

Local and Personal

Visiting at Hornbrook—Mrs. J. F. True of this city is spending several days at Hornbrook, Cal., where she is guest of friends.

On Business—Robert J. Disher of the Pacific Steel company, with headquarters in Portland, is among business visitors in Medford today.

Mrs. Aldrich Home—Mrs. W. W. Aldrich has returned to her home in Medford, following two weeks spent in Portland.

Stops in City—To make business calls here, W. B. Terrell of Henry Diston & Sons, Inc., of San Francisco was a visitor in the city today.

Telephone Operator—Miss Evelyn Hall has been added to the staff of the Medford hotel, as telephone operator.

Has Infected Foot—E. W. Wheeler is receiving treatment at the Sacred Heart hospital for an infected foot, resulting from a severe blister on his instep.

Keymire on Business Here—Fred Keymire of Salt Lake City, representative of the Lion Coal company, was a business caller in Medford yesterday.

Down from Trail—Ace Weeks, rancher of the Trail district, was in Medford this morning, buying supplies and attending to business matters.

Singleton in City—Phil Singleton of Roseburg is in Medford today on business, and before leaving will visit Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Bunch at their home on the Jacksonville road.

Guest at Lindleys—Donald Hagg of Roseburg is a guest of the O. L. Lindleys at their ranch home this week. Horseback riding and other sports are being enjoyed by the guest and his hosts.

Business Callers—Mrs. R. E. Davis and daughter of Gold Hill are in Medford today, attending to business matters and shopping. Paul Young of Griffin creek is also a visitor today.

Jay Walton Improved—Jay Walton, local linotype operator, who received a fractured arm in a minor accident at the Daily News, is getting along very well at the Sacred Heart hospital. It was reported this morning.

Cancel Grange Program—The program to have been given by the Roxy Ann and the Eagle Point Granges this evening has been postponed to August 15 because of the death of Mrs. Redpath.

Here from Tavern—Austin Raymond, operator of the Patrick's Creek tavern, was a business caller in Medford this morning and reports that things are a bit slow down his way but the season the most pleasant in many years.

Arrives with Guest—Miss Wilda Darnelle has returned from attending summer school at the University of California, and was accompanied from Berkeley by her aunt, Miss Lulu Kinder of San Jose, who will be a guest here for a week.

Five Lose Tonils—Five children underwent operations at the Community hospital yesterday for removal of their tonils. They were the little daughter of C. B. Hurd of Ashland, Corintha Tjorker and William Ayers, also of Ashland, and Alma Jean Main and Rose Marie Main of Talent.

Arrives from Iowa—Mrs. A. Tice of Mason City, Iowa, arrived here today for an indefinite visit with her sister-in-law, Mrs. O. D. Owen. If Mrs. Tice is pleased with the valley she plans to make her home here, Mrs. Owen said today.

Attend Olympic Games—Miss Arlene Hay and Mildred Beeson are among southern Oregonians in Los Angeles this week for the Olympic games. They left Friday by motor for the south. Miss Hay will continue to San Diego to be guest of friends for several weeks before the opening of school at Central Point, where she is a member of the faculty.

Back to Hospital—Lester Payne, who underwent a major operation some time ago and was removed to his home, suffered a relapse a few days ago and has been returned to the Sacred Heart hospital from his Sams Valley ranch. Mrs. Payne, who also underwent an operation for appendicitis, has been removed from the hospital to her home and is getting along nicely.

Register Here—Listed at hotels here today are the names of the following Oregonians from points outside of the city of Portland: Wilson A. Rich, S. Stanton and N. K. Kelso of Eugene, Lewis D. Griffith, Olin M. Kelly, George H. Graves, Viola Keller and Elizabeth Renne of Salem, Goe E. Turvey of Williams, C. C. Archibald of Roseburg and J. C. Moore of Corvallis.

Guests in City—At the hotels here, the following Californians are listed on the registers: Annie Dolman Inskip and Olive E. Cunningham of Berkeley, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Cochran and son of San Marino, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hartman, Jr., of Hollister, Miss C. Gruber of Oceanside, Henry Haight and G. P. Benson of Oakland, Miss Sarah Adams of Ventura, G. C. Steele of Yreka, Mrs. Richardson and R. Lawson of Los Angeles, Miss A. Danielson and Carlos Wood of Stockton, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Neelsen, Miss L. S. Craighan, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Nuzu and George A. Bornemann of San Francisco.

Completes Vacation—Mrs. Dorothy Torrey has returned to Medford from Diamond lake, where she spent two weeks vacationing.

Leaves for Drain—Matilda Drum left by train at noon today for Drain, where she plans to visit.

Grindell Here from North—Harry Grindell, Southern Pacific auditor, was here yesterday from Eugene, making a check at the freight office.

