

Local and Personal

To Lake o' Woods—Mrs. T. J. Gilford and children and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wilson are spending today at Lake o' Woods.

Guest in Medford—Miss Dorothy Illidge of Glendale, Ore., is in Medford, the guest of Mrs. W. B. Robinson, at the Bourbon apartments.

Mr. Madison Here—To vacation for a few days at his lodge on Rogue river, Frank D. Madison of San Francisco arrived Saturday morning by train.

Completes Stay—Mrs. Rose McCroskey of Walla Walla, left yesterday for her home, having spent several days in Medford.

Visit Relatives—Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Lindsey and Otis, Jr., of San Diego, Calif., are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Lindsey and Mrs. L. C. Lindsey of Losier Lane.

On Business North—A. Schmidt is spending three days in Portland attending to business matters. He made the trip north by train Saturday.

Returns Home—Having spent the summer in the valley as the guest of Donald Richardson of Beall Lane, Charles Springer left Saturday on the Shasta for his home in Postland.

Visit in Ashland—Mrs. Boss Harder and children are spending the weekend in Ashland as the guests of Mrs. Harder's mother. They journeyed to that city by train Friday evening.

Look at Road—The county court, Commissioner Victor Bursell, Commissioner John Barnhouse and Judge C. B. Lamkin yesterday visited the Savage creek area to check on a road.

Wyant in City—L. H. Wyant, store keeper of Lake Creek, was in Medford yesterday attending to business matters and buying supplies for his store.

Audits Books—G. W. Reynolds, Jr., of Portland, representative of the Motor Management service, is in Medford auditing the books at the Pierce-Alton Motor company.

Shop in Medford—Mrs. G. D. Kraft and Mrs. Arnold Rader returned home to Hornbrook by train Friday night, having spent the day in Medford shopping.

Returns to L. A.—Mrs. C. J. Barford, who has been the guest of her brother, R. Harje here for the past three weeks, returned to her home in Los Angeles by train Friday, making the trip on the Shasta.

Returns Home—W. E. Wadsworth of Harrisburg, Ore., has returned to his home, following several days here on business and pleasure. He also made a trip to Klamath Falls while in this part of the state.

License To Wed—The county clerk's office issued a marriage license Friday to Fred B. Day, 45, and Ethel L. Gillaspay, 41, both of Sacramento, California. He is a clerk, and she an accountant, according to the records.

On Business Visit—Kenneth J. Rhead of Oakland, in the radio department of the United Airlines, is in Medford, checking the radios at the Medford Municipal airport for the Airlines company.

To Launch Ships—A group of Medford people will spend today at Diamond Lake, where they will launch their new motor boat, Miss Frances. Those who plan to make the trip are Bill Cunningham, Max Giffin, and Charles Wakefield.

Ready to Move—The staff at the county agent's office in the Liberty building has been busy for the past week packing the office library and getting things in readiness to move to their offices in the new court house.

Attend Movie—Mrs. Alvin Alwine and daughter Mildred of Ashland attended the performance of the Arizona Wranglers at the Craterian Friday afternoon, and returned to their home in Ashland on the Shasta that evening.

Obtain License—Minor Wallace Cross, 26, of Weed, Calif., and Lillian Barbara Young, 26, of Elma, Calif., obtained a license to wed Friday at the clerk's office. Cross gave bookkeeping as his occupation, and Miss Young stated that she was a school teacher.

Attends Conference—Lawrence Mitchelmore of Ashland was a passenger on the train Friday evening, en route to Turner, where he will represent the Crater Lake union of Christian Endeavor at the state executive meeting to be conducted for two days.

Visit Relatives—Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Lindsey and Otis, Jr., of San Diego, Calif., are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Lindsey and Mrs. L. C. Lindsey of Losier Lane.

On Business North—A. Schmidt is spending three days in Portland attending to business matters. He made the trip north by train Saturday.

Returns Home—Having spent the summer in the valley as the guest of Donald Richardson of Beall Lane, Charles Springer left Saturday on the Shasta for his home in Postland.

