BIRTH CONTROL DECISION OPENS HOT ARGUMENT

CHICAGO, July 23.—(AP)—A storm of contradictory comment has followed a decision by Circuit Judge Daniel P. Trude in which he gave the first judicial approval of birth control ever expressed in Chicago.

The decision was given in the case of Mrs. Gertrude Bemis who was granted separate maintenance from her husband, Walter J. Bemis, a consulting engineer.

"It is evident to me" the court said, "that too many children have been born to this couple. The mother rebelled at motherhood. The job was too much for her."

In granting the separate maintenance Judge Trude specifically cited the couple's five children as the reason for their marital discord, and "spiced Mrs. Bemis' charge that her husband centered his attentions on another woman."

Commenting on the court's action, Dr. Rachelle Yarros, a woman medical specialist, said "a woman ought to have the right to decide how many children she can care for without injury to her health."

Judge Joseph A. Graber of the court of domestic relations, on the other hand, took an opposing view.

"I have found that children do more to patch up broken homes than any other single factor," he said.

Judge Trude told Mrs. Bemis to go to California on a vacation away from her five children.

MOSCOW.—(AP)—The American section of the foreign colony staged a run on one of the Moscow stores operated for foreigners when they discovered "made in U. S. A." canned goods on its shelves.

Pangs of homesickness mingled with hungry anticipation overcame their dizziness when they learned the exorbitant prices, and the whole stock was bought in a few hours.

The prices included black pepper at $4.85 a pound; one-half pound cinnamon, $2.40; one pound coffee, $2.00; one pound rolled oats, $1.25; one medium-sized can salad oil, $2.00; one pound powdered cocoa, $2.00.

Canned milk was the only reasonable item in the stock, selling for 10 cents a small can.

The goods, all standard American brands, were turned over to the store by the customs house which seized them for non-payment of the duty levied on all "goods" from abroad.

ASTORIA OFFICIAL HELD IN BRIBERY

ASTORIA, Ore., July 23.—(AP)—William Mannila, 38, city commissioner of Astoria, was held in jail here today following his arrest Sunday, pending an investigation on a technical charge of violating a state law.

He was arrested with Joe Dimitroff, said by police to have been involved several times in liquor law violations.

Chief of Police John Acton, who with two other officers, made the arrests, has refused to discuss the case before consulting with the district attorney. They estimated, however, that bribery and liquor conspiracy accusations in connection with the case were being investigated.

Both Mannila and Dimitroff were held today without bail.

Italy Dismisses Exiles ROME.—(AP)—Decorations given to Italians who became anti-fascist and now live abroad, are being cancelled. The first to suffer was Don Luigi Sturzo, head of the defunct popular party. He lost his rank as an officer of the crown of Italy.

BLARNEY STONE KISS AT COST OF HIS LIFE

CORK, Irish Free State, July 23.—(AP)—James Burke of Charleville insisted he could kiss the blarney stone without anyone holding his legs as he hung head downward over the parapet, as so many pilgrims have done.

He tried it, slipped, and fell 100 feet to his death at the foot of the ancient castle.

Kissing the stone, tradition says, gives the power of eloquent and persuasive speech.

EQUINE STAR MAY CARRY OWNER TO DIRECTOR HEIGHTS

HOLLYWOOD—One way to become a movie director is to buy a wild horse, write a story to star it in and convince a producer you're the only one to direct the picture.

That, briefly, is how Earl Haley, who served a long apprenticeship in the studio, has achieved his ambition. He is a remarkably enthusiastic fellow of 28 whose eagerness is the reason he didn't remain a day laborer long, once he got inside a studio.

A few months ago, while an assistant director, Haley purchased the long inactive Rex, so-called king of wild horses, his running mate, Lady, and Marquis, the heavy in every horse opera. Rex has been starred in several films, one of which netted Hal a million dollars.

A few days ago, Haley's friend, Howard Hawks (whom he aided in the direction of "Scarface"), obtained an audience with an executive for him. Haley sold his story, got his horses rented and himself hired as director. He begins soon directing "Wild Horse Stampede" on the Navajo reservation in Arizona. Haley says the hardest job is yet to come; he must prove he is a director.

Haley refuses to put a value on his stable, which includes two other horses used as doubles for Rex in the close-ups. He believes he can earn as much as $
