Table Rock

TABLE ROCK, July 22.—(Spl.)—Shelby Tuttle, Jr., returned Tuesday from an outing on Lake creek with the Boy Scouts, and reports an enjoyable time.

Edna Knowles, who spent several weeks visiting her brothers, Roy and George, at the "Faith Home" for children, returned to Frank Hart's this week.

A large crowd gathered at the schoolhouse Monday evening for the preaching service conducted by Rev. Jas. Johnston, accompanied by several girls from Faith Home.

Mrs. Lou Penland and brother, Luke Edington, of Marshfield visited at the John Nealon home Monday.

Roy Parr of Ashland was a Table Rock visitor Wednesday afternoon.

Several people from this neighborhood attended the religious meetings at Sams Valley last week.

The first threshing of the season in this district was done last week on the Miller place by the Nealon-Wilson threshing outfit. The yield was reported excellent.

Army worms are not making much headway here against the attacks of many species of fowl, including the China pheasant, quail and domestic fowls.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Davison are vacationing at the coast resorts and Mrs. Ray Wyatt is tending the Table Rock store during their absence.

Same Valley Sewing club entertained the "Table Rock Chat and Sew club" Thursday afternoon.

The Chas. DeArmond threshing outfit is busy with the barley crop on the Morris ranch this week.

Several head of cattle are being pastured in the road here and are growing to be quite a menace to traffic, gardens and fences.

Gene Merritt of Central Point is carrying the mail on this route while Ed Vincent is taking his vacation.

Mrs. Francis Russell has returned home from the Sacred Heart hospital with her little daughter Joyce Elaine, who arrived July 6.

Jack Davis of Portland, who is spending his vacation with his grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Vincent, and other relatives of the valley, is assisting with the hay crop on Mrs. Blanche Gregory's farm.

Ralph Wilson reports a fairly good fresh meat trade, with business seeming to be on the increase.

Mr. Wilson has recently put into operation a modern ice machine.

Miss Edith Sage was a guest last Sunday of the Jackson County Recreational club at their outing at Dead Indian Sode Springs.

The Sams Valley Grange at its last meeting adopted a resolution asking orchardists and packing houses to hire only local help when possible, and to give preference to those with dependents.

Willow Springs

WILLOW SPRINGS, July 22.—(Spl.)—Miss Wilda Richmond, who is spending the summer in Portland, drove down with her cousin, J. D. Campbell of that city, and spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Gleason and daughter of Cottage Grove spent the week-end with the M. F. Youngs. They will visit Diamond and Crater lakes before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Bonney and daughter Alberta and Miss Rose Jones attended a Grange picnic on the Applegate river Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Clement have as a house guest Mr. Clement's sister, Mrs. B. R. Kries of Salt Lake City. The Clement family and their guest enjoyed a picnicking trip to Hell's Gate on the lower Rogue river Sunday.

Frances and Wiamae Parker are spending several days with their grandmother, Mrs. H. B. Alverson, at Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Anderson and A. V. Carlson motored to Crescent City Sunday with a party of Medford friends and picnicked there.

Roger and Dean Barker of Medford are visiting their uncle, Ed Boardman.

Miss Rose Jones and Mrs. Helen Brophy attended a meeting of the

Brownsboro

The Jolly club at Mrs. Henspeter's in Jacksonville, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Eden, Mrs. Julius Birchholz and Mrs. W. K. Parker called on Mrs. Herbert Hanna in Jacksonville Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Percy Thomas of Footh Creek and her sister, who is a guest from Oroville, Cal., were luncheon guests at the A. H. Clements Thursday.

BROWNSBORO, July 22.—(Spl.)—Sunday school visitors last Sunday were Rev. Johnston of Faith Home, Ceres, Cal. and Mrs. Smith and children of Butte Falls. After the lesson Rev. Johnston preached an interesting sermon.

Recent visitors from Ashland at the J. D. Henry home were Mrs. Ike Pridgeger and mother, Mrs. Enders.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Myers and daughter, Frances, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Crawford at Sams Valley Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hansen and son, Gerald, visited near Butte Falls Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Marshall, who are camped there for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Henry accompanied their daughter, Mrs. Nelson, and family to Crater Lake July 12, where they spent a delightful day.

W. M. Hansen made a business trip to Medford Wednesday morning.

Mildred Hansen spent several days last week visiting in Eagle Point at the Chas. Cingcade home and attending the conference in Central Point.

Mrs. Day of Central Point called at the Wright home Wednesday.