Visit in Ashland—Mrs. Boss Harder and children are spending the weekend in Ashland as the guests of Mrs. Harder's mother. They journeyed to that city by train Friday evening.

Look at Road—The county court, Commissioner Victor Bursell, Commissioner John Barnhouse and Judge C. B. Lamkin yesterday visited the Savage creek area to check on a road.

Wyant in City—L. H. Wyant, store keeper of Lake Creek, was in Medford yesterday attending to business matters and buying supplies for his store.

Audits Books—G. W. Reynolds, Jr., of Portland, representative of the Motor Management service, is in Medford auditing the books at the Pierce-Alton Motor company.

Shop in Medford—Mrs. G. D. Kraft and Mrs. Arnold Rader returned home to Hornbrook by train Friday night, having spent the day in Medford shopping.

Returns to L. A.—Mrs. C. J. Barford, who has been the guest of her brother, R. Harje here for the past three weeks, returned to her home in Los Angeles by train Friday, making the trip on the Shasta.

Returns Home—W. E. Wadsworth of Harrisburg, Ore., has returned to his home, following several days here on business and pleasure. He also made a trip to Klamath Falls while in this part of the state.

License To Wed—The county clerk's office issued a marriage license Friday to Fred B. Day, 45, and Ethel L. Gillaspay, 41, both of Sacramento, California. He is a clerk, and she an accountant, according to the records.

On Business Visit—Kenneth J. Rhead of Oakland, in the radio department of the United Airlines, is in Medford, checking the radios at the Medford Municipal airport for the Airlines company.

To Launch Ships—A group of Medford people will spend today at Diamond Lake, where they will launch their new motor boat, Miss Frances. Those who plan to make the trip are Bill Cunningham, Max Giffin, and Charles Wakefield.

Ready to Move—The staff at the county agent's office in the Liberty building has been busy for the past week packing the office library and getting things in readiness to move to their offices in the new court house.

Brophy Motor South—Mr. and Mrs. Leland Brophy left yesterday for San Francisco, where they will spend several days.

Visits Family—Captain John Amos Adams of San Francisco arrived on the Shasta from the south Friday to visit his family at North Park place.

Stops in City—F. W. Tanner, traveling salesman from Culver City, Calif., stopped in Medford yesterday to register his automobile at the out-of-state bureau on South Riverdale.

Returns Today—Miss Barbara McCout is expected to return to Medford today from Riviera, where she has been spending the past week vacationing with her parents there.

Schwartz to Visit—Elmer Schwartz, all-star fullback on the Washington team, is expected here this week to visit his mother, Mrs. N. B. Schwartz and brother, E. B. Ross, on his way to Chicago, where he will play professional football.

Visit Here—Allen Bunnell of Long Beach, Calif., and Granville Gillette of Reno, Nev., are visiting in Medford, having listed this city as their Oregon destination when registering their automobiles at the state bureau Saturday.

Conduct Exams—Ward McReynolds, state examiner for operators and chauffeurs, will conduct examinations in the city council rooms of the chamber of commerce again tomorrow between the hours of 8 a. m., and 5 p. m. Many were at the office Saturday taking the examinations.

Rev. Crawford Here—Rev. Florence L. Crawford of Portland, Apostolic Faith minister, accompanied by her secretary, arrived in Medford on the Shasta Friday evening. They plan to spend a few days here, during which time Reverend Crawford will conduct services.

From a Distance—Motorists from distant places, who stopped in Medford Friday to register their automobiles with Lee C. Garlock at the out-of-state bureau on South Riverdale were Jessie F. Raymond of Stamford, Conn., O. E. Marford of Liberal, Kans., and E. L. Luglan of Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Wranglers at Jackson—The Arizona Wranglers were registered at the Jackson hotel during their stay here, giving Hollywood as their address. The group included Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Crabbill, H. A. Fietcher, Loyal Underwood, Art Hoffinger, Charles Hunter, L. F. Conatello, J. E. Patterson, Lee Dosey, L. W. Irrina, Cal Shorty, and Jimmy Barron.