Youngs Shop Here—Mr. and Mrs. George Young of Griffin creek were in Medford yesterday afternoon shopping and attending to business matters.

In Applegate Area—Hugh B. Rankin, supervisor of Rogue River national forest, is spending today in the Applegate area checking on road work in the Star Gulch district.

To Visit Mother—Mrs. Eugene Orr left on the Shasta this noon for Portland, where she plans to spend two weeks visiting her mother, Mrs. L. Lindgren.

In Medford Today—John Holst of the Butte Falls district and Hugh Ritter of Big Elk, both rangers in the Rogue River national forest, were in Medford today on official business.

Returns from South—Ed Russell, ticket agent at the Southern Pacific station here, returned to Medford on the Shasta today, having been in the Southern Pacific hospital there receiving treatment for his eye.

Warrant Out—A warrant was issued in Judge Glenn O. Taylor's court today to state police officers for the arrest of Ralph Dumore, on a charge of reckless driving on the Reese Creek road, July 28.

To Visit Parents—Miss Florence McFarlane of Portland arrived in Medford by train this morning from the north to spend two weeks' vacation visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. McFarlane.

From New York—Travelers who are stopping at Medford hotels from the state of New York are William Coe, Miss R. Coe and Miss G. Coe of Rockville Center, Long Island, and Gertrude M. Clark of Brooklyn. From Boise, Ida, R. E. Grob is also a local guest.

Inskaps Here Guests—Dr. Annie Dolman Inskip of Berkeley, Cal., stopped here yesterday to visit her son, Dr. L. D. Inskip and family, on her return south from Portland and other points north. Mrs. Frank Noble of San Jose, Cal., sister of Mrs. L. D. Inskip, arrived this morning to visit here for a time.

Registers Car—Arriving in Medford Sunday from Hillsboro, Cal., Joseph Cheyney, chauffeur for Nion A. Tucker of the southern city, yesterday registered the station wagon he was driving at the out-of-state bureau on South Riverdale avenue. Mr. Cheyney gave as his destination Trail, where the Tucker summer lodge is situated on Rogue river.

Injured Boys Improved—Jesse Walton, who sustained serious injuries last week in an auto wreck on the Butte Falls road, was reported in a much improved condition today. He is now conscious and believed out of danger. Delbert Tinglest, who received a bad fracture in each leg in the same accident, was also reported resting easily at the Sacred Heart hospital today.

Attend Olympic Games—Miss Arlene Hay and Mildred Beeson are among southern Oregonians in Los Angeles this week for the Olympic games. They left Friday by motor for the south. Miss Hay will continue to San Diego to be guest of friends for several weeks before the opening of school at Central Point, where she is a member of the faculty.

In Eugene—Among local people spending the week-end in Eugene was Howard Leclair. Called to Medford—Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Peyton of Trail were called to Medford Thursday to be with their daughter, Mrs. J. M. Hawwood, who is seriously ill. Visits Grandmother—Miss Roberta Alexander of San Francisco arrived in Medford this noon to spend the remainder of the summer here with her grandmother, Mrs. Josephine Clark. From Distance—Distant places represented in the city yesterday by travelers in automobiles were F. L. C. Grant of Vancouver, B. C., and Douglas W. Bowden of New York city. Chapmans Return—Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Chapman returned to Medford from San Francisco today, where they have been attending the Shrine convention. Mr. Chapman is portentate of Hillah Temple. Visits Here—Miss Ellen Tillman of Redding, Cal., arrived here on the Shasta at noon today to visit Mr. and Mrs. Walter Glarich at the Vandyrke dairy near here. She plans to remain until Saturday. Anders Return Home—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Anders and children returned to Klamath Falls yesterday after spending several days here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Hansen, at their orchard home near the city. Tremaine Arrested—Ralph Tremaine was arrested by city police last evening on a warrant issued May 3. Tremaine is charged with participation in the robbery of the Rogue River Valley Golf club several months ago. Piero on Trip—Al Piero, representative of an adding machine company with headquarters in this city, has returned from a holiday at Crescent City, and spent yesterday transacting business in Grants Pass and Ashland. Circle to Meet—Priscilla circle of the Methodist church will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with Mrs. E. M. Lovell, at her home, 528 Edwards street. All members are urged to be present and visitors will be welcomed. At Hotels Here—Washington guests who are listed at hotels in the city are K. R. Stephenson and H. D. Jordan of Seattle, Mrs. Etta Adams and Florence Greason of Bothell, Gertrude Dooley of Bremerton and Lulu Martin of Tacoma. Returns Home—Mrs. Grover Millsaps and eight-pound daughter, Bebe Marie, returned to their home yesterday at 704 South Peach street, from the Purucker Maternity home. Mrs. Millsaps will be remembered as Betty Stewart. Morrison Transferred—C. D. Morrison, local representative of General Motors Acceptance corporation, left yesterday for Portland, having been transferred from this district. Mrs. Morrison will join him in the northern city, leaving here today. Two Permits Out—The city building department has issued two permits this month, one to W. W. Pricke for the construction of a store building on North Riverdale avenue to cost $750, and the other to F. E. Kruggel of 421 Jay street for alterations amounting to $100. Mr. Talent Leaves—Charles P. Talent, with the secretary of state's office in the out-of-state cars division, left today for Klamath Falls, Chiloquin and Lakeview, on his regular visit to that territory. He arrived in Medford Saturday. Following a week in the southeastern district, Mr. Talent will return here for his vacation. State Metropolis—Those traveling from the city of roses, Portland, to Medford, and registering at hotels here, are Robert J. Disher, C. M. Clark, L. P. Coop, J. L. Dillon, Mrs. A. Harwick, G. G. Turndispeed, C. D. Vaughn, T. G. Harry, Jr., C. A. Sander, E. J. Hall, E. P. Peithman, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Cash, George L. Dutton and Daisy Lay. Apply at Prospect—Earl York, civil service examiner at the local post-office, today stated that those applying for the position of postmaster at Prospect must receive their applications at the postoffice in Prospect. The provisions of application require the person to be a resident of the town for at least two years, and a patron of the office where he is applying.

