

WOMEN OF STATE CLUBS ORGANIZING FOR RELIEF WORK

"Bending all their energies to the important work of relief for the unemployed, food conservation and other measures to cope with the suffering caused by world-wide economic conditions, members of the state-wide women's organization are undertaking various forms of necessary relief work as their major projects for the coming club year."

"Women's share in carrying responsibility in civic and community needs in the time of emergency has been officially recognized and enlisted by the action of Governor Meier in the formation of a women's division of relief work."

Other members of the executive committee are: Raymond B. Wilcox, chairman of the Community Chest; Portland; Judge Victor Moses of Benton county; Ray W. Hill, head of the State Grange; Paul V. Maris, director of extension, Oregon State college; Alex G. Barry, state commander of the American Legion; Ben Osborn, president of the State Federation of Labor.

The county leaders of the recently formed women's division will be members of the executive committee formed under the chairmanship of the county judges, and in addition will be the general chairmen for women's relief work in the county.

The work of the women's committees will be divided under the following suggested headings: Food conservation, hot lunches for school children; collection and distribution of clothing, men's, women's and children; sewing of new garments, remodeling and mending; cooperation on housing problems; employment for women on cash basis or commodity exchange; sick visiting and co-operation with city, county and school nurses; committee on milk distribution; recreation; motor corps—this committee would be available for the various chairmen of committees in the conduct of their various activities; press and publicity. Various relief in any undertaking of so serious nature, it is recommended that each women's division of county, city or rural organization shall enlist the attention and sympathy of the local press, Mrs. Gabriel further stated.

The women's division will in many cases work closely with the men's organized relief agencies, whose assistance will be most valuable in the carrying out of all plans.

COURT ASKS DETAILS RELIEF LEGISLATION

The county court today made a formal request of United States Senator Frederick Steiwer for an official copy of the relief legislation passed by the recent congress, so they can study the same and learn first-hand just what avenues of financial aid are open to the county, and the method of obtaining same. Sufficient number of copies of the relief measures will be available so all interested can obtain copies.

Neighbors of Woodcraft Have Successful Picnic A large event of Sunday was the picnic held in Lithia park, attended by all Neighbors of Woodcraft lodges in southern Oregon and northern California. The affair was sponsored by the Medford, Grants Pass, Klamath Falls, Ashland and Phoenix Woodcraft lodges.

Guests arrived at 10 o'clock and remained at the picnic grounds until 9 o'clock that evening. The myrtle wood cup, awarded as attendance prize, went to the Phoenix lodge. The presentation was followed by community singing, led by Lew Hansen. Then the beautiful Woodcraft memorial service was held honoring the departed Neighbors.

At noon the picnic luncheon was served from tables in the park. Chester Walters of Ashland furnished the coffee, which was prepared by Mrs. Reid of Grants Pass. Mr. Ward of Eagle Point furnished cheese for the picnicers.

During the afternoon the hostesses presented numerous stunts, first prize going to the Grants Pass Cave Women. A mock wedding was staged by the Ashland group. The Medford members appeared in costumes of long ago, one wearing four "lovely frocks" of the Victorian era.

Following contests, the guests gathered around the table again for supper. The evening was climaxed with swimming at Twin Plunge, and Mr. Wilkins, through whose efforts the picnic was made so successful, was voted the most popular man of the day.

Mrs. Hanley Arrives From Seattle Friday Mrs. E. B. Hanley is expected to arrive here from Seattle Friday to join her daughter, Mrs. Katherine Heffernan, who has taken the Ben Sheldon house for the summer. She will be accompanied by Miss Katherine Johnson of Seattle, who with Mrs. Heffernan will leave early next week for Los Angeles to remain through the Olympic games.

Mrs. Hanley will be at home to her Medford friends at the Sheldon country house during her daughter's absence and may remain here for the season. Among other Medford folk planning to attend the tenth Olympiad are Mrs. C. S. Newhall and son, Billy, Misses Mary Lee and Dorothy Roberts, Reginald Parsons and son, George, and daughter, Mary, and Bob Emmens.

Yeomen Announce Last Annual Picnic The last annual Yeomen picnic will be held Sunday at Casey's camp on the Crater Lake highway, just north of Trail. An invitation is extended to all Yeomen and their families for the event. Games and races will compose the afternoon's entertainment and basket lunch will be served at noon. Guests are asked to bring lunch and table service. The lodge will furnish ice cream, coffee, cream and sugar. All those needing transportation to the picnic grounds and those with extra room in their cars are asked to call Frank Grinstead, 1658.

