"Igloo" Is Craterian Hit

Chee-Ak, an Eskimo who plays the leading role in "Igloo," Ewing Scott's drama of the Arctic, which comes to the Fox Craterian Wednesday and Thursday, is a veteran of four pictures filmed in the snowy wastes of the Far North. He was a member of the photographic exploring expedition of Captain Frank Klein Schmidt, and then made a similar trip with Knud Rasmussen, famous Danish explorer. The J. C. Penney store is sponsoring a special feature to the showing of "Igloo," the high school octette will present several selections. The octette comprises these students: Robert Nelson, William Lyman, Hugh Shurtliff, Durward Gass, George Bennett, Winston Hotel, Max Rae and Arthur Cook; Miss Genevieve Brown, accompanist.

Guests in Medford—From points in the state, those registered at the hotels include J. A. Sprague of Lake o' the Woods, C. A. Lewis, Ray Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Grier of Salem, Charles A. Lee and O. W. Enger of Roseburg, E. D. Mathis of Klamath Falls, B. A. Schallhorn and M. K. Kelso of Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Seynor of Corvallis.

Holly Matinee Has Features For Kids

All the kiddies who attended the matinee at the Holly two weeks ago will remember how they were thrilled by the program presented there for them. They will be greatly interested in the announcement that Wednesday and Thursday there will be another big time at the Holly. Lots of features are in store for all kiddies who attend the matinee. First of all is the feature, "War Correspondent," featuring that popular team, Jack Holt and Ralph Graves. These two never fail to turn out lots of entertainment when teamed together and "War Correspondent" is no exception. In addition to the feature, there will be the third episode of "The Air Mail Mystery," something of great interest for the kiddies. Ripley's Believe It or Not and other features complete the screen program. Last but not least, as they leave the theatre, the kiddies will be given free of charge one of those delicious Gold Seal Creamery Eskimo pies.

Plans for the official world's championship pear packing contest are progressing rapidly. This is the first official contest of its kind ever to be staged in Medford and interest and rivalry among the packers is very keen. The contest will be held on the stage of the Holly theatre. Definite dates for the contest have not been set, although it is indicated that the contest will start about September 1. Rules and regulations governing the contest are being submitted to the heads of all packing houses and to the traffic association for their approval. Prizes will be awarded to the packing house entering the best team, and individual prizes will be awarded to the individual winners.
