

Held in Killings

Erwin Limer, 45, was held in Los Angeles on a technical charge of suspicion of murder of Edwin H. Clark, retired, and Mrs. Clark. Limer was a roomer at their home.

REPUBLICAN LEADERS FOR PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN

Sen. Henry D. Hatfield of West Virginia, who will be in charge of general headquarters in Washington for the republican campaign, is shown with three sectional leaders who will have headquarters in Cheyenne, Wyo., New York and Chicago, respectively. Left to right: Senators Carey, Hatfield, Hebert and Dickinson.

FLIER'S MOTHER 'LISTENS IN'

Mrs. J. B. Griffin, mother of Bennett Griffin, who with James Mattern is attempting a round-the-world flight, is shown as she sat by her radio in Oklahoma City, awaiting word of her son's fate.

EGAN BOOKED ON MURDER CHARGE

San Francisco's suspended public defender, Frank J. Egan (left), is shown as he surrendered to be booked on a charge of murdering his benefactress, Mrs. Jessie Hughes, allegedly to gain control of her estate.

Presidential Aspirant

Col. Frank E. Webb, former presidential nominee of the farmer-labor party, was nominated for president by the liberty party at its convention in Kansas City.

College Golf Champ

Johnny Fischer (above), 20-year-old University of Michigan golfer, won the national intercollegiate golf championship at Hot Springs, Va., by defeating Billy Howell of Washington and Lee.

WOULD RULE WOODSMEN FESTIVAL

Charlotte Bearg, Longview, Wash., was one of the candidates seeking the title of Paulina Bunyan for the town's annual rollo.

TORNADO WRECKS KANSAS TOWN

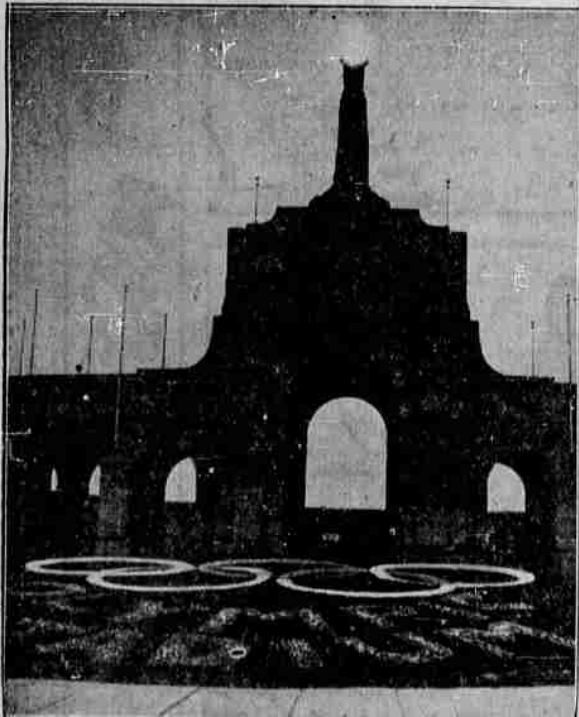

This scene of destruction in the little town of Washington, Kas., shows some of the damage wrought by a tornado which killed three persons and injured more than 20 others.

COAST BONUS MARCHERS IN OASIS

This photograph, taken from an airplane piloted by Lt. Jimmy Norris, shows hundreds of automobiles of the California "B.E.F." winding slowly into the municipal park at Tucson, Ariz., as they crossed the state on their pilgrimage to Washington, D. C.

LEGENDARY OLYMPIC TORCH AFLAME

Beacon for the Olympic Games in Los Angeles lighted for a try-out. It was extinguished and will be turned on at the opening ceremony of the Tenth Olympiad at Olympic Stadium. It stands 120 feet above the ground and is fed by illuminating gas and will burn night and day.

ANOTHER WESTERN CUP FOR HAIG

Walter Hagen (right) is shown receiving the cup emblematic of the Western open golf championship from Walter Wood, president of the association, at Cleveland. It was the fifth time "The Haig" has won this title. His score of 287 for the 72 holes was one under par, which Olin Dutra, runner-up, carded.

PUPIL KNOWS ALL THE ANSWERS

The Bambino willingly proffered Buzz Artlett (center) advice on the manufacture of home runs when the Yankees dropped off in Baltimore for an exhibition game, but it was something like telling a chicken how to lay an egg. The Big Oriole at the time led the world in homers with 41. Ruth is shown in action at right, with that other eminent slugger Lou Gehrig ready to contribute.

FLOGGING REVIVED IN OHIO

Sentenced to an alternative of twenty lashes in a public flogging or twenty days at hard labor on a bread and water diet for stealing, two brothers, William and Jesse Wynn, chose the former. Sheriff John Stevens is applying the lash to the back of Jesse Wynn, who is manacled to the side of the county courthouse at Millersburg, Ohio. About 300 persons watched the whippings, the first in Ohio for more than 50 years.

LAUNCHES G. O. P. CAMPAIGN

Everett Sanders, new chairman of the republican national committee, opened the republican campaign headquarters in Chicago. He is directing the campaign of President Hoover and Vice President Curtis.

WELCOME NEWS OF FLIER'S SAFETY

Three persons who were happy when it was learned the world racers, James Mattern and Bennett Griffin, had not been hurt when their globe circling airplane was wrecked in Europe. Left to right: Mrs. Ralph W. Sprague, Beverly Hills, Cal., sister of Griffin; Mrs. James Mattern of Fort Worth, Tex., and Lucy Griffin's sister, of Los Angeles.

FLOWERS FOR ACCUSER OF HUTTON

Myrtle St. Pierre receiving flowers on the Los Angeles courthouse steps from a sympathizer. Miss St. Pierre sued the husband of Almee Semple McPherson-Hutton for $200,000 breach of promise damages. David Hutton denied all of the allegations.

Guided By Dad

Sniper Captured

Nicholas A. Long, 64, Washington carpenter, who said he wanted "to start some fireworks," killed one policeman and wounded three others before police shot their way into his home and captured him.