Los Angeles Folk Visit Relatives Here Mrs. W. B. Morris, Mrs. Theodore Waite and daughter, Marguerite, of Los Angeles, were recent visitors in Medford, the guests of cousins, Mrs. Volney Dixon and Mrs. F. Wilson Wait.

They were returning from a motor trip to Portland and were accompanied as far south as San Francisco by Mr. J. F. Waite of Portland. They were making the trip via the Redwood highway.

Miss Arnold Hostess To Club Tomorrow The Pollyanna club will be entertained at the home of Miss Blanche Arnold, 1222 Locust street, on Thursday evening with a depression party. Each member is requested to bring a farewell gift for her Pollyanna. Each guest is also asked to bring her lunch for the evening.

B. P. W. Club Installs Officers at Dinner The Business and Professional Women's club met last evening at the Hall cafeteria for dinner and installation of officers for the coming year. Mrs. Edwina Welhaar, re-elected president, gave a resume of the accomplishments of the completed year and announced an executive council meeting to be held in the near future.

Plans were developed for a picnic to be held during the early part of August. The other officers installed last evening as members of Mrs. Welhaar's staff are: Mrs. Alice Coppin, vice-president; Mrs. Belva Aiken, treasurer; Anne Barnes, corresponding secretary, and Lucy Davis, recording secretary.

Dr. Inskip Leaves For Trip North Dr. Annie Dolman Inskip of Berkeley, Cal., a charming visitor in this city for the past week, left this morning by motor for the north. While here she divided her time between her son, Dr. L. D. Inskip, and family and the new text book she is writing, which will be the third college text she has to her credit in addition to many articles and poems being printed in current publications.

Dr. Inskip, a child psychologist of national reputation, is a member of the Berkeley board of education. Class Picnic Thursday Noon The annual picnic of the Alpha Delta Sunday school class of the First Christian church will be held tomorrow noon at the home of Mrs. J. W. Grigby, 315 Haven street. All members and their friends are urged to attend and bring either sandwiches or salad. Each person is requested to furnish her own silver and cup.

Just Folks Circle Plans Luncheon The Just Folks circle of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. S. E. Brill at her cabin on Rogue river for covered dish luncheon Thursday noon. Those planning to attend are asked to meet at the church at 11:20.

Miss Wallace Gives Party for Students Miss Imogene Wallace, local instructor of piano, entertained yesterday with a swimming party for eight of her pupils, at Heilman's pool, Ashland.

Barrs Entertain Press Association Here Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Barr entertained over last week-end W. Veru McKinley, president of the Oregon Press association. Mr. McKinley is Mr. Barr's brother-in-law.

Mrs. Wendt Entertains Home Economics Group The Home Economics committee of the Jacksonville Grange was entertained at the matinee this afternoon at the Holly theatre. Mrs. Chester Wendt was hostess to the party.

Mrs. Mann Gives Series of Picnics Mrs. John C. Mann, who is giving a series of picnic suppers this week in her garden for immediate friends, has invited for this evening, Mr. and Mrs. John Moffatt.

BOYS HELD ON AUTO OWNERSHIP INQUIRY

Delbert Barrett, 19, Sheridan, Ore., and Marlin Tibbets, 18, Williams, Ore., are detained by the state police pending an investigation as to the ownership of a sedan bearing license number 214-073. Barrett claims the auto belongs to his father and that he took the vehicle without the permission of his parents. The pair was arrested on the Pacific highway near Ashland at 4 o'clock this morning.

NEW LIONS' CHIEF AND STAFF GIVEN ROUSING SENDOFF

One of the largest meetings of the season was held by the Lions club today noon at the Hotel Hollans to greet the newly elected president, Lon Lawrence Pennington, and officers of his staff.

Plans for the coming year were discussed and several economies, apparently inspired by the general retrenchment trend, were considered. President Pennington asked for general discussion and presentation of "good ideas" and the response was great.

George Henselman of the local Legion post announced that the Medford Legionnaires are sponsoring today's and tomorrow's showings of "Tom Brown of Culver" at the Holly theatre, and urged all Lions to attend, promising them that the show is one which they will enjoy.

Legion tickets for the motion picture are on sale at several business houses about town in addition to the Chamber of Commerce. The regular prices will prevail and funds realized from the show will be used to finance the trip to the national Legion convention to be held in Portland this year.

Lon Walter Abbey discussed the meeting of key members at the state convention of Lions at Klamath Falls and Lisa G. W. Newberry gave an inspiring interpretation of "What Is Lionism?"

