

Local and Personal

To Crater Lake—E. H. Colburn of Livermore, Cal., arrived in Medford yesterday en route to Crater lake.
Guest in Medford—Mrs. Jacob Line of Findlay, Ohio, is the guest in Medford of Miss Anna Deisewiler.
From Ashland—Mrs. Blanche O'Neill and Mrs. A. C. Nimsinger were among the Ashland visitors in Medford Tuesday.
From Butte Falls—Claude "Shorty" Miles of Butte Falls, who operates a ranch in that area, was a business visitor in Medford this morning.
Move to Talent—Mrs. R. A. Barker and family moved this week from Medford to a country home at Talent.
From Distance—Frank Howe of Chicago was an overnight guest at a hotel here, as was Mrs. F. J. Briegel and Stewart-Briegel of Olds, Canada.
At Elliott Cabin—Mrs. Frank Ray of this city, accompanied by her daughter Deloris, is a guest today at the B. R. Elliott cabin at Shady Cove.
Leave for Portland—Professor and Mrs. F. L. Kennedy of Cambridge, Mass., left by train last evening for Portland, having visited Crater lake for a day.
From Glendale—D. C. Harris of Glendale, Ore., roadmaster for the Southern Pacific company, is in Medford today attending to business matters.
Delzell Visits Here—Tom Delzell arrived in the city yesterday from Kinmath Falls and left today for Roseburg to transact business for the California Oregon Power company, of which he is representative.
Motorists Here—Among motorists registering their cars yesterday were N. D. Wingfield of Reno, Nev., A. R. Gates of Glencoe, Ill., James C. Foreman of Metropolis, Ill., and Roy L. Bevans of Minno, Okla.
Washingtonians—Besides Mr. and Mrs. Manther of Olympia, the hotel guests from Washington included Mr. and Mrs. Sam Summers, Oscar Rosenquest, H. C. Moore, Fred W. Schultz and T. F. Minahan.
To Valley Points—Luther Stewart of Yakima, Wash., who arrived here by motor yesterday, registered his car at the out-of-state bureau on South Riverside avenue. He listed his Oregon destination as Ashland. Guy T. Campbell, who also registered, was en route to Phoenix, his Oregon destination.

Leaves by Train—Mrs. Harvey Kendall of Chicago, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. William McKay, left last evening by train.
Captain Down in City—Captain Lee Bown of the Oregon state police was attending to business matters in Grants Pass Tuesday.—Grants Pass Daily Courier.
Returns to Medford—Clifford Sparlin returned Tuesday to Medford, after spending Monday in Grants Pass with relatives and friends.—Grants Pass Daily Courier.
Bitter in Town—Hugh Ritter of Big Elk ranger station was a business visitor in Medford today, calling at the offices of the Rogue River national forest.
Has Pneumonia—Sam Colton of the Office Supply is in the Community hospital, receiving treatment for a severe cold, which threatens to grow into pneumonia. It was reported at the hospital this afternoon.
Marriage License—A marriage license was obtained at the clerk's office here yesterday by Carl E. Mieske, 23, of Cottonwood, Cal., and Clara M. Johnson, 20, of Redding. He listed his occupation as barbering.
Expected Home—Lee Bishop, well known announcer and business manager of the radio station here, is expected back the latter part of the week from Des Moines, Iowa, where he is spending his vacation visiting relatives.
Guests of Mrs. Croft—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schuman of Modesto, Cal., are guests here of Mrs. Lucile Croft at her home on South Central. They plan to spend about a week in the valley and will visit Crater lake and other points of interest.
Miss Law Here—Miss Winifred Law is a guest here from California of her sister, Mrs. Rena Collier of Medford and of her mother at her home in the Willow Springs district. She will return to San Francisco to accept a nursing position, following her visit here.

To Crater Lake—Mrs. Thomas J. Allen of Hot Springs national park, Arkansas, arrived in the city on the Shasta this morning to visit at Crater Lake. She was met at the station by Ranger Frank Solsinsky. Mrs. Allen's husband is superintendent of Hot Springs national park. She plans to spend several days at the lake.
Injured in Accident—Miss Jeanette Hutchings of Talent received a cut on her leg below the knee in an automobile accident which happened Sunday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock at the junction of the Pacific and Redwood highways. She was riding in a car with Oliver Newton Wilson of 104 King street, Medford.—Grants Pass Courier.
Richardson Here—O. C. Richardson, in charge of the Pacific Air Transport planes in this area, was a visitor in Medford yesterday and today, enjoying a fishing trip along the Rogue with a group of aviators. In the party was Ralph Virden, diminutive transport pilot, who managed to save his new fishing pole but lost his Panama hat and ruined three good cigars during the afternoon.
Has Fractured Arm—George Davis, farmer, is in the Sacred Heart hospital, receiving treatment for a severe fracture of his right arm. Davis was sawing wood with a motor equipped saw yesterday when something went wrong with the motor. He endeavored to remedy matters and got the belt too tight. When it started operating again the wheel flew off and struck him with sufficient force to break his arm.

