We Are at War!

THIS country is really at war. Only instead of fighting foreign foe, it is fighting Old Man Depression. The quality of spirit, exhibited in 1918 is the quality of spirit needed now, but we regret to say there is little evidence of it.

Instead of the "will to win," we have a pronounced defeatist complex; instead of accepting self sacrifice, as a necessary element, in successfully surmounting a serious crisis, we areat least too many of us-looking around to save our skins in the nearest hide-out.

DURING the war slackers were few, and those few didn't dare show their heads, for public opinion was militant and bitter against them. But we have no such public opinion now. The woods are full of Depression slackers, but little or nothing is said against them.

During the war when people of means didn't do their share in Liberty Loan drives, they were quickly smoked out and held up to public scorn. But today, nothing is done about people of means who refuse to buy things they need and can afford, and who join in the widespread buyers strike. Nor is anything done about those who hoard their cash, refuse to let it work for themselves or anyone else-who just dig in with food and water, waiting until the war is over.

YET THESE PEOPLE IN REALITY, ARE GIVING AID TO A COMMON ENEMY, AND REFUSING TO DO THEIR BIT, IN TIME OF DANGER, JUST AS CLEARLY AS WERE THE SLACKERS AND EVADERS, 14 YEARS AGO.

THIS is no time for a buyer's strike. It is no time for hoarding. Those who are guilty of either, invite the very thing they are trying to avoid-namely, a prolongation of the Depression, and an increase in its destructive affects.

There are thousands of people of course, who can not buy, for they have nothing to buy with. But there are also thousands, in this state, and everywhere else, who could buy-who have money and the legitimate needs-but who refuse to do so.

This refusal is based upon two chief motives-both unworthy any time but particularly so in such a critical time as this,

Abject fear, and unmitigated selfishness.

They are afraid of the future, they have lost their nerve and their faith in themselves and in their country.

They are not thinking about what is best for their community, or their country; they are only thinking about saving their precious financial skins-the same sort of spirit that in space. turns theatre fires into holacausts; that transforms men into wild beasts in a disaster at sea, when they fight and claw to get to the life boats first.

WHAT we need in this economic war is what every country needs in any war-the real WAR SPIRIT-the determ- stone hills, with their veneer of green ination to fight through to victory if it takes all summer; the determination on the part of every individual to do his bit, and whenever necessary sacrifice his personal desires, on the altar of the common weal and the public interest.

We can pass remedial legislation until the cows come home, we can inflate credit and deflate prices to our hearts content, but until we FACE FACTS AS THEY ARE, march to the the same peak. The star that folfiring line, as a people, and present a united front to the lows the sun appears in the same common foe, only a deadlock is possible—there can be no real place at the appointed hour, and the victory—the war can only end when Old Man Depression tires Big Dipper points, as usual, to the himself out.

WHAT we need in 1932 is the aroused public opinion of 1918. We also need a few "Minute Men" willing to than twenty thousand years. take time from their private affairs to arouse the people to the dangers confronting them, and the spirit needed to surmount them.

How low our morale has sunk, how blind we have become to the practical needs of the situation was vividly demonstrated to the present writer by the remark of a friend a few days ago.

He said he needed a new car, had the money to buy one but decided not to do so because he feared h would be critized for spending money in such a way when so many people were

Fear, fear! Who gave way to fear in 1918. What ernor may invoke a 3-way plan, cause is there for fear today?

The Prussian cabinet, denying Von Hindenburg's power in the matter, is sent about its business.

EVERY man that buys a new car—or ANYTHING ELSE — is doing his bit to end this depression. Every man that is able to buy and refuses to do so—who has money but refuses.