Small Grass Fire—Some grass burning in the parking at the corner of Riverdale and Liberty streets was extinguished this morning at 10:30 o'clock by the city fire department. No damage resulted. Return from North—Klath Fennell and Robert Keeney returned yesterday to business matters. They left day morning from Portland and Eugene, where they visited and attended Medford Friday noon. Volunteers Meet—Twenty of the 24 volunteers of the Medford fire department met at the city fire hall last night for regular monthly drill. Hose and water drills were conducted by Fire Chief Roy Elliott. Stops in Medford—Mrs. Etta Adams, en route to Sausalito, Cal., stopped at Medford overnight, before continuing south from Tacoma. She formerly resided in this city, where she has many friends. Mrs. Laing on Vacation—Mrs. Arthur Laing, assistant in the office of Dr. B. R. Elliott, is on her vacation this week and enjoying an outing with Mr. Laing in the southern Oregon hills. Mrs. Ida M. Cole is substituting for her in Dr. Elliott's office.

Flower Show To Be Craterian Feature Movie fans have an opportunity to see how a big hotel is run in Paramount's "Reserved for Ladies," in which Leslie Howard plays the leading role, and which is the Fox Craterian's feature picture for Wednesday and Thursday. In this picture Leslie Howard enacts the part of the highly efficient head waiter of one of the world's most aristocratic eating places for the wealthy, and socially prominent. He demonstrates the suavity and efficiency of popular maitres d'hotel and shows why it is that he commands such fabulous salaries. The Medford Garden club will sponsor a display of flowers at the Fox Craterian tomorrow. Elbow Mae Wilson will entertain.

Maurine O'Sullivan At Holly Wednesday Holly fans are reminded that tonight will be their last chance to see "Wood End Marriage," the feature that has been well liked by all who have seen it during the past two days. The pictures of the Lomski-Loughran title bout will be shown for the last time today also. Those not interested in boxing need have no fear that the showing of these pictures will mar the program for this and the following week. Tomorrow and Thursday the Holly will show "Fast Companions," a snapshot feature starring Maurine O'Sullivan, James Gleason, Andy Devine and Tom Brown, who recently made such a hit in "Tom Brown of Culver." Holly patrons are reminded of this change in the Holly schedule this week. Instead of two features the Holly will present three this week. Look! A final clean-up of hats and dresses. Every summer hat going at 25c to $1. Dresses marked down 50c to $2.49 in wash frocks; $2.50 to $10.00 in silk dresses. The Band Box & Shoe Box. New fall shoes now on display. Real money saving values, $1.49 to $3.95. The Band Box & Shoe Box. Matinee swimming at Merrick's tomorrow afternoon. Children 10c and 15c; adults 20c and 25c.

