

ART OF ESKIMOS SHOWN IN WORK RECEIVED HERE

Showing again that art and beauty depend not upon the metropolis for expression, but upon the desire of a people, however dim the ties with civilization—come samples of the Eskimo's work from a little town in far-off Alaska—Gambell, with a population of 250. Mrs. W. R. Lamb of Essex Creek brought the examples of the northern people's workmanship into the Mail Tribune today.

The display included a long ivory walrus tusk, polished and etched in an intriguing design, which reveals the life of the Eskimo. In the very fine pattern are shown Eskimos driving dogs, driving reindeer, killing bears, pecking out from under rook covered with walrus skin, all wearing the same heavy fur caps, which increase their height several inches.

A paper weight, made of the same ivory, is decorated in two miniature walrus, carved by the natives; a paper knife beautifully carved, and a carved napkin ring with intricate patterns are also among the gifts received by Mrs. Lamb.

Her acquaintance with the Eskimo family developed through letters written by her daughter, Dorothy, to Lucy Walunga, at the request of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. G. Aham of the Redwood highway, who are teaching in the Alaskan village. Lucy and her mother wanted contacts with the outside world and now they have them. They write to the Lambs and the Lambs write to them, each one voicing her wants. The Walungas live on St. Lawrence Island and are very glad to get dresses, beads and shoes of American pattern. Mrs. Walunga sends Mrs. Lamb a beautiful pair of moccasins, made by herself from walrus hide, with the request for some "United States" shoes.

Her most recent letter also asks for a package of metal polish. It will be used, Mrs. Lamb said today, to polish the walrus tusks.

The last package from Alaska, Mrs. Lamb added, unwrapping the paper, was wrapped in the same Mail Tribune with which she had padded a package of Medford merchandise, sent the Walungas last year. The date on the newspaper is July 25, 1931.

CRATER FLYING CLUB SHIP ARRIVES SUNDAY

The plane which members of the Crater Flying club of this city are contemplating buying for their club activities will arrive here Sunday from Salem. It was announced today. Lee Eberly of the Early Aircraft company will bring the plane to Medford and all persons interested in joining the club are asked to inspect the plane at the local airport. Two memberships are still needed to insure the success of the club.

Matinee Swim Merrick's Pool

In order to give Medford swimmers of all ages an opportunity to cool off Saturday afternoon, tomorrow, Merrick's will feature a special matinee swimming session from one to three o'clock.

Low rates for both children and adults have been arranged for Saturday's swimmers. Dana Thomas, expert swimmer in charge of classes at Merrick's, will supervise this matinee event.

PLAN ORGANIZING SOCIALIST-LABOR PARTY IN OREGON

SALEM, July 15.—(AP)—Petitions for the organization of a socialist labor party in Oregon were filed with the secretary of state today, and with the filing the new political party is enabled to hold conventions and nominate candidates for offices to be voted upon at the November election.

The petitions, bearing 12,500 names, were filed by Upton A. Dutton of Estacada who sponsored the movement. The law requires a total of 11,427 names of voters on the petition, or five per cent of the highest vote for representatives in congress at the last general election.

The socialist labor party has as its candidates for president and vice-president Verne L. Reynolds of New York and John W. Alken of Massachusetts, respectively, the secretary of state was informed. The party is organized in many other states.

The petitions designate the names of the following members of the party, most of them residing in Portland, as the state central committee: Upton A. Dutton, R. H. Catching, Mrs. Frank T. Johns, A. Houlard, J. Mann, J. Zoller, W. Dimick, Barney McCabe, G. M. Donaldson, J. A. Lundeen, D. Midwood, J. Reed and J. H. Young.

PORTLAND GIRL HELD RUNAWAY

PORTLAND, July 15.—(AP)—The search for Virginia McClain, 15, missing from her home here since July 2, was rewarded with the first definite clue today when police were told she and a man were together at Klamath Falls.

Roy Rambo, 21, said he met the girl and her man, companion on the night of July 2 at a skating rink here. They asked him to go to Klamath Falls with them. The three boarded a freight train here the morning of July 3, stopped off three hours and reached Klamath Falls July 5. In Klamath, Rambo said, Virginia told him she was going to Richmond, Va., where she has relatives.

The girl wore overalls, a green skirt and tennis shoes. Her companion, about 28, was 5 feet 7, spoke with a southern accent, and wore khaki trousers, a straw hat and oxfords.

G. PASS TO GREET NEWSPAPER MEN

Newspaper editors and publishers, 300 of them from all parts of the United States, are expected in Grants Pass by train Sunday morning, en route to San Francisco for the annual convention of the National Editorial association next week.