From Rose City—The Portland guests at the hotels in Medford include J. R. Beale, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sinton, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Carson, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Davis, B. R. Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Lewis, C. Walton, L. A. Rue, H. M. Edson, C. V. Lambert, B. R. Wagner, R. P. Wells, Geo. J. Bohrer, S. F. Simon, Bruce Basinski, Howard Weaver, Charles Shea, T. W. Mann, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Ogil, Howard C. Ball and R. Stinson.

Fishing Favorable—A letter has been received by the Mail Tribune from Frank L. Taylor, chairman of the Fish and Game committee, Reedsport chamber of commerce of reports from Winchester bay that salmon trout and salmon are biting especially well. No. 7 full brass Shelton is used for trout, and No. 65 Oregon bass. For the salmon No. 6 in both copper and brass in either McMahon or Reeker spinners. At Lake Takkenitch general fishing reports are favorable, good catches of bass having been made the past week on green bass and redhead plugs, and yellow and red Shannon spinners. Catfish and perch fishing is excellent. Fair fishing is to be had at Loon Lake, for bass, catfish and trout. No. 55 Nickel Oregon is the best lure at this time.

Ship Catalogs—The last of a freight car full of Montgomery Ward catalogs were shipped from the Medford post office last evening. A total of 644 sacks were sent out Friday, and the remainder shipped yesterday according to C. M. Houston, assistant postmaster. As Medford is a distributing point, the catalogs are sent from here as far south as Redding, Calif., and north to Roseburg. This area includes Bandon, Crescent City, and other coast points, Mr. Houston stated.

The Golden Bears—With their residences listed as California cities, the following travelers were guests at city hotels Friday night: D. B. Stuart, S. F. Volmer, Charles Richard, W. E. Murphy, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Mallory, M. Bogioni, J. Plindwa, Adeline Doyner and W. J. Mattende of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Tully and K. A. Cox of Sacramento, A. J. Cole, H. A. Seberling and Mrs. R. H. Munstock of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hawson and nephew of Fresno, Mr. and Mrs. L. Friley of Oakland, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cotton and Mrs. Iva F. Patterson of Pasadena.

Rides Up Mountain—Miss Clara Younger of the Rogue River National forest offices in the federal building here, accompanied Ranger and Mrs. Hugh A. Ritter to the Mt. McLoughlin lookout station on horseback Friday. According to the reports received here, they reached the Lake o' the Woods none the worse for their long trip. They planned another horseback trip for Saturday.

3-A Gets Flowers—Three bowls of lovely flowers have been placed in the auto registration offices by Mrs. O. J. Wolfe, of 508 North Grape street, and have brought favorable comment from a number of tourists. Lee C. Garlock reported. He stated that anyone wishing to bring flowers to be displayed is welcome to do so, as it shows the tourists what can be grown in Medford.

Shoots Jacksonville—Moving pictures of Jacksonville's Gold Rush Jubilee were taken yesterday by H. L. Bromley, Copco advertising manager, and will be shown by the Copco news reel. Some excellent footage of the pioneer parade with its old-time costumes and vehicles was taken by Bromley as well as an impromptu "shooting scene" in front of the leading saloon. Pictures of the monument where gold was first discovered and gold panning operations were also taken by the Copco cameraman.

Scarface Returns to Fox Rialto Today

George Arliss in New Rull at State Today

Births

Reese Creek Sunday Services at 11 O'clock

Card of Thanks

Always Cool Roxy..15c

Sunday and Monday Sylvia Sidney, Chester Morris in "The Miracle Man"

Buster Keaton Coming to Roxy Next Tuesday

The Gamest Gambler Who Ever Played for Love!

Race-Track with Leo Carrillo

Dr. Stanford Kingsley Claunch

Lectures at Knights of Pythias Hall

State Theatre Starts Today!