Medford Woman REJOICES OVER 93 YEARS OF HEALTH LOCAL FOOTHOLD BY HOTEL OWNER

She never took a dose of medicine until long after she was married, and she takes it now against her will. Mrs. Marthinda Ellen Whitlock, who celebrated her 93rd birthday a few days ago at her home on the Oak Grove road, stated yesterday in explanation of how she has kept in the running with John D. Rockefeller. She has never played golf, but she has ridden many horses across the fields of Iowa, and finds life well worth the living as she anticipates completion of her century, just seven years distant. "No, I have never voted," she added yesterday, suppressing a slight chuckle with a quick motion of hand to lip and an added gleam in her deep set blue eyes. "Just never any place where it was being done until I became too old. Never cared much about politics anyway." She leaned back in her rocker, against the dark wood of which her silver hair formed a lovely pattern. "Would I like an airplane ride? Goodness, no. I'd be afraid, I expect. I'm quite satisfied to stay on the ground." Mrs. Whitlock clutched the arms of her chair with two long, slender hands, which have known work on the farm and work in the city, then turned to smile at her little grand-daughter, who is one of 11, who adds much interest to her days. "I used to read a great deal," she continued in review of her hobbies, "but my eyes bother me now, especially in the hot weather. I have always been healthy though. Spent most of my life on the farm, and I've lived in many states, Iowa, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas, Colorado and Oregon." Mrs. Whitlock has lived in Medford 12 years. She was born in Johnson county, Indiana, and married in the east when she was 21. Seven children were born to the Whitlocks and the little silver-haired woman of gentle voice has outlived five of them as well as her husband, she said yesterday. "I have just two sons left, Charles, who lives at Hillsboro and Allen, with whom I live here." Mrs. Whitlock also has 11 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren. Her two sisters and one brother have been dead for several years. She has already reached the age of her mother, 93, and surpassed the record of her father, who died, while in his eighties. Permanent waves, $2.50 and up. Bowman's, 105 W. Main. Phone 57.

Medford WOMAN REJOICES OVER 93 YEARS OF HEALTH LOCAL FOOTHOLD BY HOTEL OWNER

She never took a dose of medicine until long after she was married, and she takes it now against her will. Mrs. Marthinda Ellen Whitlock, who celebrated her 93rd birthday a few days ago at her home on the Oak Grove road, stated yesterday in explanation of how she has kept in the running with John D. Rockefeller. She has never played golf, but she has ridden many horses across the fields of Iowa, and finds life well worth the living as she anticipates completion of her century, just seven years distant. "No, I have never voted," she added yesterday, suppressing a slight chuckle with a quick motion of hand to lip and an added gleam in her deep set blue eyes. "Just never any place where it was being done until I became too old. Never cared much about politics anyway." She leaned back in her rocker, against the dark wood of which her silver hair formed a lovely pattern. "Would I like an airplane ride? Goodness, no. I'd be afraid, I expect. I'm quite satisfied to stay on the ground." Mrs. Whitlock clutched the arms of her chair with two long, slender hands, which have known work on the farm and work in the city, then turned to smile at her little grand-daughter, who is one of 11, who adds much interest to her days. "I used to read a great deal," she continued in review of her hobbies, "but my eyes bother me now, especially in the hot weather. I have always been healthy though. Spent most of my life on the farm, and I've lived in many states, Iowa, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas, Colorado and Oregon." Mrs. Whitlock has lived in Medford 12 years. She was born in Johnson county, Indiana, and married in the east when she was 21. Seven children were born to the Whitlocks and the little silver-haired woman of gentle voice has outlived five of them as well as her husband, she said yesterday. "I have just two sons left, Charles, who lives at Hillsboro and Allen, with whom I live here." Mrs. Whitlock also has 11 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren. Her two sisters and one brother have been dead for several years. She has already reached the age of her mother, 93, and surpassed the record of her father, who died, while in his eighties. Permanent waves, $2.50 and up. Bowman's, 105 W. Main. Phone 57.

Medford WOMAN REJOICES OVER 93 YEARS OF HEALTH LOCAL FOOTHOLD BY HOTEL OWNER

She never took a dose of medicine until long after she was married, and she takes it now against her will. Mrs. Marthinda Ellen Whitlock, who celebrated her 93rd birthday a few days ago at her home on the Oak Grove road, stated yesterday in explanation of how she has kept in the running with John D. Rockefeller. She has never played golf, but she has ridden many horses across the fields of Iowa, and finds life well worth the living as she anticipates completion of her century, just seven years distant. "No, I have never voted," she added yesterday, suppressing a slight chuckle with a quick motion of hand to lip and an added gleam in her deep set blue eyes. "Just never any place where it was being done until I became too old. Never cared much about politics anyway." She leaned back in her rocker, against the dark wood of which her silver hair formed a lovely pattern. "Would I like an airplane ride? Goodness, no. I'd be afraid, I expect. I'm quite satisfied to stay on the ground." Mrs. Whitlock clutched the arms of her chair with two long, slender hands, which have known work on the farm and work in the city, then turned to smile at her little grand-daughter, who is one of 11, who adds much interest to her days. "I used to read a great deal," she continued in review of her hobbies, "but my eyes bother me now, especially in the hot weather. I have always been healthy though. Spent most of my life on the farm, and I've lived in many states, Iowa, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas, Colorado and Oregon." Mrs. Whitlock has lived in Medford 12 years. She was born in Johnson county, Indiana, and married in the east when she was 21. Seven children were born to the Whitlocks and the little silver-haired woman of gentle voice has outlived five of them as well as her husband, she said yesterday. "I have just two sons left, Charles, who lives at Hillsboro and Allen, with whom I live here." Mrs. Whitlock also has 11 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren. Her two sisters and one brother have been dead for several years. She has already reached the age of her mother, 93, and surpassed the record of her father, who died, while in his eighties. Permanent waves, $2.50 and up. Bowman's, 105 W. Main. Phone 57.