Arrives in City—Miss Anne Gordon of Tacoma arrived in Medford on the Shasta last evening from Tacoma, to spend a week or two here, vacationing with the S. M. Tuttle. Miss Gordon's father, Jack Gordon, is manager of the Standard Oil company in that city.
Visits in City—George Love, former state commander of the American Legion, was a business visitor in Medford Monday. Mr. Love is well known here, having been state commander at the time the American Legion convention was held in Medford.
Bromley Returns—H. L. Bromley, advertising manager of the Copco and Mountain States power companies, returned Monday morning from Los Angeles, where he attended the Olympic games and visited relatives. He was accompanied on the trip by his son Bobbie.
Many from Portland—The list of Portlanders at the hotels include L. C. Hampson, E. L. Barry, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Green, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hilditch, D. W. Landis, F. A. Christopher, F. M. Dinsdale, B. S. Homes, H. E. Lounsbury, W. K. Cundiff, J. T. Wallace, B. F. Baird, Budd C. Long, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hinnecutt, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Conger, L. W. Gamble, H. L. George and A. G. Fries.
Arrive in City—From various California points, travelers arrived in this city to register their cars at the out-of-state bureau on South Riverside. The group giving Medford as their destination included from California: R. J. Baumberger of Suisun, A. Redden of South Gate, Merna I. Barton of Pasadena, Ray S. Camp of Springfield, Mrs. Fred Patching of Glendale, F. D. Wells of Los Angeles, G. P. Blisten of Lindsay and P. J. Green of Orange. Rex Y. Yamashita of Seattle also gave his destination as Medford.

Smashes Finger—Louise Wheeler, employe of the Pinnacle Packing Plant, received a smashed finger this morning in a minor accident at the plant. She was receiving treatment at a local physician's office.
License to Wed—A license to wed was issued yesterday by the county clerk's office to Blair E. Eddy, 31, of Colfax, Cal., in Placer county, and Anita Isabel Wallace, 20, also of that place. Eddy stated that he was employed with the Pacific Gas and Electric company, and Miss Wallace is a beauty operator.

MANY ATTEND GATES FORD AUTO DISPLAY
Tuesday was the first day of the C. E. Gates Auto company open air show, showing the new Ford V-8, and according to C. E. Gates the crowd numbered about 1000 before the display lot was closed at 11 p. m. in the evening. Mr. Gates also stated that 51 demonstrations were given and that he expected there would be that many, if not more, the second day.
At a late hour today the crowd had numbered 1700 and more interested people continued to come to the show. The crowd, according to Mr. Gates, seemed to be especially interested in the taking picture of the new model, which is shown in conjunction with the display of the V-8 model.

UNION PACIFIC OFFICIALS VISIT
W. K. Cundiff, general passenger agent, H. E. Lounsbury, general freight agent of Portland and Ernest S. Farrell, traveling freight and passenger agent of Eugene are in Medford today on business for the Union Pacific system. While here the officials will confer with Rogue River valley shippers and business men of this city. The recent change in schedule of the Southern Pacific trains through Medford gives the 9:05 northbound train a convenient connection with the Union Pacific's famous Rose train. The Shasta arrives in Portland at 8:20 p. m., and the Chicago-bound Rose leaves at 9:35 p. m., arriving in Chicago at 8:45 o'clock on the third morning.
Sixty-five thousand Portland people inspected the crack Union Pacific train, "Portland Rose," when this speedy service was initiated to Chicago, according to Mr. Cundiff. The famous train gives Portland considerable publicity through the middle states and is considered by experienced travelers as the last word in luxurious transportation.

Vaudeville Scores Hit Holly Crowds
Those wishing to see the big vaudeville bill at the Holly theater are reminded that this bill is showing there for the last times today. Large and enthusiastic audiences greeted the opening day performances and everyone was well pleased with the show. The acts are all big time acts and are composed of groups that have appeared in the largest houses in the country. The Iacolucci Quartet was particularly outstanding. Eddie Vine and brother, Al and Louise Rudack, the Rhythm Girls and Westerlund and Nickerson are all big time acts and present a show that is superior to anything seen in Medford for a long time.
Starting at the Holly tomorrow is "The Jewell Robbery," which features Kay Francis and William Powell. This is the first time for years that these two have appeared together and the result is a gay, snappy and spicy picture. This picture will be at the Holly the balance of the week.
Modern Decoration For Beauty Shop
In modernistic and feminine effects combined, the Medford Beauty Shop at 118 North Central avenue is being remodeled by Martin Selton in colors of old ivory, yellow and black. New equipment is also being installed.
Mr. St. Johns, hair sculptor, who has been associated with some of Portland's leading beauty shops, will be in charge of the hair cutting. It was announced.
The public will be invited to meet Mr. St. Johns and inspect the shop on Friday.

LIONS APPLAUD HOLLY QUARTET
The Iacolucci quartet, consisting of piano accordion, three violins and Joe Vine, tenor, accompanied by Miss Travis at the piano, entertained the Lions club at luncheon today noon at the Hotel Holland. The entertainers are appearing today at the Holly theater and received repeated applause from the Lions.
Harry Moore of the Association of the Unemployed voiced an appeal in behalf of the association for the buying of scrip to be sold by the unemployed committee, beginning Friday of this week.
James Hall, movie star, scheduled to appear at the luncheon, did not arrive in the city in time to keep the appointment.
Phone 542. We'll haul away your refuse. City Sanitary Service.

