

BETTER PRICES REGISTERED ON LIVE CHICKENS

PORTLAND, Aug. 19.—(AP)—There is a somewhat better feeling all through the local live chicken trade with fractional betterment in the price list in spots. No general advance has as yet been reported.

There is a real shortage in offerings of country-killed calves along the wholesale way.

Steadiness is reflected for eggs, despite the adverse feeling here because outsiders are dumping under-grade offerings here. Prices are steady to lower in the eastern section.

There is a real shortage in offerings of country-killed calves along the wholesale way.

With a very liberal increase in local offerings, together with greater stocks coming by truck from central Washington, the market for peaches was weaker and generally lower Friday.

Extreme sluggishness and weakness are reflected for cauliflower for shipment. Owing to the scant demand elsewhere, a big block of northern grown stock continues to invade the Portland territory, selling at 50 to 60c crate or less.

There is a very liberal increase in activity throughout the cheese trade with prices strong at late advances in the east. Constant values are generally firmly held.

Notes of wholesale trading: Apple market is showing liberally increased supplies.

Potatoes are active but weaker, with Yakima leading the cut. Onion market is very slow, prices unchanged.

NORTHWEST WOOL TRADE IS CHEERED

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 19.—(AP)—The sale of 500,000 pounds of northwestern wool to eastern mills by a Portland company, confirmed here Thursday, has resulted in a better feeling in the trade, it was said here today.

Although prices on the eastern sale were not announced, they were said to be fully on a parity with the Boston market. The shipment embraced all grades of wools, although fine predominated. The consignment went through E. J. Buke & Co. of Portland for quick shipment.

Portland's warehouses and locks are now stocked with about 12,500,000 pounds of wool, a record supply for this market.

JACKSONVILLE PIG SHAVED FOR FETE

JACKSONVILLE, Aug. 19.—(Spl.)—Toiling amid a deafening crescendo of wild hog squeals, free advice from onlookers and grating rasp of blunt razors, Charlie Dorothy, this city's well known tuncorialist, spent early today shaving a greased pig which will be turned loose tomorrow afternoon for the amusement of crowds attending the Gold Rush Jubilee.

Dorothy, long adept at the art of chin-checking, found it necessary to enlist the aid of three men and a boy, use all razors in town and throw in a couple of clippers. He even found it necessary to sneak a pair of shears from his house while Mrs. Dorothy was doing the day's shopping, for which he doubtless will suffer, as did the pig.

Search had been made in the hills for the wildest, fleetest hog to be found and, according to Charlie, who is rather sahamed of the ragged shave performed, celebration officials certainly got what they wanted. Both the pig and barber will display an array of plain and fancy slashes to visitors tomorrow.

FIREBUG SUSPECTS ARE BOUND OVER

Robert Rose and Jack Rice, residents of the Round Top Mountain district, were bound over to the grand jury under $1500 bonds each, charged with setting forest fires. Preliminary hearing was held this morning before Justice of the Peace Glenn O. Taylor.

Affidavits were introduced by the state from residents of the district alleging that the defendants had set 18 fires this year and last.

Evidence was introduced to show that the fires had been started shortly after the two men passed down a trail, and that they had been under the surveillance of the state forest patrol for some time.

Rose is well known in the county as a guide for hunting parties.

PUBLIC TO HEAR PUBLICITY AGENT TUESDAY EVENING

A public meeting will be held at the Hotel Medford next Tuesday evening, August 23, at 8:00 p. m., which will give Medford citizens an opportunity to hear Herbert Anascomb, president of the Vancouver Island Publicity bureau and ex-mayor of the City of Victoria, and George I. Warren, president of the National Tourist and Publicity Bureau of Canada, was the decision of the board of directors of the Medford Chamber of commerce at their regular meeting today noon.

W. M. Clemenson, chairman of the tourist contact committee, will be in charge of the meeting. Captain O'Connor, southern Oregon representative of the Victoria Publicity bureau, attended the directors' meeting today, and asked that the meeting be held. Both Mr. Anascomb and Mr. Warren are speakers of note, and their addresses are illustrated with pictures of Victoria and Vancouver Island. The general public is invited, and particularly those interested in tourist travel.

Other items of civic interest were discussed at today's meeting, and referred to the civic committee for a full report next week. J. C. Thompson, chairman of the membership and finance committee, rendered a report on the coming membership campaign, which was approved by the directorate.

In light of the recent accidents on the Midway road, the Chamber went on record as favoring the making of this highway an arterial road, and erecting stop signs on side roads leading into the Midway highway, which is the main travel artery between Medford and the Sams Valley area, and over which a great portion of the fruit hauling from the northern end of the valley is done.

A far more optimistic note than heretofore prevailed was in evidence today, according to those who attended the meeting, with the general opinion prevailing among the 10 directors of the chamber present at the meeting that business conditions are on the up-grade in Medford, and that the chamber and business interests in the city should take every advantage of increased activity. A report of the officers covering the chamber's accomplishments during the first four months of the current fiscal year was presented, and the directors expressed themselves as being pleased with this year's program. The report will be distributed among the entire membership.

THE HOME OF BREAD LIKE MOTHER MADE

Harvest Time In the Rogue River Valley

JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY glorified the frost on the pumpkin and the fodder in the shock, but Riley never saw the Rogue River Valley at harvest time.

It's harvest time now—and the produce of the valley is coming to market—everything from melons to berries—all of a quality unknown in most other places.

That's a pretty broad claim, you'll say. Well, prove it for yourself with a Hearts of Gold Cantaloupe—a watermelon—or best of all with some field grown Rogue River Valley Tomatoes.

Truly, a great country. Too bad the world can't visit us at harvest time.
