ANGRY CLASHES SHOWED SENATE TEMPERS SHORT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9. - (AP) - The President and Mrs. Hoover are receiving considerable pleasure now.

There was a time, for example, when Joe Robinson of Arkansas turned on the portly spectacled Hatfield of West Virginia.

Violent disagreements between senators are nothing new. Scarcely a day passes while they are in session but that someone, somehow gets into a tangle with a colleague.

But it is a rare occurrence for them to engage in personalities. No matter how worked up they may become or how hot they get at each other.
