

PEDAL 5,000 MILES ON HONEYMOON

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Philbrook are shown on their return to Kansas City from a bicycling honeymoon trip that started last October 19 and covered nearly 5,000 miles in 19 states and Canada. They averaged 60 miles a day.

NEW YORK DOFFS HAT TO AMELIA EARHART PUTNAM

Notables from air, land and sea joined in a tumultuous welcome to Mrs. Amelia Earhart Putnam, first woman to fly solo across the Atlantic, when she returned to New York. Upper right: She views the harbor demonstration from a city tug with her husband, George Palmer Putnam. Upper left: Mayor Walker welcomes the flier in the name of the City and presents the city's medal. Below is a view of the triumphal procession on lower Broadway.

CREAM OF ATHLETIC WORLD REACHES IC4A SCENE

More than 200 eastern athletes who will compete in the fifty-sixth annual I.C.A.A.A. track and field championships at Edwards stadium arrived in Berkeley, Cal., aboard the "Intercollegiate special."

Freshman Beauty

Margaret Ann Ward of Little Rock, a freshman at the University of Arkansas, has been selected as the school's most beautiful girl.

Behind The Scenes

A motion picture contract may be offered Lucy Hopkins, 20, who was chosen the most beautiful stenographer by co-employees working in a large studio.

WEDDING BELLS FOR THEM

Mickey Riley and Georgia Coleman, two of America's premier divers, are to marry immediately after the Olympic games in Los Angeles. Both are members of the Los Angeles Athletic club and are expected to star in Olympic diving events.

'ALFALFA BILL' SEES NEW YORK

Gov. William H. "Alfalfa Bill" Murray of Oklahoma, showed Mrs. Murray the sights of New York during his eastern speaking trip. They are shown on the roof of their New York hotel. It was Mrs. Murray's first trip to the eastern metropolis.

'HARMONY TWINS' WIN AIR RACE

Lieut. John H. Bishop (left), pilot, and his aide, Lieut. Wilfrid J. Paul, called Uncle Sam's "harmony twins" appeared certain winners of the 1932 national balloon race out of Omaha as their army balloon was brought down near Hatton, Sask., Canada.

IT'S A SMART OUTFIT OF TWEED

Ruth Chatterton, film actress, is pictured in a smart street ensemble of black and grey tweed. The coat has a short detachable cape which is fastened at the front in scarf fashion.

In A Hurry

Evelyn Furtch, Tustin, Cal., high school girl, candidate for the Olympic team, ran the 100 meter dash in 11.8 seconds in practice.

Arizona's Choice

Hamelia Fielder was chosen 1932 desert queen by male students of the University of Arizona.

UNCLE SAM'S BEST FOR OLYMPICS

Helene Madison and Buster Crabbe, America's two greatest free style swimmers, will carry most of the hopes of the United States in the Olympics. They are shown after a recent workout in Los Angeles.

FONY EXPRESS FETE REVIVES PAST

Jean McIntyre (right) was "sweetheart of Nevada," during Reno's pony express and roundup celebration. Her attendants were Alta May Andrews (left) and Isabelle Mattox.

A VETERAN GIVES HIS REASONS

"Six reasons why we're here, we need the bonus," reads a sign on the front of Frank Tracy's tent in the bonus army camp in Washington. The reasons are, left to right: Virginia, 12; Frank, 9; Margaret, 7; Ethel, 4 1/2; Howard, 3, and Ruth 1. Tracy is an ex-serviceman from Pittsburgh.

LEO RUNS WILD IN RADIO STATION

Ho, for the life of a cameraman. Runaway lions are not outside his realm. This picture was taken as Leo the lion was subdued by his trainer after running amuck in a Boston radio studio. Leo was billed to go on the air but 150 persons gathered to watch the performance had an entirely different show. He hurled his 300-pound bulk through a double plate glass window and bounded from room to room. Six were hurt in the panic that ensued.