorgens, buried the St. Louis Browns under a 15-4 score and stretched their lead to seven and one-half games over the second-place Philadelphia Athletics.

The Athletics dropped two to the Cleveland Indians as the two clubs picked up where they had left off in their 18-inning game at Cleveland Sunday. Together they scored 35 runs on 62 hits as Cleveland won, 9-8 and 12-7. Earl Averill clouted three homers and Jimmy Fox got his 34th.

At Thomas stopped the Chicago White Sox with seven hits as Washington bunched safeties for a 5-1 decision. Detroit clung to third place by beating the Boston Red Sox, 8-3.

ROBIN REED PINS BULLDOG JACKSON

SEATTLE, July 12. — (AP) — Robin Reed, Oregon welterweight, defeated Bulldog Jackson, Port Angeles, Wash., middleweight, two falls out of three here last night in the main event of a wrestling exhibition.

Bob Myers, Tillamook, Ore., middleweight, scored a one-fall victory over Chet Wiles, Portland speed cop, in the semi-windup. Myers was formerly A. A. U. champion. He scored his fall in the fourth round on a wristlock and body press.

Bud Carney, Tacoma, lost his match with Bob Campbell, ex-Illinois U. grappler, when Campbell flattened him with a body slam. They are lightweight.

Beauty Is Ball Player

Here is another example of beauty and athletic prowess going hand in hand. Miss Corene Jaax, pictured above, plays first base for the S. K. S. L. girls, who will be seen here Sunday. Miss Jaax is rated the best girl baseball player in America and it is her sex only that prevents her from playing in organized baseball.

FIGHTS AND 'BEAN BALL' TABOO FOR BIG LEAGUE

CLEVELAND, July 12. — (AP) — Baseball players of the American league were advised today that the days of rowdy demonstrations on the playing field are over.

Diamond stars who attempt to settle arguments by wielding their fists, hereafter will face a minimum suspension of 30 days without pay.

Owners of the league clubs voted the penalty yesterday as a conclusion to their hearing of the case involving Bill Dickey, one of the main cogs in the championship aspirations of the New York Yankees.

Dickey was suspended last Saturday for 30 days and was fined $1,000 by President Will Harridge, for his attack on Outfielder Carl Reynolds of the Washington Senators, whose jaw was broken in the assault.

In addition to taking their stand against fighting, the owners adopted penalties for "bean-ball" pitchers. Under these rules, an umpire will be expected to remove from the game, on first offense, any hurler who heaves a ball aimed at the batter's head. The second offense will bring a 10 days' suspension, and a third offense will lay off the pitcher for a month.

STAR ATHLETES ON PARK TEAM MISSION SLUGGER RETAINS LAURELS

Plans are under way for a big kitenball game between members of the Crater Lake national park staff and a picked Medford team. The game will be played at Government Camp on the park diamond, scene of many hard fought battles in the past.

Chief Ranger David H. Canfield, captain of the park nine, has been putting his boys through their paces and it is expected it will take Medford's best to give them a good battle. Among the outstanding players are listed Irv Schulz, captain of last year's University of Oregon football team; Harry Fuller, a former ball star of Massachusetts; David Evans, a former Stanford star and also of Mexico; Al Stoehr, well known Medford athlete; Bernie Hughes, another well known Medford player; Ferdinand Fletcher, University of Oregon star, and Balle Johns, a woodsman of Glendale, Ore.

ATHLETES POINT FOR TRYOUTS IN OLYMPIC EVENTS

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., July 12. — (AP) Sprinters, hurdlers, weight men and other athletes trained in Stanford's big stadium today in preparation for final American Olympic tryouts Friday and Saturday.

As the track and field stars went through their paces, it was definitely announced Ben Eastman, Stanford middle-distance ace, would compete only in the 400-meter event. The announcement from Alfred R. Masters, general manager of the Stanford board of athletic control, was in answer to criticism of the proposal to have Eastman arbitrarily selected for the 800-meter run in the Olympic games. "After the tryouts," Masters said, "if the selection committee and Coach Lawson Robertson wish to shift Eastman, his coach will be glad to consider the matter."

