Those present were: Betty Peake, Betty Evans, Lee Whitlock, Aifa Whitlock, Nona Hegland, Barbara Bevan, Phoebe Swann, Gretchen McAllister, Dorothy Terrett, Dorothy and Jacqueline Flynn.

SUICIDE PROPOSED FOR FIANCE SAYS FAMOUS AVIATRIX

MIAMI, Fla., Aug. 4.—(AP)—Mrs. Jessie M. Keith-Miller testified today at the murder trial of Captain W. N. Lancaster that she proposed suicide to Haden Clarke, her fiance, only a few hours before he was found fatally shot in her home.

Yesterday she said she and Clarke discussed mutual suicide several nights before the shooting, but did not mention the subject again.

She said her suicide suggestion was made after Clarke told her of a conversation he had with Lancaster, her former fiance, regarding their proposed marriage. She quoted Clarke as saying "I can't stand it any longer. I am going crazy."

She said they had agreed in conversation earlier in the evening that it would be necessary to postpone her wedding to Clarke until after Clarke's divorce decree became final.

Under examination by James M. Carson, chief of defense counsel, she described as "highly cordial" Lancaster's attitude toward her and Clarke when the British flier came hurriedly to Miami from St. Louis on learning Clarke had succeeded him in her affections.

Lake of Woods in Miniature

A beautiful window display, a Lake of the Woods in miniature, prepared by Tom Swann, is attracting much attention at the chamber of commerce today.

The forest and cabins, painted into the background, are so realistic they invite all who have been there to call again and extend an equally hearty invitation to those who have not.

A clear lake, occupied by sailboats, raft and landing, with here and there a vacationist, fills the front of the window. The lodge is represented in wood, and rocks and moss appear at the bottom of the artificial lake in convincing forms and colors.

MILADY'S STOCKINGS BEAR NAMES LINKED WITH OUTLAW DRINK

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—(AP)—"Yes, we have 'Creme de Menthe' and would madame care for a 'Martini' also?"

If one should hear such conversation from behind a counter in one of the city's largest department stores, it only means that feminine hosiery is the topic.

For that's the way stockings are now being sold on State street.

Translated, "Creme de Menthe" is cool mint green mesh hosiery and "Martini" is sunny yellow. Other formerly well known beverage names designate other various pastel colored hosiery, which is a smart mid-summer fashion.

And on the hosiery counters is another brand new idea—undies for the feet.

They resemble the foot part of a stocking, and are woven in silk in snug foot-fitting fashion.

They are designed for wear with sandals when hose are not worn.

My Beauty Hint

EVALYN KNAPP
After a hard day's work or several hours of nervous tension, one's face first shows the strain. Either the muscles about the mouth tighten up, or they droop.

Here is my secret for counteracting that condition: I first cleanse my face with good cream, remove it with a soft cloth, and then apply a greater cream.

Then, lying in a restful position, I smooth gently the tired muscles of my face and, placing the index finger at the upper center of my lip and the thumb and middle finger at each corner, rub firmly upward toward the corner of the nose.

The result is a healthy, happy mouth.

CULINARY CRAFT....

By Estella Dorgan, Director of Home Service, California Oregon Power Co.

"Flavored With Apricot."

Within the last few years apricot-pineapple marmalade has come to share with orange marmalade the favorite position on the breakfast table. And the flavor of apricots has gradually grown in popularity so that now some of our favorite recipes begin with "Apricot," such as apricot chiffon pie, apricot upside-down cake, apricot ice cream, apricot dainty, etc.

The marmalade mentioned above makes a delicious dressing for plain ice cream, puddings or cake and as should be provided in generous quantities at this season for many uses in the months to come.

Apricot Pineapple Marmalade.

4 cups apricot pulp
3 1/2 cups sugar
1 cup pineapple, small pieces and juice.

Mix the fruit, which is cut in small pieces but not peeled, with the pineapple and sugar and boil rapidly until thick in a large kettle which allows rapid evaporation. Pour into sterilized jars and seal.

Apricot Jam (Pectin).

3 1/2 cups ripe apricots
7 cups sugar
1/2 cup liquid pectin.

Put fruit through food chopper and measure with sugar into a large kettle. Bring to a boil for one minute, stirring constantly before and while boiling. Remove from heat and add the liquid pectin. Skim and pour quickly into sterilized glasses. Cover the hot jam with paraffin lightly and again when cool.

Apricot Dainty.

2 cups cooked apricots
1 cup diced marshmallows
1/2 cup shredded coconut
1/4 t. almond extract.

Apricot Chiffon Pie.

3 egg yolks
1 cup sugar
1 T. flour
3 T. hot water
1/4 t. salt
3 egg whites, beaten
4 T. apricot pulp (or marmalade)
1/2 cup sugar (1/4 c. if using sweetened fruit)

1/2 t. baking powder.
Cook the first five ingredients in double boiler until thick, then add the second group and pour into a baked pie shell and bake at 350 deg. until set—about 20 minutes.

MISSOURI FAVORS WET FOR SENATE

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 4.—(AP)—Missouri will elect a wet United States senator next November.

Both Bennett C. Clark, who won the Democratic nomination, and Henry W. Kiel, selected by the Republicans, in Tuesday's primary, are outspoken opponents of prohibition.

Clark, son of the late Champ Clark, speaker of the house, maintained a plurality of 40,000 or more over his nearest opponent, Charles M. Howell.

Clark, a war veteran, was one of the founders of the American Legion at the Paris caucus in 1919. He was making a bid for his first elective public office.

Charles M. Hay, endorsed by the Anti-Saloon League, was running third for senator in the Democratic race. In his campaign he promised to vote for reestablishment.

"No war is a holy war," this declaration said, "nor is any crime justifiable, but Paraguay must resort to heroic, tragic violence to save her own life."

The government has set up a commission to prevent speculation in foodstuffs.

PERICO, Argentina, Aug. 4.—(AP)—Bolivia plans to have 11,000 troops in the Chaco region in a few days. General Mariscal Pando, commander of the fourth division, said today on his arrival at Yacubta, near this border town.

There are now 6000 well-trained men in the trouble area, he said, and he passed 166 trucks filled with equipment and materials on their way to the "war" zone.

Bolivian military officials denied that airplanes had bombed the foreign mennonite colony in the Chaco and they scoffed at Paraguayan reports that Bolivian troops were deserting and crossing the border.

LUX for stockings

2 minutes a day keeps them like new

*The LUX way to make stockings wear

DO YOU know why the Lux way of washing doubles stocking wear? It's because Lux is made to preserve elasticity. That's the "live" quality that makes stockings give under strain. Stretch and then spring right back again. If you wash away elasticity, then the delicate threads break under strain, starting ruinous runs. Or they sag, causing wrinkles, snaky seams!

Just toss your stockings in Lux suds each night and see how beautifully they always fit and what a long time they wear!

"It's too quaint the way Beth gets runs in her stockings"

"Wouldn't you think she'd learn the right way of washing?"