Ensign James R. Pack of the Salvation Army, who has been transferred to Pocatello, Idaho, gave a farewell speech and announced a meeting of the Allied Welfare association for luncheon Friday noon at the Hotel Medford. The meeting will be his last with the Medford organization.

Lion Al Littrell informed the Lions there will be no registration charges at future state conventions, in accordance with action taken at the Klamath Falls session. Lon Abbey, appointed program chairman for next week announced that the Wednesday program will be an advertising program and advised each Lion to come prepared to advertise his business.

HAY, SEPARATOR BURN SCHERMERHORN FIELD

A grain separator, valued at approximately $1000, and 100 tons of hay were destroyed by fire at the George L. Schermerhorn place on the Bernburg road yesterday afternoon. The loss was said to be covered by insurance.

Springs of carbon from the exhaust of a tractor being used to pull the separator was the reason given for the fire by Fire Chief Roy Elliott. The hay and grain belonged to Con DeVote, according to the report.

It is composed merely mingles with the air, leaving only a light, powdery deposit in place of the water that melts when frozen water melts. That is why they call it dry ice.

QUICK freezing at extremely low temperatures is the very latest word in preservation of foods, and dry ice lends itself both to this quick freezing process and to the economical keeping of frozen foods.

That is why it is becoming important in industry.

My Beauty Hint

JOAN CRAWFORD In the looking glass we see ourselves as others do, but it's a bit more difficult to get a glimpse of the back we turn to the public during the evening hours.

This often results in our giving more attention to our faces and less to our backs—a serious oversight. I have found daily soap and water baths very beneficial to the back, especially when the water is warm and lots of soap is used.

A long-handled back brush insures reaching the spinal column while a rough bath towel freshens the skin. A dusting of powder adds to the beauty of the back.

PAYMENT OF ALIMONY HALTED FOR HUSBAND

An order was handed down today by Circuit Judge H. D. Norton, absolving James Daily of any further payments of $30 per month to his divorced wife, Mary Daily. The divorce was granted October 6, 1917. Daily set forth that the three minor children are now of age, and that he made payments for one of the boys, though he was under state care the past several years. Mrs. Daily in a counter affidavit, set forth that this youth was not yet of age, and requested payment.

HOMESTEAD CONTEST HEARD BY TENGWALD

A homestead contest case, between Earl C. Templeton and George Eptinan Panagos, both residents of the district south of Ashland, is being heard today before Deputy United States Commissioner Victor A. Tengwald. It is alleged that Panagos failed to comply with all the government regulations relative to homesteads. Final hearing on the case has been set for August 3, next, before H. A. Canaday, registrar of the land office at Roseburg.

STUART DENIES BRIDGE CHARGE

R. I. Stuart of vlna city, contractor, whose gas shovel crashed through a bridge across the Applegate river last Friday afternoon, entered a plea of not guilty in justice court at Grants Pass yesterday to hauling over a secondary highway without a permit.

A similar plea was entered by George Brewer, truck operator. Hearing of the case has been set for tomorrow. The charge against the contractor was filed by the state highway board, who allege that the shovel was too wide and too high and to heavy for hauling on a secondary highway.

It is charged that two pier, overhead structural steel and the decking collapsed under the weight of the shovel. Since the topping of the bridge residents of the Murphy district have been fording the Applegate.

DEFER ARGUMENT ON BANKS MOTION

Due to the pressure of other legal business, hearing of arguments on the motion to strike certain paragraphs in the complaint of the libel suit of George W. Neilson, deputy district attorney, against L. A. Banks, orchardist, will be deferred for a couple of days.

Banks, through his attorney, George M. Roberts, seeks to have stricken from the complaint sentences reading, "Law and order have broken down in Jackson county," and "inflaming the lawless element of Jackson county." The phrases were contained in articles entitled "The Two Georges," and others of the same trend.

Neilson, in his complaint, denies a series of sensational charges, and claims the printed material impaired his civilian and official standing. He seeks $50,000 on five counts.

AUTO ABUSES ARE TARGET OF DRIVE

State police are now in the midst of a drive to control and correct conditions in the auto traffic situation, including ownership of California and Washington auto license plates, trucking between Oregon and California, contrary to the statutes, and the operation of aged vehicles shod all protective accessories such as headlights and fenders, and also without the 1932-33 Oregon license plates.

Several city youths driving "heaps" have been given warnings, and in most cases offer the alibi they are "a farmer's boy on the way home."
