

BUTTER CONTINUES ON STRONG BASIS IN TRADE CENTERS

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 4.—(AP)—Continued strength is indicated generally in the market for butter at practically all leading trade centers of the country. On the coast generally active trading is noted with prices well sustained at recent advances.

On the Produce Exchange the late session showed further strength, but the only price change was on advance of 1/16 lb. for prime first.

There was no general change noted in butterfat.

Market for eggs shows a very good undertone locally. Recent advance in the price is generally maintained. Cheese is showing a more active demand at the recent advance than previously.

Owing to the inability of the trade to find an outlet elsewhere for its occasional accumulations, the buying price on colored spring chickens is weaker and generally lower for the day.

While prices are still very low, there was a somewhat better undertone in the tomato trade for the day.

French prices are weak with fancy California Elbertas down to 65c a box for tree-ripened fruit. Local early varieties selling slowly 30-40c generally, with a few higher.

Slightly better real market is suggested. Late trading in fancy stuff has been around 8-8 1/2c lb. Hogs are not so good with an extreme of 8-8 1/2c lb. Demand for lambs is very active but ewes are quiet and yearlings nominally quoted around a nickel.

Full carload new crop sweet potatoes in: quoted 4 1/2c.

California figs are quoted around 75c box. This is for fresh stock.

Rabbits grapes have appeared from the south with initial price at $2.60 for lugs.

Cantaloupe prices are very low. Walla Walla onions are weaker and lower at a spread of 75-90c to retailers.

All fish prices, especially for salmon, are reported weaker.

WALKER VISITS MRS. AT HOSPITAL

Mayor James J. Walker of New York visited Mrs. Walker at a New York hospital where she is convalescing after a recent operation. Besides contributing cheery remarks the mayor wheeled Mrs. Walker across the roof of the hospital.

FATHER OF WIFE TAKES STAND IN BARNUM DIVORCE

The rebuttal of the plaintiff is expected to require the rest of the day and be directed in an effort to impeach vital points of the defense.

The cross-examination of Barnum lasted more than a day and resulted in a number of sharp interchanges between Attorney Charles Reames and Barnum.

Barnum this morning declared that he valued the two lots at Front and Fifth streets at $3500, and the lot and building where his machine shop is located at $4000. He said the machinery was worth about $5000 and

LYDA CHEERFUL ON RE-ENTRY TO BOISE, IDAHO, PEN

BOISE, Idaho, Aug. 4.—(AP)—Mrs. Lyda Southard, a colorful little woman in blue, stepped from the train today, dashed through a group of newspapermen and photographers and climbed into an automobile which carried her again to the prison from which she escaped 15 months ago to interrupt a sentence for the death of her fourth husband.

And 12 years after she was convicted of the murder and had listened to lurid details of the mysterious deaths of three other husbands, a brother-in-law and her three-year-old child, she said:

Sawmill Burns, Loss $100,000

STEVENSON, Wash., Aug. 4.—(AP)—With loss estimated by the owners at about $100,000, the Ryan-Allen Lumber company sawmill, and nearly a half million feet of cut lumber was destroyed by fire Wednesday. Insurance will cover part of the loss. A half hour after the fire started it had spread to all parts of the mill and to the docks where the lumber was piled.

TENNIS NETS ARE TAKEN AT SCHOOL

"I never felt I was guilty." A moment later she declared she was "genuinely relieved" to return to the prison from which she escaped May 4, 1931, two hours before midnight, to spend 15-months of freedom to marry again, to stir up another "mystery" over a death, and to play a part in bringing another man back to prison.

David Minton, allegedly confessed assistant in her escape, awaits in the local county jail the trial that may send him to prison again.

Brought from Topeka, Kas., where she was arrested last Saturday on a tip given by Minton, she was welcomed at the train by dozens of Boise residents who know of her mainly through the many news stories which have been written about her in the dozen years of her career.

An elderly woman pressed her hand, a half dozen women shouted "Hello, Lyda," as she sought the privacy of the prison automobile.

"Hello, everybody," she answered cheerily.

The oyster shell trade grew in volume from about $100,000 in 1918 to $2,000,000 in 1931.

Three tennis nets, valued at $25, were stolen from the tennis courts at the local junior high school Tuesday night, Supt. E. H. Hedrick said today. Descriptions of the nets have been turned over to city police, he said.

Co-operating with the park and public playgrounds committee of the city, the school has been following the policy of leaving the nets on the courts for the hundreds of players who visit the grounds from 4:30 in the morning until dark at night.

This is the first time any difficulties have been experienced with the property being stolen, Mr. Hedrick said.

One pen has been used by Herbert H. Cox to sign $24,000,000 in checks for the city of Knoxville, Tenn.

PROSPERITY HERE BY AUTUMN DAYS SAY BUSINESSMEN

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—(AP)—A declaration that business was on the upgrade and a prediction that prosperity would have a strong foothold by autumn came today from 1500 retailers and wholesalers in the Chicago area.

The optimistic sentiment was made public through a survey conducted by the Chicago Association of Credit men. Firms represented in the association do an annual business running high into the millions.

"Many of the firms interviewed," said J. P. O'Keefe, executive secretary of the association, "expressed a firm conviction that business reached its most serious stage in the three months' period just ended. They pointed out that merchandising stocks on retailers' shelves now are at the lowest point in history, that collections are improving, and that huge supplies of merchandise must be manufactured and sold to care for fall and winter buying."

Companies reporting in the survey included Chicago's large meat packing concerns, department stores, steel companies, drug concerns and manufacturers of scores of lines.

Crash Into Gorge Fatal for Driver

BEND, Ore., Aug. 4.—(AP)—Tom Coen, power company employe, died here today from injuries received yesterday when his automobile crashed over a steep embankment in the Crooked River gorge near Cove. He was driving up a steep grade overlooking the 1000-foot gorge when a wheel of his machine struck a rock and the car was thrown from the road. It rolled 700 feet down the steep incline.

Unable to start the car after they had robbed Thomas Weathers, Raleigh, N. C., taxi driver, bandits forced the driver to start the motor so they might escape.

FISHING ON COAST IS REPORTED GOOD

Reports from the Oregon coast today bring news of good fishing. Some good salmon catches have been made this week at Winchester Bay on McMahon and Reeker spoons and good trout fishing is reported in the same body of water with Doc Shelton brass No. 7 and Oregon 66, brass.

Lake Tahkenth anglers also report excellent catches of perch and large catfish on worm bait, but a slack in bass fishing.

From Wells Creek, up on the Umpqua, good trout fishing has been reported, on Bear Valley and Mildenbrand spinners. Excellent cutthroat angling can be had by going past the west branch of the main Smith river. Professor and Queen of the Water flies are recommended, with bait of crawfish.

Two tunnels under the Scheidt river, between Antwerp and Ste. Anne, Belgium, have been begun for completion in 1933.

About $12,500,000 will be spent for road construction in the Missouri Ozark region this year.