George Arliss The Man Who Played God

Star At Holly

Marx Brothers At Craterian

Tourist Traffic Topic for Talks

Pair Held for Burning Truck

On Vacation—Howard Gault, clerk in Judge Glenn O. Taylor's court is on a vacation this week-end.

Bishop Coming—Lee Bishop is expected to return today from a 3 weeks trip to Des Moines, Iowa.

On Business—T. W. Dezell, assistant division manager for Copco in Klamath county was a business visitor here yesterday.

Legion to Meet—An important meeting of Medford post No. 18 of the American Legion will be held at the Army room tomorrow night. Plans for the national convention in Portland will be discussed and new officers will be nominated for the coming election. Other matters of interest to every veteran will come up and all Legionnaires are urged to be present.

Henselman Returns—George Henselman returned to Medford yesterday afternoon on the United Airlines Trimotor plane from Oakland airport, leaving there at 12:10, and arriving here at 2:45 o'clock. He reported an enjoyable trip, having flown down Wednesday to attend a special conference at the offices of A. Pitkin and Sons, Inc., for whom he is local representative.

Corps to Portland—Members of the Medford Legion drum corps are practicing diligently to get into shape for the national convention of the American Legion in Portland next month. This will be their first appearance at a national convention also they have attended every state convention since the local corps was first organized. It is expected that much favorable publicity for Medford will result from their appearance at the Portland convention.

Carl Grant Returns—Carl E. Grant district manager of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company of southern Oregon, returned Saturday from San Francisco where he spent the past week attending the coast managers' convention and the national convention of the Life Underwriters. The latter was held at the Fairmont hotel, and was attended by insurance men from all parts of the United States.

Hampton to Lecture—Under the auspices of the Medford Theological Lodge, Rev. Chas. Hampton, national lecturer, will speak Sunday, Aug. 21 at St. Mark's hall and Aug. 22-23 at the local lodge rooms, 220 N. Oakdale street at 8 p. m. His subjects are "God Must Be Sought Within," Christian Theology, and Psycho-Analysis. The public is invited. Rev. Hampton will arrive from Portland.

3-A Gets Flowers—Three bowls of lovely flowers have been placed in the auto registration offices by Mrs. O. J. Wolfe, of 508 North Grape street, and have brought favorable comment from a number of tourists. Lee C. Garlock reported. He stated that anyone wishing to bring flowers to be displayed is welcome to do so, as it shows the tourists what can be grown in Medford.

Rides Up Mountain—Miss Clara Younger of the Rogue River National forest offices in the federal building here, accompanied Ranger and Mrs. Hugh A. Ritter to the Mt. McLoughlin lookout station on horseback Friday. According to the reports received here, they reached the Lake o' the Woods none the worse for their long trip. They planned another horseback trip for Saturday.

Ship Catalogs—The last of a freight car full of Montgomery Ward catalogs were shipped from the Medford post office last evening. A total of 644 sacks were sent out Friday, and the remainder shipped yesterday according to C. M. Houston, assistant postmaster. As Medford is a distributing point, the catalogs are sent from here as far south as Redding, Calif., and north to Roseburg. This area includes Bandon, Crescent City, and other coast points, Mr. Houston stated.

The Golden Bears—With their residences listed as California cities, the following travelers were guests at city hotels Friday night: D. B. Stuart, S. F. Volmer, Charles Richard, W. E. Murphy, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Mallory, M. Bogioni, J. Plindwa, Adeline Doyner and W. J. Mattende of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Tully and K. A. Cox of Sacramento, A. J. Cole, H. A. Seberling and Mrs. R. H. Munstock of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hawson and nephew of Fresno, Mr. and Mrs. L. Friley of Oakland, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cotton and Mrs. Iva F. Patterson of Pasadena.

Rides Up Mountain—Miss Clara Younger of the Rogue River National forest offices in the federal building here, accompanied Ranger and Mrs. Hugh A. Ritter to the Mt. McLoughlin lookout station on horseback Friday. According to the reports received here, they reached the Lake o' the Woods none the worse for their long trip. They planned another horseback trip for Saturday.

