

S. P. SCHEDULE TO CHANGE AUGUST 7 ON MEDFORD LINE

Important changes in Southern Pacific train service will become effective Sunday, August 7, according to A. S. Rosenbaum, district freight and passenger agent.

Major change will be made in the northbound schedule of the Shasta which will leave here at 9:05 a. m. instead of 11:54 a. m. and arrive at Portland at 8:20 p. m. instead of 10:15 p. m. This change is being effected through departure from San Francisco at 6:20 p. m. instead of 8:30 p. m. Mr. Rosenbaum considers this a very favorable change for this district in that it will provide a much earlier arrival hour in Portland.

Schedule of northbound train No. 330 will be shortened 20 minutes, leaving Medford at 6:55 p. m. instead of 8:35 p. m. and arriving Portland at present 7:55 a. m.

Southbound schedule of train No. 329 will be set ahead, this train being consolidated with the West Coast between Portland and Eugene. Under the new schedule the train will leave Portland at 7:15 p. m. instead of 8:10 p. m. and arrive Medford at 8:50 a. m. instead of 9:10 a. m.

Southbound schedule of the Shasta will be unchanged, the train leaving here at 6:35 p. m.

WILKINS' PETITION CARRIES REQUIRED VOTER SIGNATURES

Nominating petitions of Attorney M. O. Wilkins of Ashland, as an independent candidate for district attorney, were certified to the secretary of state yesterday, by the county clerk's office. The first list of names submitted contains 264 names—seven more than required. A second petition, still to be checked with the county registration books, brings the total number of names to 582.

Some confusion occurred yesterday when it was discovered that the names secured in the Butte Falls, Eagle Point and Central Point district were secured by circulators, not themselves duly qualified voters. Attorney Wilkins informed the county

ASTORIA OFFICIAL AND GROCER FACE GRAND JURY QUIZ

ASTORIA, Ore., Aug. 3.—(AP)—Accused of attempting to bribe a police officer to "go easy" on liquor law enforcement, City Commissioner William Mannila and Joe Dimitroff, a grocer, were yesterday bound over to the Clatsop county grand jury. Mannila furnished the $2000 bond required, but Dimitroff, who has a police record on liquor charges, was unable to raise the money and was remanded to the custody of the sheriff.

Carl Wilson, city policeman, presented the only testimony offered at the preliminary hearing in justice court yesterday. He declared Mannila for a year has tried to influence him to prosecute certain liquor dealers and to protect others.

Wilson testified a trap was laid for the city commissioner in the home of Policeman Casper Letting who pretended to agree to "sell out." He said Chief of Police John Aiken and the Rev. E. Kosen, pastor of the Astoria Finnish Congregational church, listened at the other end of a dictaphone line, the transmitter of which was in the room in which Mannila, Dimitroff and the two officers were talking.

BONUS VETERANS WILL SEEK NEW CAMPING PLACE

a new national camp could not be established. He said formation of tent cities in each of the 48 states to house veterans from that state would do more good.

Some veterans at the Maryland camp, half way between Washington and Baltimore, could not wait for daybreak to get off the ground Governor Ritchie said they could not occupy, anyhow. And Doak Carter, Waters' representative at Johnston, so Waters' aides here said, promised to carry out orders evacuating all but Pennsylvanians from that camp.

Advices Home Trip.

Waters' surrender followed an unsuccessful effort to convince Ritchie that the veterans did have a right to use their new land in Maryland. First, the commander advised his men to "sit tight" while he made other plans. Then he told them to go home, promising that "a national organization" would furnish state camps and that "definite details will be announced in 10 days."

A coroner's jury found that Policemen George Ehnault and Miles Znamenezek "in defense" shot William J. Hushka of Chicago and Eric Carlson of Oakland, Cal., during last week's rioting.

Hushka was buried yesterday in Arlington national cemetery; Carlson may go there, too.

A further grand jury investigation of the whole affair—particularly to see if communists and radicals incited the fighting—drew new testimony today. Meanwhile, Havana Mackloodian of Chicago, the last of 15 men seized as radicals, was released.

Leo A. Rover, district attorney, said investigation disclosed Mackloodian had served time in Leavenworth during the World war as an alien enemy, but had been in this country too long for deportation.

TRUCK PURSUES FLEEING DRIVER

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Aug. 3.—(AP)—It appears to Ambrose Blerly that his truck is growing old and spiteful.

Blerly shut off the motor at a street intersection.

"When I cranked her up the darned critter took after me and chased me a half block before it knocked me down and ran over my legs," said Blerly.

"And even then it wasn't satisfied," added Blerly. "It turned around and came at me again, just a snortin'. Guess I'd have been done for if that old truck hadn't got sidetracked and run up against a concrete porch."

KINDLY RATTlers ALLOWED TO LIVE

BLACK MOUNTAIN, N. C., Aug. 3.—(AP)—Because they allowed themselves to be fondled instead of biting her two-year-old son, Mrs. Lillian Michael Ledbetter is going to keep two large rattlesnakes she found playing with the child.

Returning after a brief absence, she found the child seated on the ground with one rattler on his lap and another allowing itself to be petted as it lay on the ground beside him.

TIME GROWING SHORT FOR LEGION REGISTER

Only a short time remains for local Legionnaires to register for the national convention of the American Legion in Portland next month, and members of Medford post No. 15 are urged to do so at once.

This is the first time a national Legion convention has been held so close to home and scores of local veterans are planning to take advantage of the exceptional opportunity. Those who register now will receive registration cards entitling them to a series of entertainment features worth many times the $2 fee required. Registrations should be made with Lee Garlock at the A. A. office, or Ted Baker at the Chamber of Commerce.

SLEEP WALKER HAS FALL DURING DREAM

MORNING SUN, Ia., Aug. 3.—(AP)—Donald Foggemiller, farmer, had a bad dream and has four fractured ribs and a bruised face to prove it.

He went to bed after a hard day in the harvest fields, dreamed of climbing down from a threshing machine, and actually climbed out of a window on the second floor.

He woke up on a cement walk which broke his fall.
