

Moe's Golf Crown Knocked Off in First Round by Chick Evans

WESTERN CHAMP LOSES, ONE UP, IN HOT COMPETITION

Young Portland Ace Battles Veteran to Last in Effort to Stay in Running—Evans Is One Over Par

ROCKFORD, Ill., Aug. 24.—(AP)—Back on the scene of some of his greatest conquests, Charles "Chick" Evans, Jr., of Chicago today dethroned the youthful Don Moe, defending titleholder from Portland, Ore., one up in a sizzling first round match of the western amateur golf championship.

Evans, eight times winner of the western crown, shot 72, one over par, to eliminate Moe, twice titleholder. He jumped into the lead on the first hole with a birdie four, surrendered the lead on the second, fell behind on the 11th and then went ahead to stay at the 14th.

Johnny Lehman, of Chicago, tournament medalist, came in with a rush to win the last five holes of the back nine to eliminate Joel Shepherd, of Kalamazoo, Mich., 6 and 4.

ROCKFORD COUNTRY CLUB, ROCKFORD, Ill., Aug. 24.—(AP)—Thirty-two survivors of a dazzling qualifying round opened their drives for the western amateur golf championship today over the match play route. The defending titleholder, Don Moe of Portland, Ore., clashed with the veteran "Chick" Evans, Jr., of Chicago in the feature match of the initial round.

Aided by perfect golfing weather, Moe and Evans, who captured his first western crown before his rival was born, drew a large gallery. They started shortly after 9 a. m., central standard time.

Evans Wins First. Evans canned a 20-foot putt to win the first hole, a 525-yard stretch, with a birdie four, Moe taking the regulation five.

Moe squared the tussle on the second with a par four as "Chick" over-shot the green with his second.

Moe missed a 20-footer on the third for a birdie and Evans missed one from 10 feet to halve it in par four and stay even.

They halved the fourth and fifth with par four and three to keep even. Moe was hitting prodigious drives and Evans was putting well.

"Chick" bounded one up by spearing a par four on six. Moe missing a shot as his second blow hit the rough and his third was short.

Evans Up at Turn. They halved the seventh in par three and the eighth in fours, but "Chick" had to arch his third to within one foot of the flag to break even in the eighth.

The ninth was another half in par five and the veteran Evans rounded the turn in even par 36, and one up.

Moe started back by taking the first two holes with perfect golf to go one up as "Chick" hit his tee shot on the tenth into a trap and was short on the eleventh.

Evans squared the match again on the treacherous twelfth, where Moe's drive hit a bank and gave him an almost unplayable lie, costing him six strokes. Chick got a par five.

Evans Regains Lead. The thirteenth was another half in par four, but Evans speared a birdie four on the long 14th, with two perfect wood shots and two putts to go one up again.

Evans hit his tee shot on the 15th into a trap, but recovered nicely and then sank an eight-foot putt for a half in par four, keeping one up and three to go.

Both missed the green on the 130-yard 16th, but got halves in par three by sinking eight-foot putts.

Evans chipped in a 20-footer from the edge of the green to score a birdie on 17, but Moe equalled him by sinking an eight-footer. Evans was one up and one to go.

Both played the final hole in five, one over par, Evans winning the match, one up.

CUBS' NEW CHIEF VISIONS PENNANT IN VITAL SERIES

Three Victories Over Dodgers Would Place Grimm's Outfit in Safety Zone, Is Belief of Baseball Observers

By GAYLE TALBOT, (Associated Press Sports Writer)

Having been given a vote of confidence in the form of a contract to pilot the Chicago Cubs next season, Charley Grimm is afforded an opportunity the next three afternoons to thank his employers in the big, expansive manner.

All Grimm needs do to repay all past favors from the front office is to drive his Cubs to victory over the second-place Brooklyn Dodgers in their three-game "key series" starting today. Three straight from the Dodgers and they can just about start measuring Wrigley field for a world series that should break all attendance figures.

To Start Flag Drive. Three and a half games in front today, a clean sweep would place the Cubs virtually out of reach of the Dodgers, and in fine position to withstand any closing drive Pittsburgh might summon. Brooklyn goes into the series fortified by a two-day rest, determined to crack the Cubs and start a drive that will carry them to the pennant.

The Cubs beat the Phillies for the fourth straight time, yesterday, 5 to 1, as Pat Malone gave a warm, but weird demonstration of pitching skill. So successful was the veteran at making the Phils pop up that his side made only one assist, tying the major league record. He struck out eight and would have scored a shutout but for Hal Lee's home run.

Pittsburg Climbs. Pittsburg beat the Giants, 4 to 3, to climb within a game of the idle Dodgers. Larry French pitched his second victory of the series, while Gus Suhr supplied the winning runs with a double that came with the bases filled.

The Boston Braves climbed into fourth place by defeating St. Louis, 6 to 3. Wally Berger banged a home run and two singles. Washington and Cleveland gave the feature per-

SHE SETS WORLD DISCUS RECORD

In the post-Olympic games in Chicago, Jadwiga Wajsowska (above) of Poland hurled the discus 137 feet 3/4 inches to set a new woman's world record for the event—just a few minutes after "Babe" Didrikson had shattered the previous record with a heave of 133 feet 10 inches. (Associated Press Photo)

OAKS WHITEWASH PORTLAND DUCKS IN SERIES OPENER

(By the Associated Press)

The lowly Oaks whitewashed the first-place Portland club, 4 to 0, as Ludolph held the Ducks to four hits. The league leaders contributed to their own downfall with three errors which were responsible for as many Oakland tallies.

Butch Demaggio, San Francisco center fielder, batted the Ducks into a third place tie with Los Angeles Tuesday night. Coming up in the ninth with the score tied and the bases full, he knocked a home run, which precipitated a six-run rally, and San Francisco won the ball game, 11 to 8. Charley Moncrief was the victim of most of the Seal slugging, allowing 11 of the northerners' 12 hits before the ninth inning storm swept him from the mound.

Sacramento got away to a good start on another series by beating Seattle, 7 to 2. Before Rudy Kallio, tripe pitcher, settled down in the first inning, the Senators had three runs. Then Kallio held them scoreless until the ninth, when they broke away for four more.

Despite four errors, the Missions nearly won a ball game, but Hollywood nosed them out, 9 to 8, when Outfielder McNeely tripled in the ninth.

OLD STAGE QUEEN TO DRIVE PACER

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Aug. 24.—(P) May Irwin, famous in an older generation as the stage's queen of laughter, will drive her three-year-old fifty, a pacer, an exhibition mile during the Jefferson county fair here next week, according to announcement from the office of G. Alton Wood, superintendent of the racing program.

May—Mrs. Kurt Eisfeldt, operates a farm near Clayton where she spends her summers.

The climax of her career came when she gave what amounted to a command performance before President Wilson in the World war days. In a jest the President offered to make her "secretary of laughter in my official cabinet."