Ship Catalogs—The last of a freight car full of Montgomery Ward catalogs were shipped from the Medford post office last evening. A total of 644 sacks were sent out Friday, and the remainder shipped yesterday according to C. M. Houston, assistant postmaster. As Medford is a distributing point, the catalogs are sent from here as far south as Redding, Calif., and north to Roseburg. This area includes Bandon, Crescent City, and other coast points, Mr. Houston stated.

The Golden Bears—With their residences listed as California cities, the following travelers were guests at city hotels Friday night: D. B. Stuart, S. F. Volmer, Charles Richard, W. E. Murphy, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Mallory, M. Bogioni, J. Plindwa, Adeline Doyner and W. J. Mattende of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Tully and K. A. Cox of Sacramento, A. J. Cole, H. A. Seberling and Mrs. R. H. Munstock of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hawson and nephew of Fresno, Mr. and Mrs. L. Friley of Oakland, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cotton and Mrs. Iva F. Patterson of Pasadena.

Rides Up Mountain—Miss Clara Younger of the Rogue River National forest offices in the federal building here, accompanied Ranger and Mrs. Hugh A. Ritter to the Mt. McLoughlin lookout station on horseback Friday. According to the reports received here, they reached the Lake o' the Woods none the worse for their long trip. They planned another horseback trip for Saturday.

Ship Catalogs—The last of a freight car full of Montgomery Ward catalogs were shipped from the Medford post office last evening. A total of 644 sacks were sent out Friday, and the remainder shipped yesterday according to C. M. Houston, assistant postmaster. As Medford is a distributing point, the catalogs are sent from here as far south as Redding, Calif., and north to Roseburg. This area includes Bandon, Crescent City, and other coast points, Mr. Houston stated.

The Golden Bears—With their residences listed as California cities, the following travelers were guests at city hotels Friday night: D. B. Stuart, S. F. Volmer, Charles Richard, W. E. Murphy, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Mallory, M. Bogioni, J. Plindwa, Adeline Doyner and W. J. Mattende of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Tully and K. A. Cox of Sacramento, A. J. Cole, H. A. Seberling and Mrs. R. H. Munstock of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hawson and nephew of Fresno, Mr. and Mrs. L. Friley of Oakland, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cotton and Mrs. Iva F. Patterson of Pasadena.

Rides Up Mountain—Miss Clara Younger of the Rogue River National forest offices in the federal building here, accompanied Ranger and Mrs. Hugh A. Ritter to the Mt. McLoughlin lookout station on horseback Friday. According to the reports received here, they reached the Lake o' the Woods none the worse for their long trip. They planned another horseback trip for Saturday.

Ship Catalogs—The last of a freight car full of Montgomery Ward catalogs were shipped from the Medford post office last evening. A total of 644 sacks were sent out Friday, and the remainder shipped yesterday according to C. M. Houston, assistant postmaster. As Medford is a distributing point, the catalogs are sent from here as far south as Redding, Calif., and north to Roseburg. This area includes Bandon, Crescent City, and other coast points, Mr. Houston stated.

The Golden Bears—With their residences listed as California cities, the following travelers were guests at city hotels Friday night: D. B. Stuart, S. F. Volmer, Charles Richard, W. E. Murphy, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Mallory, M. Bogioni, J. Plindwa, Adeline Doyner and W. J. Mattende of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Tully and K. A. Cox of Sacramento, A. J. Cole, H. A. Seberling and Mrs. R. H. Munstock of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hawson and nephew of Fresno, Mr. and Mrs. L. Friley of Oakland, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cotton and Mrs. Iva F. Patterson of Pasadena.

Rides Up Mountain—Miss Clara Younger of the Rogue River National forest offices in the federal building here, accompanied Ranger and Mrs. Hugh A. Ritter to the Mt. McLoughlin lookout station on horseback Friday. According to the reports received here, they reached the Lake o' the Woods none the worse for their long trip. They planned another horseback trip for Saturday.

