

INDIANS RUN WILD AGAINST MISSIONS FOR 23 TO 3 WIN

(By the Associated Press.)

One of those cloudbursts of runs, which happen now and then in baseball when batters reign supreme at the expense of pitchers, occurred in San Francisco Thursday as the Seattle Indians ran wild against the Missions, to win, 23 to 3.

Herman Pilleite, the Reds' starting pitcher, was yanked in the second inning after Seattle had scored six times. Chamberlain was next, lasting until the seventh, and Chamberlain finished. The Indians made 18 runs the last four frames. The Missions got 15 hits off Hal Haid, but as in Wednesday's game, had difficulty in turning them into runs.

Earl McNeely, who replaced the veteran John (Buddy) Ryan as manager of the Sacramento club, started out with a victory over Hollywood, 5 to 3. The Senators won a three-run rally in the eighth. Jimmy DeShong held the Stars to six hits while his teammates pounded Frank Shellenback for 11.

Oakland made three runs off three hits in the seventh inning to defeat the Seals, 4 to 3, and checked a San Francisco attack in the ninth, after two runs were made.

Los Angeles humbled the league-leading Portland Ducks, 10 to 2, in celebration of the 22nd birthday of Outfielder Tuck Stainback. Hal Sittler's pitching kept the northerners at bay most of the evening, while the Angels hammered Bowman and Jacobs for 17 hits.

HINDENBURG FIST OVER HITLERITES

BERLIN, Germany, Aug. 5.—(AP)—The soldier fist of Germany's octogenarian president, Field Marshal Paul von Hindenburg, poised today over Adolf Hitler's national socialist storm troops and other organizations which have participated in the last six weeks of bloody riots.

Newspapers said the aged president, after a long cabinet session yesterday, was prepared to strike with the full force unless the riots stopped immediately.

Hitler's Nazi circles issued a half warning, half threat, against such action, declaring discipline was now being maintained but that if heavy-handed measures were taken it would be impossible to make guarantees.

TRUCE SEEN NEAR IN SOUTH AMERICA

BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 5.—(AP)—A belief that a truce between Paraguay and Bolivia in the quarrel over the Gran Chaco is near, was expressed officially today.

The truce, it was said, would be pending new negotiations for a complete settlement of the controversy which already has been the subject of intervention by the League of Nations and a group of 19 western hemisphere nations, including the United States.

Foreign Minister Saverio Lamas of Argentina said that while Argentina was ready to proclaim neutrality if hostilities began, he was certain it would not be necessary.

STARS TO SHOOT THURSDAY NIGHT

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—(AP)—The best opportunity in several years to see brilliant shooting stars comes Thursday night, August 11, after midnight.

The annual shower of Perseid meteors is due that night, with possibilities that it may strike the night before or after. Expectations of a bigger show this year are not based on more meteors but on less interference by moonlight. The moon will set about midnight August 11.

Cash Bonus Offer Interested Women In Farms

ANGORA, Turkey.—(AP)—Although Turkish peasant women have tilled the soil and done the work of a man for centuries, Melahat Hanim is the first Turkish city woman to be interested in agriculture.

She is the only woman enrolled in the Agricultural School of Angora, which has recently been reopened. The teachers have been called from Germany and German methods are taught.

In summer the students are given practical training on the Gezi model farm, where they are provided with bed and food plus $25. Thus it pays to be interested in agriculture in the Turkey of Kemal, and already a number of young girls are applying for enrollment next year.

CHOCOLATE KID ANNEXES CHAMPIONSHIP AT LAST

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 5.—(AP)—Kid Chocolate, Cuba's boxing tidbit, today had caught up with victory and with his first championship belt.

The "Kid" came into possession of the junior lightweight title some time since, but no belt was his until General John W. Cunningham fastened one about him in the Chicago stadium last night, after he had belted Eddie Shea, Chicago Italian, all about the ring to win a 10-round decision in defense of his title. His last bout resulted in a widely disputed decision defeat by Jackie (Kid) Berg in New York.

