Young Singers Urged to Enter Atwater Test

Young singers of Medford and vicinity, who aspire to musical careers—not to mention a chance at a cash prize of $5,000—will have an opportunity to make their dreams come true by enrolling, prior to Aug. 30 with Mrs. G. Andrews, local chairman for this area of the 1932 National Radio Audition. Contestants who qualify in this local audition will be in line for advancement, through state and district contests, to participation in the national audition finals, the winners of which will receive from The Atwater Kent Foundation, cash prizes totaling $15,000, individual awards to the five young men and five young women who progress to the finals will be: $5,000 each to the young man and young woman rated highest; $1,000 each to second place winners, one young man and one young woman; $500 each to the six runners-up—three young men and three young women.

101 CARS PEARS SHIPPED SO FAR

The first picking of Bartlett in the Rogue River valley has practically been completed in most of the orchards of the district, and the second picking will start next week. Picking of the Howell crop, estimated at between 75 and 100 cars, is also scheduled to start next week. The Southern Pacific reports that up to Wednesday night, 101 cars had been shipped east. Shippers report the eastern market "continuing to show improvement, but still nothing to rave about." In many of the orchards of the valley picking has been discontinued until next week. The Del Rio, in the northern part of the valley is one of these. Some of the Bartlett's have been shipped to New York City, with instructions to sell if the market justifies, otherwise to place in cold storage. Some of the crop is held in cold storage here. It is expected that the market will improve the final days of August.

M'CLAIN RAPPED ON RUM CHARGE

William McClain of San Francisco, who has been making his home in Medford temporarily, is having his stay here extended thirty days. He was sentenced to the county jail for that length of time yesterday afternoon by Justice H. D. Reed of Gold Hill, and fined $150, on liquor charges. McClain was arrested early Wednesday morning by Federal Prohibition Investigator C. A. Herr on the charge of transportation and possession of liquor. One gallon of liquor was found in the Hudson coach McClain was driving, according to Officer Herr. The arrest was made on Jackson street.

COSTUME CONTEST AT GRANGE HALL PLANNED

A characterization contest will be featured at the meeting tomorrow evening of the Central Post Grange. The program will be in charge of Mrs. J. Sanford Richardson and a prize will be awarded the person who presents the best impersonation of a character in history, beginning with the time of Moses. About 15 entries have already been received by Mrs. Richardson, who promises a colorful display of costumes and an educational and entertaining program, to which the public is cordially invited. Mrs. Lois Cook Young and Rev. D. E. Millard, who are assisting with the program, will present several special numbers.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—(AP)—The stock market rose unevenly today, coming up to finish with moderate gains in some leaders, in sympathy with a late upturn in the wheat market. It was one of the most quiet sessions of the month, with a turnover of about one and three-quarter million shares. Leaders appeared to encounter support on recessions. Afternoon losses of $1 to $3 a share in several issues were largely erased in the last hour, and several leaders closed $1 to $3 above yesterday's final levels. Today's closing prices for 16 selected stocks follow: American Can 53 1/2, American T. & T. 112 1/2, Anaconda 8 1/2, Curtiss Wright 13 1/2, General Motors 14 1/2, Int.