Ship Catalogs—The last of a freight car full of Montgomery Ward catalogs were shipped from the Medford post office last evening. A total of 644 sacks were sent out Friday, and the remainder shipped yesterday according to C. M. Houston, assistant postmaster. As Medford is a distributing point, the catalogs are sent from here as far south as Redding, Calif., and north to Roseburg. This area includes Bandon, Crescent City, and other coast points, Mr. Houston stated.

The Golden Bears—With their residences listed as California cities, the following travelers were guests at city hotels Friday night: D. B. Stuart, S. F. Volmer, Charles Richard, W. E. Murphy, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Mallory, M. Bogioni, J. Plindwa, Adeline Doyner and W. J. Mattende of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Tully and K. A. Cox of Sacramento, A. J. Cole, H. A. Seberling and Mrs. R. H. Munstock of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hawson and nephew of Fresno, Mr. and Mrs. L. Friley of Oakland, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cotton and Mrs. Iva F. Patterson of Pasadena.

Rides Up Mountain—Miss Clara Younger of the Rogue River National forest offices in the federal building here, accompanied Ranger and Mrs. Hugh A. Ritter to the Mt. McLoughlin lookout station on horseback Friday. According to the reports received here, they reached the Lake o' the Woods none the worse for their long trip. They planned another horseback trip for Saturday.

Ship Catalogs—The last of a freight car full of Montgomery Ward catalogs were shipped from the Medford post office last evening. A total of 644 sacks were sent out Friday, and the remainder shipped yesterday according to C. M. Houston, assistant postmaster. As Medford is a distributing point, the catalogs are sent from here as far south as Redding, Calif., and north to Roseburg. This area includes Bandon, Crescent City, and other coast points, Mr. Houston stated.

The Golden Bears—With their residences listed as California cities, the following travelers were guests at city hotels Friday night: D. B. Stuart, S. F. Volmer, Charles Richard, W. E. Murphy, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Mallory, M. Bogioni, J. Plindwa, Adeline Doyner and W. J. Mattende of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Tully and K. A. Cox of Sacramento, A. J. Cole, H. A. Seberling and Mrs. R. H. Munstock of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hawson and nephew of Fresno, Mr. and Mrs. L. Friley of Oakland, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cotton and Mrs. Iva F. Patterson of Pasadena.

Rides Up Mountain—Miss Clara Younger of the Rogue River National forest offices in the federal building here, accompanied Ranger and Mrs. Hugh A. Ritter to the Mt. McLoughlin lookout station on horseback Friday. According to the reports received here, they reached the Lake o' the Woods none the worse for their long trip. They planned another horseback trip for Saturday.

Ship Catalogs—The last of a freight car full of Montgomery Ward catalogs were shipped from the Medford post office last evening. A total of 644 sacks were sent out Friday, and the remainder shipped yesterday according to C. M. Houston, assistant postmaster. As Medford is a distributing point, the catalogs are sent from here as far south as Redding, Calif., and north to Roseburg. This area includes Bandon, Crescent City, and other coast points, Mr. Houston stated.

The Golden Bears—With their residences listed as California cities, the following travelers were guests at city hotels Friday night: D. B. Stuart, S. F. Volmer, Charles Richard, W. E. Murphy, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Mallory, M. Bogioni, J. Plindwa, Adeline Doyner and W. J. Mattende of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Tully and K. A. Cox of Sacramento, A. J. Cole, H. A. Seberling and Mrs. R. H. Munstock of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hawson and nephew of Fresno, Mr. and Mrs. L. Friley of Oakland, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cotton and Mrs. Iva F. Patterson of Pasadena.

Rides Up Mountain—Miss Clara Younger of the Rogue River National forest offices in the federal building here, accompanied Ranger and Mrs. Hugh A. Ritter to the Mt. McLoughlin lookout station on horseback Friday. According to the reports received here, they reached the Lake o' the Woods none the worse for their long trip. They planned another horseback trip for Saturday.

