

RADICAL BONUSERS ARE WEEDED OUT BY CAPITAL COPS

Plain clothes officers scanned the men's faces and apparently were familiar with them, for without asking them questions separation was made. Three patrol wagons, loaded with the radicals, left for the fourth precinct station and an overflow of half a dozen of the left wing group was closely surrounded on the sidewalk awaiting arrival of a fourth wagon. The radicals offered no resistance.

Leader Known.

John Pace of Detroit has been the acknowledged leader of the radical wing which twice has attempted picketing of the White House. On the first occasion he was arrested for parading without a permit and disorderly conduct. He was sentenced to $40 fine or 40 days in jail, and is out on $200 bond pending appeal. He has yet to be tried on the second arrest on similar charges.

Whether he figured in today's arrests was not ascertained.

Those to be escorted out of town were marched at a fairly fast pace out Virginia avenue, southeast, and along the latter toward the city limits.

The men walked along quietly for the most part.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—(AP)—From break of dawn on into the day, while soldiers stood guard over the four desolate spots that had housed the bonus army, an exodus of sullen veterans and hangers-on took place from Washington.

As for days past, police kept sentry at the White House to guard against radical demonstrations. The officers had instructions to call for reinforcements if any disturbance materialized.

In the early morning hours, numbers of those who were forced to fall back in front of tear gas attacks by Fort Myer troops took to the highways for shelter elsewhere.

Members of the "B. E. P." who had gone to a private estate, christened Camp Bartlett, two miles from the burned Anacostia camp, gathered together their few belongings to depart this forenoon.

As the result of yesterday's happenings, in which one veteran was killed and many police, veterans and soldiers injured, some of the remaining bonus marchers were anything but good tempered.

Others, however, took the situation in good nature.

FIRST FIRE SEEN IN ROGUE FOREST

The first fire of consequence, and it is not a large one, was reported today in the Rogue River national forest, in the Lodge Pole region, between Lodge Pole and the summit of the Cascades.

The flames were traveling through brush only and no damage was reported. The fire was described as under control this afternoon. H. B. Rankin, supervisor of the forest, and a crew of fighters were on the job. Origin of the blaze was unknown.

BENNY LEONARD IN SURPRISE COMEBACK

NEW YORK, July 29.—(AP)—Thirty-seven-year-old Benny Leonard has gone a long way toward disproving the adage that they never come back. The former lightweight champion today had won the 20th straight victory of his comeback campaign, the result of a clean-cut 10-round decision over Billy Townsend of Vancouver last night.

Leonard, weighing 81 pounds, was credited with eight rounds to two for his 144-pound opponent.

Fall Is Fatal For Baseball Watcher

PORTLAND, Ore., July 29.—(AP)—A fall from a high crane track from which vantage spot he was watching the Portland-Mission baseball game here, proved fatal for Alfred Stalno, 19, last night. He died shortly after being taken to a hospital.

Bull In Church Cause Of Panic

SAN SEVERINO, Italy.—(AP)—Work-shippers in the cathedral here were thrown into a panic when a bull dashed into their midst during prayer. It had escaped while being led to slaughter and climbed 24 steps to reach the church, where it ran rampant until it finally was cornered and recaptured.