Shea, a game, dogged puncher, had little chance against Chocolate, who started in the second round to waste him with every blow in the catalogue—including a couple of low one. In the third a low left hook dropped Shea for a count of eight, and Chocolate, realizing his guilt, made no effort to land a blow for the remainder of the round.

Chocolate speeded up in the fourth and from there on Shea spent a good share of the time trying to find out where all the punches were coming from, and with little success. The Chicagoan rallied in the ninth, but his brief flurry failed to keep the decision of the referee and two judges from being unanimous.

About 5000 spectators watched the show.

SPORT SLANTS

ALAN GOULD ASSOCIATED PRESS SPORTS EDITOR

It has, indeed, been warfare in and around the big leagues this year. With fists, knives and guns brought into "play," the hazards of the baseball business have become greater than ever. The life of a major leaguer now seems more subject to violence than aggressiveness.

Before the season began in the American league, Big Ed Morris of the Red Sox pitching staff was fatally stabbed at a farewell party given in his honor.

There have, fortunately, been no more fatalities, but Jimmie George Moriarty emerged from a brawl with the White Sox players quite damaged, and Catcher Bill Dickey of the Yankees subsequently landed a jaw-cracking blow upon the lower maxillary of Outfielder Carl Reynolds of the Washington club.

The shooting of Bill Gering, Cub infielder, by an excited girl friend furnishes the latest episode in the record of violence.

If this sort of thing keeps up, the players will have a few more arguments to produce against any further reductions in salary, unless double indemnity clauses are inserted in the contracts.

LONDON'S 'DORA' GOING MODERN

LONDON.—(AP)—"Dora," class of '14, was a shy miss, full of repression and suppressed desire.

"Dora" is a red hot mamma, given to cocktails after midnight and no sleep till morn.

The letters of the old Dora's name stood for "Defense of the Realm Act," which decided that public houses must close by 10 o'clock and that no restaurants could sell wine after midnight.

The old Dora was not popular, but she was understood to be patriotic and intent upon helping win the war, so Britons, being gentlemen, put up with her.

The letters of young Dora's name stand for "Defense of Rights and Amusements," which is the name of a society just inaugurated to persuade parliament to do something about Old Dora.

At a dinner opening the society's campaign recently, the Countess of Oxford and Asquith received the guests.

FIND ALL-BRAN HAS TWICE THE USABLE IRON IN LIVER

Also Furnishes "Bulk" and Vitamin B to Overcome Common Constipation

Liver is known as a good source of iron for the blood. Now, new tests show Kellogg's ALL-BRAN contains twice as much blood-building iron as an equal amount by weight of beef liver.

But more important still, laboratory experiments show ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and Vitamin B to tone the intestinal tract.

This means Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is a fine way to overcome constipation—with the headaches, loss of appetite and energy that so frequently result.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. Inside the body, it absorbs moisture, forming a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes. Special cooking processes make ALL-BRAN finer, milder, more palatable.

How much better than raking pills and drugs—so often habit-forming. Just eat two tablespoonfuls of ALL-BRAN daily for most types of constipation. It is not habit-forming. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

M'COY DIRECTING ATHLETIC HOE ON FARM FOR HENRY

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 5.—(AP)—One of Henry Ford's payrolls includes this entry:

"Norman Selby, age 59, farmhand." And that tells the story that Kid McCoy, ex-champion pugilist, ex-millinaire, ex-convict, has become a man with a hoe. Here's how it came about:

When McCoy became eligible for parole from San Quentin some weeks ago after serving nearly eight years for killing his sweetheart, the parole authorities required that he have a job.

Harry Bennett, chief of the Ford Motor company service department, a friend of other days, guaranteed employment and then went on a fishing trip.

The word got around that McCoy was to be the Ford company's "athletic director," and Bennett being everybody, including McCoy, let it stand at that.

This week Bennett came back to town. "What do you want to do?" "Anything," said McCoy. "I don't expect any favors. I migrated for what's been done for me already."

"Would you like something athletic?" asked Bennett. "Sure" smiled the kid. "That's my language."