Ship Catalogs—The last of a freight car full of Montgomery Ward catalogs were shipped from the Medford post office last evening. A total of 644 sacks were sent out Friday, and the remainder shipped yesterday according to C. M. Houston, assistant postmaster. As Medford is a distributing point, the catalogs are sent from here as far south as Redding, Calif., and north to Roseburg. This area includes Bandon, Crescent City, and other coast points, Mr. Houston stated.

The Golden Bears—With their residences listed as California cities, the following travelers were guests at city hotels Friday night: D. B. Stuart, S. F. Volmer, Charles Richard, W. E. Murphy, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Mallory, M. Bogioni, J. Plindwa, Adeline Doyner and W. J. Mattende of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Tully and K. A. Cox of Sacramento, A. J. Cole, H. A. Seberling and Mrs. R. H. Munstock of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hawson and nephew of Fresno, Mr. and Mrs. L. Friley of Oakland, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cotton and Mrs. Iva F. Patterson of Pasadena.

Rides Up Mountain—Miss Clara Younger of the Rogue River National forest offices in the federal building here, accompanied Ranger and Mrs. Hugh A. Ritter to the Mt. McLoughlin lookout station on horseback Friday. According to the reports received here, they reached the Lake o' the Woods none the worse for their long trip. They planned another horseback trip for Saturday.

Ship Catalogs—The last of a freight car full of Montgomery Ward catalogs were shipped from the Medford post office last evening. A total of 644 sacks were sent out Friday, and the remainder shipped yesterday according to C. M. Houston, assistant postmaster. As Medford is a distributing point, the catalogs are sent from here as far south as Redding, Calif., and north to Roseburg. This area includes Bandon, Crescent City, and other coast points, Mr. Houston stated.

On Vacation—Howard Gault, clerk in Judge Glenn O. Taylor's court is on a vacation this week-end.

Bishop Coming—Lee Bishop is expected to return today from a 3 weeks trip to Des Moines, Iowa.

On Business—T. W. Dezell, assistant division manager for Copco in Klamath county was a business visitor here yesterday.

Legion to Meet—An important meeting of Medford post No. 18 of the American Legion will be held at the Army room tomorrow night. Plans for the national convention in Portland will be discussed and new officers will be nominated for the coming election. Other matters of interest to every veteran will come up and all Legionnaires are urged to be present.

Henselman Returns—George Henselman returned to Medford yesterday afternoon on the United Airlines Trimotor plane from Oakland airport, leaving there at 12:10, and arriving here at 2:45 o'clock. He reported an enjoyable trip, having flown down Wednesday to attend a special conference at the offices of A. Pitkin and Sons, Inc., for whom he is local representative.

Corps to Portland—Members of the Medford Legion drum corps are practicing diligently to get into shape for the national convention of the American Legion in Portland next month. This will be their first appearance at a national convention also they have attended every state convention since the local corps was first organized. It is expected that much favorable publicity for Medford will result from their appearance at the Portland convention.

Carl Grant Returns—Carl E. Grant district manager of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company of southern Oregon, returned Saturday from San Francisco where he spent the past week attending the coast managers' convention and the national convention of the Life Underwriters. The latter was held at the Fairmont hotel, and was attended by insurance men from all parts of the United States.

Hampton to Lecture—Under the auspices of the Medford Theological Lodge, Rev. Chas. Hampton, national lecturer, will speak Sunday, Aug. 21 at St. Mark's hall and Aug. 22-23 at the local lodge rooms, 220 N. Oakdale street at 8 p. m. His subjects are "God Must Be Sought Within," Christian Theology, and Psycho-Analysis. The public is invited. Rev. Hampton will arrive from Portland.

3-A Gets Flowers—Three bowls of lovely flowers have been placed in the auto registration offices by Mrs. O. J. Wolfe, of 508 North Grape street, and have brought favorable comment from a number of tourists. Lee C. Garlock reported. He stated that anyone wishing to bring flowers to be displayed is welcome to do so, as it shows the tourists what can be grown in Medford.

