

FOOD CONSERVING COMMITTEE NAMED FOR LOCAL RELIEF

Mrs. Donald Clark, appointed chairman of the food conservation committee by Mrs. A. E. Reames, chairman of the women's division of the Jackson County Unemployment Relief council, took over the duties of her position yesterday, and has named as other members of her committee Mrs. Mabel Mack, county home demonstration agent, and Mrs. V. L. Sexton, home economist.

Acting on sub-committees will be Mrs. Glen Fawcett for milk distribution; Mrs. J. C. Heyland, president of the Medford Parent-Teachers council, who will be concerned with hot lunches in local schools; Mrs. A. C. Harding of Trail, county chairman of Parent-Teachers council, whose activities will center around rural schools for hot lunches, and R. O. Fowler, county agricultural agent, who will supervise the fresh meat department.

Work will begin today in conservation of food donations when Mrs. Clark's committee will can 300 pounds of apricots, donated by George Alford of Phoenix. Mrs. Sexton will direct the canning and drying of fruits and vegetables at the Army, and will be in charge of today's canning activities.

Two hundred pounds of beans were donated by a rancher, who preferred to withhold his name. Over 900 pounds of beans were salted in barrels Tuesday at the party given by Mrs. McCaskey at her home on the Old Stage road. These beans will also be donated the unemployment relief commissary.

Miss Charibel Nye, state home extension worker, is issuing an appeal to every individual in the state to realize his duty to conserve all surplus foodstuffs.

In a letter to Mrs. A. E. Reames, women's county chairman, Miss Nye urged that the attention of every individual in Jackson county be directed to the duty of permitting no foodstuff to go to waste, and suggests that buying be resorted to in the absence of jars or other containers.

As the need arises, the county will thus be ready to assist in supplying its commissary with needed food during the winter months. This would also make more readily available possible financial aid from county funds in extreme cases where food does not easily conserved must be supplied.

It is also suggested that should other counties wish to exchange any of their food surplus, Jackson county, through its individual plan of food conservation, could quickly assemble such foodstuffs as dried fruits and vegetables.

The committee members have expressed the hope that no one will feel that there is plenty and that they need not cooperate in this virtual war emergency duty, but that every person will do his part, no matter how small his contribution, toward the county's welfare.

Mrs. Clark, whose telephone is 301-J-3, will now receive all information concerning donations of foodstuffs and canning materials, and will arrange for the collection of any such if it is not convenient to leave it at the Boy Scout headquarters. Until the work of conserving foods is of sufficient volume to require all day work, the Army kitchen will be open only at the discretion of Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Sexton, so it is important that those contemplating gifts of fruits, vegetables and meats notify Mrs. Clark.

Mrs. David Rosenberg has accepted the responsibility of providing the motor corps and will see that fruit jars, sugar, jars of rubbers in any number are called for, as well the foodstuffs.

The following women will call: Mrs. Frank Farrell, Mrs. Floyd Hart, Mrs. Halbert Deuel, Mrs. John Mann, Mrs. C. M. Brewer, Mrs. Hamilton Patton, Mrs. Rupert J. Henry, Mrs. Ralph Bardwell.

RUSTLER QUARTET WILL ADMIT GUILT

The quartette of youthful cattle thieves, who yesterday confessed the theft, slaughter and sale of eight head of calves in the Trail district, have expressed a willingness to enter a plea of guilty, and the assigned before Circuit Judge H. D. Norton, within the next few days, according to officers. All made detailed statements of their rustling operations in the past two months.

Kirch Felle and Oris Goble, of Trail, are held on two counts, under bonds of $2000 each, and Tyrus Beck of Medford and Victor Goble, are held on one count, with bonds at $1000 each. They are charged with larceny of livestock. From 1 to 10 years in state prison, or from three months to one year in the county jail, or a fine of not more than $1000 is provided as penalties.