The group will breakfast in Ashland park, after which they will continue down the Redwood highway to Mill Creek grove of redwoods, near Crescent City, where they will be guests at lunch.

Oregon Cavenem and women will meet the delegation, and the breakfast, furnished by the Grants Pass chamber of commerce, will be served by the Legion auxiliary and Gave girls. Following the luncheon at the grove, they will proceed to Eureka for dinner, thence to Santa Rosa and San Francisco.

No Fatalities In Oregon Industry

SALEM, July 15.—(AP)—No fatalities resulted from the 495 accidents in Oregon industry during the past week, the state industrial accident commission reported today. The number of accidents, however, was larger than for several months past.

Even at The Dalles, he says, this same information was given to him, and it was not until he reached Portland that he learned of the Roosevelt highway—the Oregon Coast highway, as it is officially known.

THE Oregon Coast highway is one of the most beautiful roads in America. When its amazing character is known, it will attract people from all over the United States.

Apparently we are not making much progress as yet in making this marvelous highway known throughout the country.

MONTREAL, July 15.—(AP)—Here is the story of a man, a woman and a photograph.

Henry Pryske came from one of the central European countries to Quebec some years ago, took up land, cleared it and, in time, built himself a cottage.

He said to himself: "Now, the only thing lacking is a wife, a good, strong girl from the old country, one who isn't afraid of hard work."

He wrote out an advertisement and sent it to a newspaper in his home country. The result was a deluge of applications.

All the girls—except one—described their qualifications. They could milk cows, drive a plow—or put it, if need be; they could make butter, bake bread and they knew how to cook, scrub and sew.

But the letter which caught his bachelor fancy promised none of these beautiful things. It was "beautifully written," as he said later. He answered it, asking for a photograph of the writer.

A photograph arrived and completed the conquest which the letter had begun.

The next letter from the old country said the girl was ready to leave for Canada at any time, but would Henry send $500 with her ticket so she could buy a little trousseau.

Henry would, and did.

When the ship on which she was to sail reached Quebec he was at the docks. But the bride was not on board.

Henry took his troubles to a lawyer.

"You have a picture of the lady?" the lawyer asked. "Let me see it."

Henry handed it over.

It was a photograph of Greta Garbo.

ARMY WORMS ON WANE IN COUNTY

Many casualties among the army worms were reported this afternoon by County Agent R. G. Fowler, who states that the invasion of the pest is on the wane. The worms have been destroyed in great quantities by the farmers and many of them have entered the cocoon stage and will be burrowing into the ground, where it is hoped parasites will gobble them up before time for them to evolve as moths to lay eggs, which will hatch into more worms next year.

The parasites weren't on the job last year and so enabled a large crop of worms to flourish. County Agent Fowler said in explanation of the existence of the pest, which have been found throughout the county.

MILLS, HURLEY, HYDE THREE MUSKETEERS OF ADMINISTRATION

"Of course, the department of agriculture, is just as well off with its head secretary absent from his post as if he were present in the capital."

The political flareup was set off by a request by Senator Hastings, (R., Del.), for unanimous consent to print in the record the Hurley speech made at Columbus, Ohio, last night.

Senator Borah, (R., Idaho), who recently announced he would not support the republican prohibition plank, opened with a declaration that he didn't intend to object to that request but that it cost "thousands of dollars" to print the speeches put into the record and he intended to object to all in the future.

Senator Robinson announced at the start that as he intended to reply to Hurley's speech, he wouldn't object.

Senator Reed, (R., Penn.), with the assertion that a page in the record cost $56 to print, suggested that "we make an agreement that no political speeches be put into the record."

He contended "the taxpayers are entitled to protection against our using the congressional record for campaign purposes."

Unless something of this sort is done, he added, "the congressional

DUANE BOUND OVER TO GRAND JURY BY COURT

J. J. Duane, arrested on a bad check charge, having allegedly cashed a check on the Central Point State bank for $35 at Mann's Department store Saturday, waived examination when he appeared in justice court this morning. He is being held for the grand jury, bail having been set at $1000.

The complaint was signed by state police.

record will simply bulge with political speeches."

Sensors Bingham (R., Conn.); Couzens, (R., Mich.), and others joined in the dispute that followed but Hurley's speech was allowed to go into the record.

Citing administration objections to democratic relief plans as "putting the government into business," Robinson shouted:

"Every measure promoted by the Hoover administration for the relief of the unusual conditions that prevail has been to put the government operating in a sphere heretofore regarded as properly occupied by the private citizen and private industry."

"They boast of the reconstruction corporation as a monumental action on the part of the administration."

"Yet there isn't a citizen who doesn't realize that every act of the reconstruction corporation belongs in normal times to the sphere of private business."