Medford WOMAN REJOICES OVER 93 YEARS OF HEALTH LOCAL FOOTHOLD BY HOTEL OWNER

She never took a dose of medicine until long after she was married, and she takes it now against her will. Mrs. Marthinda Ellen Whitlock, who celebrated her 93rd birthday a few days ago at her home on the Oak Grove road, stated yesterday in explanation of how she has kept in the running with John D. Rockefeller. She has never played golf, but she has ridden many horses across the fields of Iowa, and finds life well worth the living as she anticipates completion of her century, just seven years distant. "No, I have never voted," she added yesterday, suppressing a slight chuckle with a quick motion of hand to lip and an added gleam in her deep set blue eyes. "Just never any place where it was being done until I became too old. Never cared much about politics anyway." She leaned back in her rocker, against the dark wood of which her silver hair formed a lovely pattern. "Would I like an airplane ride? Goodness, no. I'd be afraid, I expect. I'm quite satisfied to stay on the ground." Mrs. Whitlock clutched the arms of her chair with two long, slender hands, which have known work on the farm and work in the city, then turned to smile at her little grand-daughter, who is one of 11, who adds much interest to her days. "I used to read a great deal," she continued in review of her hobbies, "but my eyes bother me now, especially in the hot weather. I have always been healthy though. Spent most of my life on the farm, and I've lived in many states, Iowa, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas, Colorado and Oregon." Mrs. Whitlock has lived in Medford 12 years. She was born in Johnson county, Indiana, and married in the east when she was 21. Seven children were born to the Whitlocks and the little silver-haired woman of gentle voice has outlived five of them as well as her husband, she said yesterday. "I have just two sons left, Charles, who lives at Hillsboro and Allen, with whom I live here." Mrs. Whitlock also has 11 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren. Her two sisters and one brother have been dead for several years. She has already reached the age of her mother, 93, and surpassed the record of her father, who died, while in his eighties. Permanent waves, $2.50 and up. Bowman's, 105 W. Main. Phone 57.

Medford WOMAN REJOICES OVER 93 YEARS OF HEALTH LOCAL FOOTHOLD BY HOTEL OWNER

She never took a dose of medicine until long after she was married, and she takes it now against her will. Mrs. Marthinda Ellen Whitlock, who celebrated her 93rd birthday a few days ago at her home on the Oak Grove road, stated yesterday in explanation of how she has kept in the running with John D. Rockefeller. She has never played golf, but she has ridden many horses across the fields of Iowa, and finds life well worth the living as she anticipates completion of her century, just seven years distant. "No, I have never voted," she added yesterday, suppressing a slight chuckle with a quick motion of hand to lip and an added gleam in her deep set blue eyes. "Just never any place where it was being done until I became too old. Never cared much about politics anyway." She leaned back in her rocker, against the dark wood of which her silver hair formed a lovely pattern. "Would I like an airplane ride? Goodness, no. I'd be afraid, I expect. I'm quite satisfied to stay on the ground." Mrs. Whitlock clutched the arms of her chair with two long, slender hands, which have known work on the farm and work in the city, then turned to smile at her little grand-daughter, who is one of 11, who adds much interest to her days. "I used to read a great deal," she continued in review of her hobbies, "but my eyes bother me now, especially in the hot weather. I have always been healthy though. Spent most of my life on the farm, and I've lived in many states, Iowa, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas, Colorado and Oregon." Mrs. Whitlock has lived in Medford 12 years. She was born in Johnson county, Indiana, and married in the east when she was 21. Seven children were born to the Whitlocks and the little silver-haired woman of gentle voice has outlived five of them as well as her husband, she said yesterday. "I have just two sons left, Charles, who lives at Hillsboro and Allen, with whom I live here." Mrs. Whitlock also has 11 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren. Her two sisters and one brother have been dead for several years. She has already reached the age of her mother, 93, and surpassed the record of her father, who died, while in his eighties. Permanent waves, $2.50 and up. Bowman's, 105 W. Main. Phone 57.