Jigger Released On Fight Charge
F. E. Jigger was found not guilty in the charges of assault and battery filed against him by V. F. Wilson, following an encounter between the two a short time ago at Rogue River. Jigger, who resides on the Wilson place there, has refused to move at the request of the owner, according to the testimony, and a case is now in circuit court asking Jigger's removal. The battle followed a verbal encounter.
When needing duplicating sales books, flat-packs or fan-fold cash register forms, ledger sheets for book keeping machines or any other kind of printing, don't order from out-of-town firms and pay more. Phone 75 and one of our representatives will call.
TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY
FOUND—Lady's kid glove. Owner can have same by calling at Mail Tribune and paying for ad.
LOOK!—Only $10. Complete camping equipment; new tent; gasoline stove, double bed. Merrick's Auto camp, No. 84.
USED CARS
With a written guarantee. 1928 Buick light 6 coupe. 1931 Ford sedan, like new. 1930 Austin Coupe. Will be on sale for one week only. ARMSTRONG MOTORS, INC. 38 N. Riverside. Phone 18.

DEATH SHIP IS TAKEN TO KIEL
KIEL, Germany, Aug. 17.—(AP)—The hull of the naval training ship Niobe was dragged back to port today with the bodies of 49 cadets who perished when the ship foundered off the coast 22 days ago. Divers hoped to reach the bodies and bring them ashore late today.
Parents of the lost youths have been gathering for two days. They were forced to view the operations from the shores of Heikendorfer bay, for the public was barred until the

JOBLESS NOMINATE PITTSBURG PRIEST
CREVE COEUR SPEEDWAY, St. Louis, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Father James R. Coax, militant Pittsburgh priest, was nominated for the presidency on the jobless party ticket by acclamation late today at the convention of the "blue shirts." A platform submitted by a committee headed by William F. Kane of Crasson, Pa., also was adopted by acclamation.

CRATERIAN Direction FOX WEST COAST THEATRES. ON OUR STAGE TODAY and Thursday James Hall The Screen's Most Romantic Lover In Person! A FEAST OF ENTERTAINMENT ON OUR SCREEN CONRAD NAGEL in "The Man Called Back" NO ADVANCE in PRICES Matinees 25¢—Evenings 35¢ Kiddies a Dime Now On! Lions Club Popularity Contest

Notice to Packing House Workers
Fluhrer's Holsum or Fluhrer's Sliced is the ideal Bread for lunches and sandwiches.

HEAR Dr. Stanford Kingsley Claunch
The man whose achievements have amazed the civilized world. He rebuilt his own health from a hopeless invalid through the methods he teaches, and has become one of the world's most successful educators. Now he brings to the people of Medford this same powerful message—the message that saved his own life—in a series of SIX Inspiring LECTURES "THE ART OF SCIENTIFIC LIVING" Why suffer when you can overcome any disease and rebuild your health through rediscovery of the laws of life? You can get well—you can succeed—YOU CAN DO ANYTHING—when you know how! Our slogan: "KNOWLEDGE IS THE MOST PRECIOUS THING IN THE WORLD." Come and Judge for Yourself KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS HALL Corner 5th and Grape Sts. August 21, 22, 23, 24, 25—8:15 P. M. ADMISSION FREE . . . TELL YOUR FRIENDS ALL WELCOME! Equitable Music by LUCIE BRUCH, Internationally Famous Violinist, from 7:45 to 8:15 P. M.

HOLLY LAST TIMES TONIGHT
Engagement Extraordinary THE BIGGEST SHOW IN MEDFORD FOR YEARS
5 Big Time Vaudeville Acts
1—IACOLUCCI QUARTET Musical Novelty Sensation
2—EDDIE VINE AND BROTHER Features of 9 o'clock Review
3—AL AND LOUISE RUDACK Speedy and Flashy Dancers
4—Westerlund and Nickerson Acrobatic Specialists
5—Hollywood Rhythm Girls A hot band of hot numbers
No advance in Prices ADULTS 25c Evs. 35c LODG. 40c Kiddies 10c
ON THE SCREEN "THE FLYING FOOL" Also Karleton Don't Miss It!

STATE THEATRE
NOW PLAYING BEBE DANIELS Warren William in "Honor of the Family"
ALWAYS COOL ROXY..15c Phone 291 Children 10c
WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY Claudette Colbert, Edmund Lowe in "MISLEADING LADY" Also—News—"Meet the Winner" "Just One More Chance" Daily Mat. 1:30. Evs. 7.

Back Your Favorite in the LIONS Popularity Contest! Buy Tickets for the Fox Craterian From One of These Contestants
Pauline Chapline Lucile Littrell
Deloris Durkee Marjorie Marshall
Adra Edwards Dorothy Pankey
Jean Hamilton Ruby Stone
Claudia Tolle

WILLIAM POWELL MAY FRANCIS STARTS TOMORROW The Screen's Greatest Love Team
JEWEL ROBBERY