ARMORY KITCHEN WILL BE CENTER RELIEF CANNING

Moving steadily forward on their program for conservation of food in connection with the plan of the Jackson County Council for Relief of the Unemployed, members of the women's division, headed by Mrs. A. E. Reames, today announced that the Medford Armory kitchen has been obtained for canning of foods to be exchanged for labor.

The Armory board has agreed to grant use of the kitchen to the relief committee, Captain C. Y. Tengwald reported earlier in the day. Work is expected to start at the kitchen as soon as products and canning equipment, such as jars, which are much needed, can be secured.

R. G. Fowler, county agent, is preparing a list today, making a survey of the county at large to check on surplus products which may be available for exchange of products, requested from other counties. A message has been received from the Klamath county agent, asking what products are available here in exchange for potatoes.

Mrs. V. L. Sexton, better known to the cooking world as Foster Heath, famous for conducting of cooking schools, will supervise and direct the canning and preparation of relief foods.

If there are any families in the community, which have fruit or other food stuff, which they desire to conserve for the winter, but have not the jars, sugar and necessary equipment for canning, they may be telephoning Mrs. Sexton at 201-B of Mrs. Reames at 632, it may be possible to arrange for assistance by an exchange of labor for material, it was also announced today.

Growers who have any surplus fruit or vegetables, which may not meet commercial requirements, are urged to offer such produce for community use.

Contrary to opinion coming to light today, no canning has been done, and canned foods will not be distributed at this time, but placed in the commissary or store house to be occupied in the near future for distribution to members of the labor, who will pay for it in unemployment relief.

A basis of exchange will be determined in the very near future. The work of the conservation committee is strictly allied with the unemployment relief program. The county court, through the secretary, Victor Tengwald, is co-operating by keeping a complete record of the unemployed, giving in detail the qualifications of the would-be workers, as well as their needs. Since last Monday Mr. Tengwald has registered 1175 members of the unemployed. This total does not include the 2317, who were registered prior to this season.

TENGWALD TALKS OF BONUS ARMY AT KIWANIS CLUB

Carl Y. Tengwald, past commander of the Medford post of the American Legion, addressed the Kiwanis club at luncheon today at the Hotel Medford, explaining his attitude toward the bonus army, which recently passed through the city.

"The American people," Mr. Tengwald stated, "cannot permit any organization to promote legislation by means of the demands made by the bonus army. And I feel that 99 per cent of the ex-service men in the country are opposed to such methods."

"I have been an advocate of payment of the bonus," Mr. Tengwald further stated, "because of the benefits to result from release of the money at this time, but I feel that the methods of the bonus army are the wrong methods, and will gain nothing. If the government doesn't want to give the money to us now, we'll wait for it."

B. M. Downie of Portland, a Legionnaire and a member of the Kiwanis club, was a guest at the luncheon and when called upon, informed the club members that the nation has turned the corner toward better times, but "the only way to get there is by way of the Kiwanis motto, 'We Build.' If we want to get back again where we were a few years ago, we must work and attend to our own business."

Victor Tengwald, also a guest at the luncheon, explained the record by playing and singing his own composition, "Crater Lake Waltz," and reported upon the number of unemployed registered in Jackson county.

BAR ASSOCIATION SHOCKED BY PLAN TO KNIFE NORTON

(Continued from Page One.) a recall and in my opinion the attempt at recall has evidently been initiated by some disgruntled author. "Certainly no reputable lawyer is behind any such vague and defective petition. This firm's cases against us and we feel that he has made some mistakes, but when we have gone out of his court, we have always carried the conviction that his opinions were honest, sincere convictions on his part, of both the law and the facts."

"I consider Judge Norton one of the ablest circuit judges in the state of Oregon. The business in his court has been conducted in the open and never behind closed doors. He has brought to the bench a broad experience as a consulting and trial lawyer and he made no inconsiderable sacrifice in accepting the position. He is a tireless worker and gives long hours to the careful consideration of the matters before him and above all he has a fine judicial temperament and has always been kind and tolerant with both litigants and lawyers."

"In my opinion the people of this district are extremely fortunate in the possession of one of the highest class judicial officers in the state and any recall against him will surely meet with overwhelming defeat."