In the 400-meter event, Eastman will be pitted against Carr of Pennsylvania, his conqueror in the quarter-mile race at the I. C. A. A. A. meet in Berkeley.

Gene Venzke, mile running sensation from Pottstown, Pa., predicted whoever wins the 1500-meter trial will break the world's record. He will be opposed in this event by such runners as Penrose Hallowell of Harvard, Glenn Cunningham of Kansas, Mangan of Cornell and perhaps Henry Brocksmith of Indiana.

The appearance on the track of Ralph Metcalfe, Marquette negro sprinter, brought many fans to the sidelines. He appeared in perfect condition as he jogged over the cinders and practiced starts.

Parther Visits Tribune Office, On Heavy Chain With a sniff and a snarl, a swipe at a typewriter and a lunge toward the adding machine, the cord of which was so daring as to tickle his whiskers—Bruce, Homer Snow's three-year-old panther, which will make his stage appearance at the Holly Theatre tomorrow evening with the showing of "Cougar," visited the Mail Tribune last evening (on Mr. Snow's chain).

In response to the masculine touch of his master, the great big powerful cat purred in loud tones, which grew into snarls when feminine onlookers and children from the crowd of spectators, which filled the office, drew too near.

"Bruce doesn't care much about the ladies," Mr. Snow explained, lifting a huge paw to reveal a great claw hidden away in the soft padding of the cougar's foot. He was captured in El Dorado county, California, by Jay Bruce, world famous capturer of mountain lions, through whose work Sydney Snow's picture, "Cougar," has been produced. Mr. Snow, brother of the producer, continued with his story, leaning over occasionally to pat the head of the panther, but never permitting a slack in his chain.

"He was just a baby then, weighed two pounds. We had killed the mother, who left three kittens. Bruce is the only one that survived. "He's a one-man animal, too," Mr. Snow declared with pride. "He rescues us when we go swimming, rides the surf board with me, and loves to go hunting. The Fourth of July was a fizzle to him, though. All that shooting and no rabbits; Bruce could not make any sense out of that." Bruce, who measures six feet, six inches, not counting his whiskers, which weren't tampered with, does not appear on the screen, except in his wild babyhood. The picture is devoted to the actual capture of cougar, by hand, from their native haunts. He will greet the Medford public in person.

TURPIN LEADS IN SHOOT, 46 IN 50

Breaking 21 and 25 targets out of 50, H. R. Turpin held high score at the practice shoot Sunday, with Elmer Wilson high in the doubles, shooting 22 out of 12 pairs.

With a lead over the field by two birds, H. Croissant won the contest for the possession of the club cup, his score being 24 out of 35. Only one more win is necessary for Croissant to obtain permanent possession of the trophy, as he had one previous victory.

Several new shooters attended Sunday's practice, with Donnelly turning in 16 out of 20, and Earl May 14 out of 20.

Scores were: At 50 Targets. H. R. Turpin 46 W. E. Blake 43 H. L. Claycomb 37 E. R. Howler 36

At 25 Targets. Sid Newton 25 Bill Bates 24 T. E. Daniels 23 George Eads 23 Elmer Wilson 22 H. Croissant 21 Clarence Eads 21 Sam Jennings 20

At 25 Handicap. H. Croissant 24 Elmer Wilson 22 E. W. Pesse 22 Dick Belden 22 Bill Bates 22 T. E. Daniels 21 Clarence Eads 21 Sam Jennings 21 W. E. Blase 20 Sid Newton 20 H. L. Claycomb 17 Ralph Green 16

Redmen Picnic In Siskiyous Draws Large Gathering

Annual picnic of the Association of Redmen Tribes and Pocatontos councils of northern California and southern Oregon took place on the Siskiyous Sunday with over 50 present from Medford, Yreka and McCloud. A picnic lunch was enjoyed at noon.

A business session was held and the president and secretary were re-elected. They are president, Jack Dooms, and secretary, Maudie Abbott, both of Medford.

In the afternoon games and contests were held and Medford members came home with several nice prizes. The committee in charge of the ceremonies was Imogene White, Elbert Butts, Bernice Wilson and Bernice Sears. Bill Milne was the coffee com-mitter.

Next meeting will be in the form of a get-together in McCloud in October.