Medford WOMAN REJOICES OVER 93 YEARS OF HEALTH LOCAL FOOTHOLD BY HOTEL OWNER

She never took a dose of medicine until long after she was married, and she takes it now against her will. Mrs. Marthinda Ellen Whitlock, who celebrated her 93rd birthday a few days ago at her home on the Oak Grove road, stated yesterday in explanation of how she has kept in the running with John D. Rockefeller. She has never played golf, but she has ridden many horses across the fields of Iowa, and finds life well worth the living as she anticipates completion of her century, just seven years distant. "No, I have never voted," she added yesterday, suppressing a slight chuckle with a quick motion of hand to lip and an added gleam in her deep set blue eyes. "Just never any place where it was being done until I became too old. Never cared much about politics anyway." She leaned back in her rocker, against the dark wood of which her silver hair formed a lovely pattern. "Would I like an airplane ride? Goodness, no. I'd be afraid, I expect. I'm quite satisfied to stay on the ground." Mrs. Whitlock clutched the arms of her chair with two long, slender hands, which have known work on the farm and work in the city, then turned to smile at her little grand-daughter, who is one of 11, who adds much interest to her days. "I used to read a great deal," she continued in review of her hobbies, "but my eyes bother me now, especially in the hot weather. I have always been healthy though. Spent most of my life on the farm, and I've lived in many states, Iowa, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas, Colorado and Oregon." Mrs. Whitlock has lived in Medford 12 years. She was born in Johnson county, Indiana, and married in the east when she was 21. Seven children were born to the Whitlocks and the little silver-haired woman of gentle voice has outlived five of them as well as her husband, she said yesterday. "I have just two sons left, Charles, who lives at Hillsboro and Allen, with whom I live here." Mrs. Whitlock also has 11 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren. Her two sisters and one brother have been dead for several years. She has already reached the age of her mother, 93, and surpassed the record of her father, who died, while in his eighties. Permanent waves, $2.50 and up. Bowman's, 105 W. Main. Phone 57.

Medford WOMAN REJOICES OVER 93 YEARS OF HEALTH LOCAL FOOTHOLD BY HOTEL OWNER

She never took a dose of medicine until long after she was married, and she takes it now against her will. Mrs. Marthinda Ellen Whitlock, who celebrated her 93rd birthday a few days ago at her home on the Oak Grove road, stated yesterday in explanation of how she has kept in the running with John D. Rockefeller. She has never played golf, but she has ridden many horses across the fields of Iowa, and finds life well worth the living as she anticipates completion of her century, just seven years distant. "No, I have never voted," she added yesterday, suppressing a slight chuckle with a quick motion of hand to lip and an added gleam in her deep set blue eyes. "Just never any place where it was being done until I became too old. Never cared much about politics anyway." She leaned back in her rocker, against the dark wood of which her silver hair formed a lovely pattern. "Would I like an airplane ride? Goodness, no. I'd be afraid, I expect. I'm quite satisfied to stay on the ground." Mrs. Whitlock clutched the arms of her chair with two long, slender hands, which have known work on the farm and work in the city, then turned to smile at her little grand-daughter, who is one of 11, who adds much interest to her days. "I used to read a great deal," she continued in review of her hobbies, "but my eyes bother me now, especially in the hot weather. I have always been healthy though. Spent most of my life on the farm, and I've lived in many states, Iowa, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas, Colorado and Oregon." Mrs. Whitlock has lived in Medford 12 years. She was born in Johnson county, Indiana, and married in the east when she was 21. Seven children were born to the Whitlocks and the little silver-haired woman of gentle voice has outlived five of them as well as her husband, she said yesterday. "I have just two sons left, Charles, who lives at Hillsboro and Allen, with whom I live here." Mrs. Whitlock also has 11 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren. Her two sisters and one brother have been dead for several years. She has already reached the age of her mother, 93, and surpassed the record of her father, who died, while in his eighties. Permanent waves, $2.50 and up. Bowman's, 105 W. Main. Phone 57.