ASHCRAFT HEADS ASHLAND LEGION

ASHLAND, Aug. 11.—(Sp.)—Perry L. Ashcraft was last night elected commander of Ashland Post No. 14, and will direct affairs of the Legion during the coming year. He will be assisted by O. F. Bromley-Johnson Wedding Wednesday. Leading in interest events on the week's social calendar was the marriage yesterday afternoon of Mrs. Hazel Bebb Bromley and T. Slater Johnson of this city, solemnized at a quiet ceremony at the Methodist Episcopal church parsonage by the Rev. Alexander O. Bennett at 4:30 o'clock.

Following the service the Johnsons continued to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Corbin Edgell, then to their summer place on Rogue river, where they will spend the season.

Both are well-known members of local society with many friends among members of the ranch colony. Mrs. Johnson is the daughter of Mrs. J. H. White of this city and a niece of Miss Mary A. Mee of Central Point.

Mr. Johnson is one of the valley's most prominent orchardists and sportsmen. He came to the Rogue River valley from Rochester, N. Y., where his mother still resides.

He is a member of the Yale club, having graduated from the eastern university in 1910, a member of the Bohemian club and of the 29th street club of New York.

ELLENSBURG TO LOSE N. P. DIVISION SHOPS

SEATTLE, Aug. 11.—(P)—Transfer of its division terminal from Ellensburg to Yakima was announced by the Northern Pacific railway here today. H. F. Stevens, vice-president in charge of operations, in notifying W. E. Conan, vice-president in Seattle, of the change, said it would involve an expenditure of $225,000 at Yakima for a roundhouse, cooling station, water station and trackage sufficient to handle the terminal business.

DONKEY CARRIES GOLDEN SECRET

BOISE, Idaho, Aug. 11.—(AP)—A donkey akin to the one which discovered the rich Bunker Hill and Sullivan mine in the Coeur d'Alenes of north Idaho, now has the secret of a gold deposit locked in his head—at least his owner, Bill Stroup, of Boise, believes just that.

Placer mining on Smith's creek, near Smith Prairie, Stroup heard the burro poking among the rocks on the hillside in search of grass when the animal precipitated a small slide of rock. One boulder splashed into the creek near Stroup. Casually he examined the rock, then was startled he related, to see it flecked with gold.

Since then he has combed the hillside, fruitlessly, trying to locate the ledge from which the donkey kicked the rock.

My Beauty Hint

EVERY woman wants to keep her hair fluffy and beautiful and here is how I learned to do it. My hairdresser told me not to wash my hair too frequently as it would take the life out of it. So now I dip my hair in cleaning fluid every other day while I am working.

It works fine; keeps it soft and fluffy. I just put my head in the wash bowl and have the cleaner poured over it. It dries in a very short time.

EVERYONE THINKS HE'S DRY OFFICER; REASON TOTTERS

ASHLAND, Aug. 11.—(Special) Obsessed with the idea that everyone believes him to be a prohibition officer, and ready to defend himself with any weapon within reach, a man whose name is said to be H. E. Karnes is being held in the city jail here, awaiting word from his relatives as to further action in his case.

The man, according to Police Chief Chas. W. Clause, is evidently demented. He was taken into custody yesterday when he created a scene in a local business house. He acted so peculiarly that a physician was summoned, those observing him believing him to be ill. When Dr. C. A. Haines attempted to examine the man he became violent and sought to attack the physician with a hammer which he apparently had been carrying as a weapon.

Police were called and the man was found to be carrying a vicious looking hunting knife in addition to the hammer which had been taken away from him.

In a cell in the city jail the man raves and rages, fearful because of his belief that everyone is mistaken in believing him a prohibition officer. The man arrived in Ashland on a train Wednesday—rushed into the telegraph office at the S. P. station and sent a message to Mrs. F. N. Foley at Burlingame, Cal., stating he needed help. A return wire yesterday morning asked him to send details back. Officers have wired Mrs. Foley to learn what she desires done with her brother.
