

COMMUNIST PARTY'S NOMINEES

Associated Press Photo
William Z. Foster (left), general secretary of the Union Unity League of New York, was named the presidential candidate of the communist party of America at its convention in Chicago. James W. Ford (right) of Pratt City, Ala., was nominated for vice-president.

BRISK TRADE WITH OYSTER MONEY

Associated Press Photo
Howard Jensen, president of the Raymond, Wash., chamber of commerce, is handing Katherine Skeiton some "oyster money" to pay for furniture. The exchange was adopted to relieve a cash shortage when a consolidated bank closed. The "oyster" coin is a promise of the chamber to pay when dividends are issued from the bank.

BILLY ARNOLD TAKES A BRIDE

Associated Press Photo
Just before Billy Arnold left Chicago to prepare for the Indianapolis Memorial day auto race, which he won in 1930, he married Dorothy Canfield of Detroit. The newlyweds are shown above.

DEMPSEY PROMOTES THE KING

Associated Press Photo
It was King Levinsky (left), Chicago heavy, who played havoc with Jack Dempsey's comeback attempt but they are friendly enough now. Levinsky stopped in Los Angeles to confer with Dempsey, the promoter, about a fight in Reno July 4 with Max Baer. Of course "Leapin' Lena," the King's sister-manager, had a part in the confab.

SEATTLE LAD SAVES SHOE LEATHER

Associated Press Photo
Stanley McCrary is telling the service station attendant to "fill 'er up," which means one gallon. His little automobile, made of odds and ends, is propelled by an old washing machine motor. High speed is 12 miles an hour and fuel consumption "about a gallon of gasoline a day." Stanley says it's a great improvement on scooters and such.

A Victory Smile

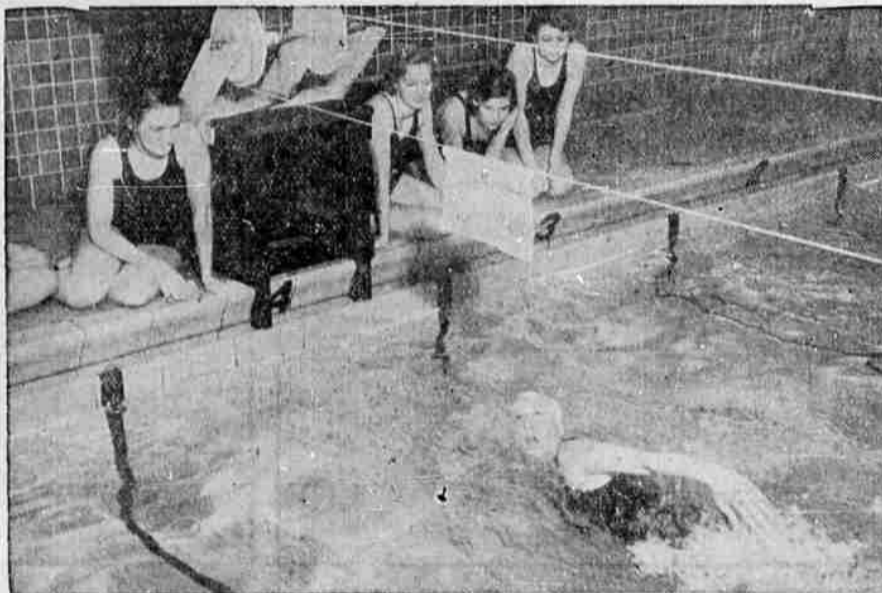

Associated Press Photo
Henry Field, "amateur" in politics after a career as seed grower, radio station owner and caterer to farm family needs, shows his "victory smile" as he won the republican nomination for United States senator from Iowa, defeating Sen. Smith W. Brookhart.

ON TO WASHINGTON SLOGAN OF BONUS SEEKERS

Associated Press Photo
Former World War service men at Los Angeles sign up for "bonus march" to Washington, D. C.