Medford WOMAN REJOICES OVER 93 YEARS OF HEALTH LOCAL FOOTHOLD BY HOTEL OWNER

She never took a dose of medicine until long after she was married, and she takes it now against her will. Mrs. Marthinda Ellen Whitlock, who celebrated her 93rd birthday a few days ago at her home on the Oak Grove road, stated yesterday in explanation of how she has kept in the running with John D. Rockefeller. She has never played golf, but she has ridden many horses across the fields of Iowa, and finds life well worth the living as she anticipates completion of her century, just seven years distant. "No, I have never voted," she added yesterday, suppressing a slight chuckle with a quick motion of hand to lip and an added gleam in her deep set blue eyes. "Just never any place where it was being done until I became too old. Never cared much about politics anyway." She leaned back in her rocker, against the dark wood of which her silver hair formed a lovely pattern. "Would I like an airplane ride? Goodness, no. I'd be afraid, I expect. I'm quite satisfied to stay on the ground." Mrs. Whitlock clutched the arms of her chair with two long, slender hands, which have known work on the farm and work in the city, then turned to smile at her little grand-daughter, who is one of 11, who adds much interest to her days. "I used to read a great deal," she continued in review of her hobbies, "but my eyes bother me now, especially in the hot weather. I have always been healthy though. Spent most of my life on the farm, and I've lived in many states, Iowa, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas, Colorado and Oregon." Mrs. Whitlock has lived in Medford 12 years. She was born in Johnson county, Indiana, and married in the east when she was 21. Seven children were born to the Whitlocks and the little silver-haired woman of gentle voice has outlived five of them as well as her husband, she said yesterday. "I have just two sons left, Charles, who lives at Hillsboro and Allen, with whom I live here." Mrs. Whitlock also has 11 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren. Her two sisters and one brother have been dead for several years. She has already reached the age of her mother, 93, and surpassed the record of her father, who died, while in his eighties. Permanent waves, $2.50 and up. Bowman's, 105 W. Main. Phone 57.

Medford WOMAN REJOICES OVER 93 YEARS OF HEALTH LOCAL FOOTHOLD BY HOTEL OWNER

She never took a dose of medicine until long after she was married, and she takes it now against her will. Mrs. Marthinda Ellen Whitlock, who celebrated her 93rd birthday a few days ago at her home on the Oak Grove road, stated yesterday in explanation of how she has kept in the running with John D. Rockefeller. She has never played golf, but she has ridden many horses across the fields of Iowa, and finds life well worth the living as she anticipates completion of her century, just seven years distant. "No, I have never voted," she added yesterday, suppressing a slight chuckle with a quick motion of hand to lip and an added gleam in her deep set blue eyes. "Just never any place where it was being done until I became too old. Never cared much about politics anyway." She leaned back in her rocker, against the dark wood of which her silver hair formed a lovely pattern. "Would I like an airplane ride? Goodness, no. I'd be afraid, I expect. I'm quite satisfied to stay on the ground." Mrs. Whitlock clutched the arms of her chair with two long, slender hands, which have known work on the farm and work in the city, then turned to smile at her little grand-daughter, who is one of 11, who adds much interest to her days. "I used to read a great deal," she continued in review of her hobbies, "but my eyes bother me now, especially in the hot weather. I have always been healthy though. Spent most of my life on the farm, and I've lived in many states, Iowa, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas, Colorado and Oregon." Mrs. Whitlock has lived in Medford 12 years. She was born in Johnson county, Indiana, and married in the east when she was 21. Seven children were born to the Whitlocks and the little silver-haired woman of gentle voice has outlived five of them as well as her husband, she said yesterday. "I have just two sons left, Charles, who lives at Hillsboro and Allen, with whom I live here." Mrs. Whitlock also has 11 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren. Her two sisters and one brother have been dead for several years. She has already reached the age of her mother, 93, and surpassed the record of her father, who died, while in his eighties. Permanent waves, $2.50 and up. Bowman's, 105 W. Main. Phone 57.

Medford WOMAN REJOICES OVER 93 YEARS OF HEALTH LOCAL FOOTHOLD BY HOTEL OWNER

She never took a dose of medicine until long after she was married, and she takes it now against her will. Mrs. Marthinda Ellen Whitlock, who celebrated her 93rd birthday a few days ago at her home on the Oak Grove road, stated yesterday in explanation of how she has kept in the running with John D. Rockefeller. She has never played golf, but she has ridden many horses across the fields of Iowa, and finds life well worth the living as she anticipates completion of her century, just seven years distant. "No, I have never voted," she added yesterday, suppressing a slight chuckle with a quick motion of hand to lip and an added gleam in her deep set blue eyes. "Just never any place where it was being done until I became too old. Never cared much about politics anyway." She leaned back in her rocker, against the dark wood of which her silver hair formed a lovely pattern. "Would I like an airplane ride? Goodness, no. I'd be afraid, I expect. I'm quite satisfied to stay on the ground." Mrs. Whitlock clutched the arms of her chair with two long, slender hands, which have known work on the farm and work in the city, then turned to smile at her little grand-daughter, who is one of 11, who adds much interest to her days. "I used to read a great deal," she continued in review of her hobbies, "but my eyes bother me now, especially in the hot weather. I have always been healthy though. Spent most of my life on the farm, and I've lived in many states, Iowa, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas, Colorado and Oregon." Mrs. Whitlock has lived in Medford 12 years. She was born in Johnson county, Indiana, and married in the east when she was 21. Seven children were born to the Whitlocks and the little silver-haired woman of gentle voice has outlived five of them as well as her husband, she said yesterday. "I have just two sons left, Charles, who lives at Hillsboro and Allen, with whom I live here." Mrs. Whitlock also has 11 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren. Her two sisters and one brother have been dead for several years. She has already reached the age of her mother, 93, and surpassed the record of her father, who died, while in his eighties. Permanent waves, $2.50 and up. Bowman's, 105 W. Main. Phone 57.

