Talent Grangers To Conduct Meet At Phoenix Aug. 9

PHOENIX, July 28.—(Spl.)—The Grange of Phoenix met Tuesday with good attendance. After a business session, conducted by Master R. C. Ward, the lecture hour program was presented by the lecturer, Mrs. O. G. Maus, and consisted of a vocal solo by Florence and Minnie Outman, vocal solo by Frank Hansen, and reading by Mrs. Carter. Tuesday evening closed the attendance contest that had been under way for the past few weeks. The winners will be entertained with a feed by the losers at the close of the next Grange meeting, August 9. Mrs. L. O. Caster was appointed as chairman of the committee of the losing side, and each member of this side who was not present at the meeting Tuesday night, will be notified of their part in the plans for the next meeting. The business session and lecture hour of the August 9 meeting will be conducted by officers and members of the Talent Grange. In exchange for a meeting conducted by the Phoenix officers at a recent meeting of the Talent Grange.

Table Rock Club Women Assemble At School House

BAMS VALLEY, July 28.—(Spl.)—The Ladies' Industrial club entertained the Table Rock Sewing club at the school house Thursday with an attendance of over 50, including 31 members of the Table Rock club. The meeting opened with a program of songs and readings, the latter bringing out the many advantages of the present depression, until the listeners felt almost reluctant to accept prosperity return again. Delicious refreshments were served at tables profusely with flowers, just after the ladies enjoyed 30 minutes of contest parlor games. Call Lottie Howard, Rep. Investors Syndicate, 1396-L.