FOUND—SOMETHING THAT CAN BEAT HELENE

Associated Press Photo
Coach Ray Daughters of the Washington Athletic Club has fixed up a pace-setter to aid Helene Madison in her training for the pre-Olympic tryouts. Here we see the champion mermaid in the Seattle club's pool racing against the device which consists of a line stretched the length of the course with flag attached. The banner flies directly over the swimmer and operated at any speed by the coach.

Heir To Millions

Associated Press Photo
This is Smith Reynolds, 20-year-old heir to the tobacco fortune. He is shown after he arrived in Seattle at the end of an airplane and boat trip around the world.

ACTRESS NAMED IN $100,000 SUIT

Associated Press Photo
Helen Hayes (above), stage and screen actress, has been made defendant in a suit for $100,000 instituted in Chicago by Cary Fink MacArthur, first wife of the actress' husband, Charles MacArthur, playwright. Miss Hayes and her husband are on a vacation in Europe.

HOLLYWOOD DIVORCE LIST GROWS

Associated Press Photo
Edna Murphy, former stage and screen actress, has filed suit for divorce against Mervyn Leroy, film director, in Los Angeles.

BOXING CZAR ADOPTS SECRETARY

Associated Press Photo
William Muldoon, 86, New York state boxing commissioner, acquired a daughter half his age by the adoption of his secretary, Margaret V. Farrell. She was also designated his heir. Muldoon never married. Miss Farrell has been his secretary for 12 years.

Argentine Golf Star

Associated Press Photo
Jose Jurado (above), Argentine golf star, has come to the United States to compete in the American, western and Canadian open championships. He also will make an exhibition tour with Walter Hagen.

FIGURES IN "HEART BALM" SUIT

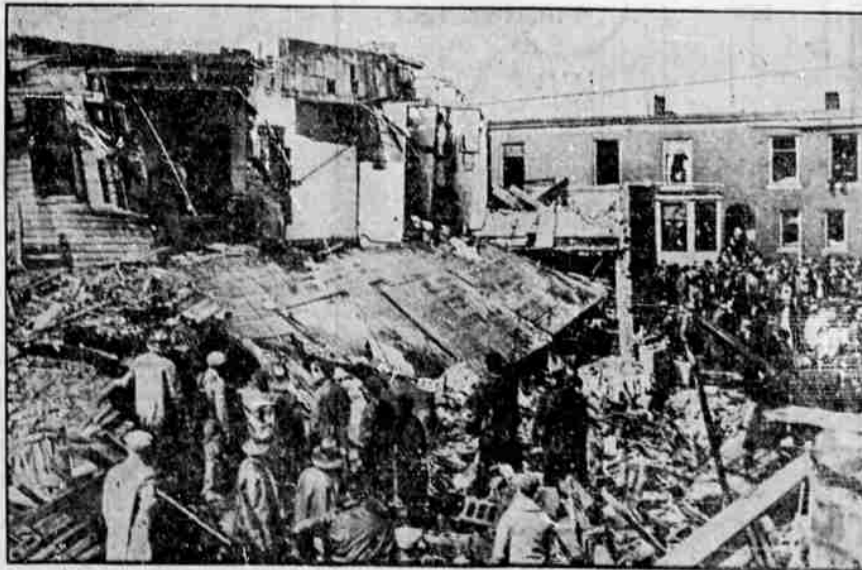

Associated Press Photo
Mrs. Virginia Sturm McElvain (left) of Chicago has filed suit for $100,000 "heart balm" from her father-in-law, James M. McElvain, Texas oil millionaire, charging that he alienated the affections of her husband, Thornton McElvain (right). Her attorney said a divorce suit will be filed in Texas, where a wife may obtain half her husband's money through divorce.

FINNISH TRACK ACE AND FIANCEE

Associated Press Photo
The engagement of Syvi Laaksonen, daughter of an Abo, Finland, manufacturer, and Paavo Nurmi, famous Finnish distance runner, was announced recently.

WHERE ONE DIED AND 24 WERE HURT IN GAS BLAST

Associated Press Photo
One person was killed and 24 others injured, several seriously, when a gas explosion in a Detroit plumbing shop wrecked four store buildings and a flat in suburban Highland Park. The shop where the explosion occurred is shown here. A broken gas main was blamed.