Medford WOMAN REJOICES OVER 93 YEARS OF HEALTH LOCAL FOOTHOLD BY HOTEL OWNER

She never took a dose of medicine until long after she was married, and she takes it now against her will. Mrs. Marthinda Ellen Whitlock, who celebrated her 93rd birthday a few days ago at her home on the Oak Grove road, stated yesterday in explanation of how she has kept in the running with John D. Rockefeller. She has never played golf, but she has ridden many horses across the fields of Iowa, and finds life well worth the living as she anticipates completion of her century, just seven years distant. "No, I have never voted," she added yesterday, suppressing a slight chuckle with a quick motion of hand to lip and an added gleam in her deep set blue eyes. "Just never any place where it was being done until I became too old. Never cared much about politics anyway." She leaned back in her rocker, against the dark wood of which her silver hair formed a lovely pattern. "Would I like an airplane ride? Goodness, no. I'd be afraid, I expect. I'm quite satisfied to stay on the ground." Mrs. Whitlock clutched the arms of her chair with two long, slender hands, which have known work on the farm and work in the city, then turned to smile at her little grand-daughter, who is one of 11, who adds much interest to her days. "I used to read a great deal," she continued in review of her hobbies, "but my eyes bother me now, especially in the hot weather. I have always been healthy though. Spent most of my life on the farm, and I've lived in many states, Iowa, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas, Colorado and Oregon." Mrs. Whitlock has lived in Medford 12 years. She was born in Johnson county, Indiana, and married in the east when she was 21. Seven children were born to the Whitlocks and the little silver-haired woman of gentle voice has outlived five of them as well as her husband, she said yesterday. "I have just two sons left, Charles, who lives at Hillsboro and Allen, with whom I live here." Mrs. Whitlock also has 11 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren. Her two sisters and one brother have been dead for several years. She has already reached the age of her mother, 93, and surpassed the record of her father, who died, while in his eighties. Permanent waves, $2.50 and up. Bowman's, 105 W. Main. Phone 57.

Medford WOMAN REJOICES OVER 93 YEARS OF HEALTH LOCAL FOOTHOLD BY HOTEL OWNER

She never took a dose of medicine until long after she was married, and she takes it now against her will. Mrs. Marthinda Ellen Whitlock, who celebrated her 93rd birthday a few days ago at her home on the Oak Grove road, stated yesterday in explanation of how she has kept in the running with John D. Rockefeller. She has never played golf, but she has ridden many horses across the fields of Iowa, and finds life well worth the living as she anticipates completion of her century, just seven years distant. "No, I have never voted," she added yesterday, suppressing a slight chuckle with a quick motion of hand to lip and an added gleam in her deep set blue eyes. "Just never any place where it was being done until I became too old. Never cared much about politics anyway." She leaned back in her rocker, against the dark wood of which her silver hair formed a lovely pattern. "Would I like an airplane ride? Goodness, no. I'd be afraid, I expect. I'm quite satisfied to stay on the ground." Mrs. Whitlock clutched the arms of her chair with two long, slender hands, which have known work on the farm and work in the city, then turned to smile at her little grand-daughter, who is one of 11, who adds much interest to her days. "I used to read a great deal," she continued in review of her hobbies, "but my eyes bother me now, especially in the hot weather. I have always been healthy though. Spent most of my life on the farm, and I've lived in many states, Iowa, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas, Colorado and Oregon." Mrs. Whitlock has lived in Medford 12 years. She was born in Johnson county, Indiana, and married in the east when she was 21. Seven children were born to the Whitlocks and the little silver-haired woman of gentle voice has outlived five of them as well as her husband, she said yesterday. "I have just two sons left, Charles, who lives at Hillsboro and Allen, with whom I live here." Mrs. Whitlock also has 11 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren. Her two sisters and one brother have been dead for several years. She has already reached the age of her mother, 93, and surpassed the record of her father, who died, while in his eighties. Permanent waves, $2.50 and up. Bowman's, 105 W. Main. Phone 57.

Medford WOMAN REJOICES OVER 93 YEARS OF HEALTH LOCAL FOOTHOLD BY HOTEL OWNER

She never took a dose of medicine until long after she was married, and she takes it now against her will. Mrs. Marthinda Ellen Whitlock, who celebrated her 93rd birthday a few days ago at her home on the Oak Grove road, stated yesterday in explanation of how she has kept in the running with John D. Rockefeller. She has