

BURLEIGH GRIMES, ERSTWHILE HERO, SUFFERS ECLIPSE

Hornsby's Trade of Hack Wilson for Once—Great Spittballer Turns Sour—Warneke Cub Life Saver

By GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer
The heroic figure of the last world series, Burleigh Grimes, must have been a source of keenest disappointment to Rogers Hornsby the last few months.

The Cubs' manager apparently made the smartest kind of a move when he acquired Grimes in the famous deal that sent Hack Wilson on his way. But the once great spittballer has failed to produce, and it is only because Lonnie Warneke, the Arkansas youngster, has come through so spectacularly that the Cubs are where they are today.

Slipping for a Month
Grimes thus far has been able to win only four for Hornsby and has lost eight. After illness set him back at the start of the race, the veteran righthander started well and it looked for a time that he was set for a big year, but something slipped about a month ago and he has been of practically no value since. Doing relief work mostly, he has lost five straight and was knocked from the box his last three starts.

Grimes' inability to regain his stride cost the Cubs a 5-to-4 defeat by Brooklyn yesterday. The defeat kept the Cubs from climbing within a single game of the league leaders.

Boston took a pair from the Pirates, 5-1 and 10-5.
Cards Win Four Straight
The St. Louis Cardinals won their fourth straight, taking the Giants, 6-2, and the Phillies scored a 3-to-2 triumph over Cincinnati.

The Cleveland Indians romped on the A's again, 7 to 5, in 10 innings, and went into second place in the American league.
Boston's Red Sox not only took their second straight from Detroit, 8 to 7, but chalked up their first series of the season, three games to two.

Home runs by Babe Ruth and Frankie Crosetti, each with one aboard, gave the Yankees their final win with St. Louis, 5 to 2. It was No. 25 for the Babe. Washington hammered three Chicago White Sox pitchers for 16 hits and a 15-to-4 victory.

DUCKS AND STARS BOTH LOSE TILTS

(By the Associated Press.)
Portland and Hollywood continued in first and second places in the Co-ast league today, both losing last night's games.

The Beavers were nosed out by the Oaks, 5 to 4, when Fuzzy Hufft, Acorn center fielder, singled in the tenth, scoring LeRoy Anton.

Leroy Hermann of the Angels shut out the Stars, 4 to 0, for his 19th victory this season. He fanned 10 Hollywood batters.

Sacramento made it two straight over Seattle as Jimmy Deahong turned in his eighth pitching victory in 10 starts, to win 4 to 2.

The Seals and Missions ended the ninth inning in a 5-5 deadlock, but the Seals put over three runs in the tenth to win, 8 to 5. Jimmy Caveney, manager of the Seals, who plays first base, garnered five hits in five times at the plate.

Plan Development East Oregon Mine

BAKER, Ore., July 14.—(AP)—Purchase of the Bull Run gold property near Unity, 80 miles southeast of here, was announced today by Miles D. Rambo and associates of Los Angeles. A 50-ton mill has been shipped here from Los Angeles and was being taken to the mine today for installation. A large development is planned.

LOMSKI, FIRPO GO BIG ATTRACTION

PORTLAND, Ore., July 14.—(AP)—With good weather tomorrow night, Joe Waterman, boxing promoter, is predicting a crowd of between 6000 and 8000 at the Multnomah civic stadium to see Leo Lomski fight Young Firpo, the Idaho miner, and Handy Andy Bundy, the Oakland Negro fiash, mix with Able Israel, Portland Jewish boy. Firpo is seeking revenge for the two-round knockout by Lomski at their previous meeting, when the former Aberdeen Assassin surprised him with a haymaker to the mouth and the loss of several teeth.

Lomski is billed to fight Jack McCarthy here next Wednesday.

RED M'DONALD BRIGHT PROSPECT FOR ORANGE END

First Test of Team's Strength Will Come in Opening Conference Game Oct. 1 Against Stanford

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis—(Spl.)—Success of the Oregon State college football team next fall depends to a great extent on how almost a complete new line comes through. Last year's regular starting lineup, from tackle to tackle, and several substitute lettermen have been lost to the squad. Many new men will be seen in the lineup of the coming season. The real strength of the team will not be known until the Orangemen meet Stanford university in Portland in the opening conference game of the season October 1.

11 Lettermen Lost.

Of the 11 lettermen who have been lost to the squad, six were regulars last season. They are Buck Hammer, center; Gil Bengerson and Jack Cox, guards; Harry Kent and Bill Byington, tackles, and Reg Rust, left halfback. Others are Barney Carlson, guard; Snowy Gustafson, fullback; Bill Head, halfback; Herald Hylton, tackle, and Floyd Root, end. Loss of these men leaves no available lettermen for left guard, left halfback and center.

Frank Purdy, a lettermen, who died of pneumonia last spring, was in line for the left guard position. Johnny Blacone, who made his letter at quarterback last season, but was declared ineligible for this year on account of playing in a soccer game during the Christmas holidays, was being banked on for left halfback.

Prospects Listed.
Here are some of the outstanding prospects for the different positions:
Center—Vic Curtin, who made his letter at right end last year; Willis Danforth and Reinhold Kanzier, varsity reserves, and Clyde Devine, from the freshman team.
Right guard—Loren Tuttle, lettermen; Bill Kenna, varsity reserve; Warren Powers, John Pitts and Charles Bartos, all from the freshman team.
Left guard—Herman Leaf, lettermen switched from end; Tommy Miles, ineligible last year; Hugh Stanfield and Vinton Medley, reserves; John Filippoff, from the freshman team, and Dudley Nelson, transfer from Pacific University.
Right tackle—Ade Schwammel and Wayne Harn, both lettermen; John King, reserve; George Svendsen and Harold Brown, freshmen last year.
Left tackle—Curly Miller, two-year lettermen; Harry Field, transfer from University of Hawaii; Don Wagner, varsity reserve and Erney Bears, ineligible last year.
Quarterback—Art Ramponi and Tommy Ward, lettermen, quarterbacks last year; Ted Hermann, lettermen fullback last year; Russ Acheson, transfer from Pacific university and Jimmy Clarke, transfer from Monmouth normal.
Fullback—Frank Little and Harold Joalir, lettermen; Leon Underwood and Leonard Marsh, varsity reserves.

The American team, barring some last-minute change of heart by Olympic officials, or extraordinary developments, will stand on the results of the tryouts. The desire of Ben Eastman, famous Stanford runner, to compete only in the 400-meter run, has disposed of the talk of picking him, without trial, for the 800 meters.
Eastman has been a storm-center ever since the forces began assembling for the final trials. Since his defeat in the intercollegiate by Bill Carr of Pennsylvania, Big Ben has been pointed for a return duel and "revenge" in the 400 meters. Eastman and Carr are "seeded" in separate heats of the 400 tomorrow but, barring the biggest kipp of an upset, probably will battle it out in the final Saturday.