Rides Up Mountain—Miss Clara Younger of the Rogue River National forest offices in the federal building here, accompanied Ranger and Mrs. Hugh A. Ritter to the Mt. McLoughlin lookout station on horseback Friday. According to the reports received here, they reached the Lake o' the Woods none the worse for their long trip. They planned another horseback trip for Saturday.

Ship Catalogs—The last of a freight car full of Montgomery Ward catalogs were shipped from the Medford post office last evening. A total of 644 sacks were sent out Friday, and the remainder shipped yesterday according to C. M. Houston, assistant postmaster. As Medford is a distributing point, the catalogs are sent from here as far south as Redding, Calif., and north to Roseburg. This area includes Bandon, Crescent City, and other coast points, Mr. Houston stated.

The Golden Bears—With their residences listed as California cities, the following travelers were guests at city hotels Friday night: D. B. Stuart, S. F. Volmer, Charles Richard, W. E. Murphy, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Mallory, M. Bogioni, J. Plindwa, Adeline Doyner and W. J. Mattende of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Tully and K. A. Cox of Sacramento, A. J. Cole, H. A. Seberling and Mrs. R. H. Munstock of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hawson and nephew of Fresno, Mr. and Mrs. L. Friley of Oakland, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cotton and Mrs. Iva F. Patterson of Pasadena.

Rides Up Mountain—Miss Clara Younger of the Rogue River National forest offices in the federal building here, accompanied Ranger and Mrs. Hugh A. Ritter to the Mt. McLoughlin lookout station on horseback Friday. According to the reports received here, they reached the Lake o' the Woods none the worse for their long trip. They planned another horseback trip for Saturday.

Ship Catalogs—The last of a freight car full of Montgomery Ward catalogs were shipped from the Medford post office last evening. A total of 644 sacks were sent out Friday, and the remainder shipped yesterday according to C. M. Houston, assistant postmaster. As Medford is a distributing point, the catalogs are sent from here as far south as Redding, Calif., and north to Roseburg. This area includes Bandon, Crescent City, and other coast points, Mr. Houston stated.

The Golden Bears—With their residences listed as California cities, the following travelers were guests at city hotels Friday night: D. B. Stuart, S. F. Volmer, Charles Richard, W. E. Murphy, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Mallory, M. Bogioni, J. Plindwa, Adeline Doyner and W. J. Mattende of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Tully and K. A. Cox of Sacramento, A. J. Cole, H. A. Seberling and Mrs. R. H. Munstock of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hawson and nephew of Fresno, Mr. and Mrs. L. Friley of Oakland, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cotton and Mrs. Iva F. Patterson of Pasadena.

Rides Up Mountain—Miss Clara Younger of the Rogue River National forest offices in the federal building here, accompanied Ranger and Mrs. Hugh A. Ritter to the Mt. McLoughlin lookout station on horseback Friday. According to the reports received here, they reached the Lake o' the Woods none the worse for their long trip. They planned another horseback trip for Saturday.

Ship Catalogs—The last of a freight car full of Montgomery Ward catalogs were shipped from the Medford post office last evening. A total of 644 sacks were sent out Friday, and the remainder shipped yesterday according to C. M. Houston, assistant postmaster. As Medford is a distributing point, the catalogs are sent from here as far south as Redding, Calif., and north to Roseburg. This area includes Bandon, Crescent City, and other coast points, Mr. Houston stated.

The Golden Bears—With their residences listed as California cities, the following travelers were guests at city hotels Friday night: D. B. Stuart, S. F. Volmer, Charles Richard, W. E. Murphy, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Mallory, M. Bogioni, J. Plindwa, Adeline Doyner and W. J. Mattende of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Tully and K. A. Cox of Sacramento, A. J. Cole, H. A. Seberling and Mrs. R. H. Munstock of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hawson and nephew of Fresno, Mr. and Mrs. L. Friley of Oakland, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cotton and Mrs. Iva F. Patterson of Pasadena.