

Local and Personal

Visiting in Walla Walla — Delwyn Stuart of this city is a guest this week of relatives in Walla Walla, Wash.

In Klamath Falls — Miss Theima Young, manager of Alaine's beauty shop in this city, is a business visitor in Klamath Falls today.

Returns Home — Miss Margaret McLin of near Klamath Falls, Mo., who was the guest yesterday of the Ralph Gravies here, left this morning by train, to continue home.

Register Autos — W. N. Blaylock of St. John, N. D., and A. E. Hawkes of Forest City, Iowa, registered their automobiles at the out-of-state bureau here yesterday.

Visits Brother — Thomas H. Canfield of St. Paul, Minn., arrived in Medford yesterday, en route to Crater lake to visit his brother, Chief Ranger David H. Canfield.

Claims Attorney — John E. Newman, claims attorney for the Southern Pacific company, with headquarters in San Francisco, is in Medford attending to business matters.

To Cheyenne — Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Robertson of Cheyenne, Wyo., who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Clark for the past few days, left by train last evening for their home.

Guests Leave — Mrs. W. G. Rees and Miss Ruth Duncan of Sacramento, who have been the guests of the H. E. Conger family of the West Side district since August 12, left by train Tuesday evening for the south.

Visit Dietrichs — Mrs. Alice Bundy and daughters Gladys and Norma of North Bend, Ore., arrived here by train this morning from the north to spend a few days as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dietrich and family.

Teachers Get License — Byron Emerson Sanborn, 27, of Twin Bridges, Mont., and Ruth Barbara Miller, 24, of Phoenix, obtained a marriage license at the county clerk's office yesterday. Both are school teachers. He is a native of Colorado and she a native of Nebraska.

Obtain License — A marriage license was issued at the county courthouse here yesterday to Ernest L. Brassi, 23, of Yreka, a native of that state, and Helen Alys Nunamaker, 19, also of Yreka, and a native Californian. Brassi gave his occupation as an operator of a motion picture machine.

License to Wed — The county clerk's office Tuesday issued a marriage license to Daniel D. Rice, Jr., 24, of Redding, Cal., and Carmelita Rodriguez, 18, also of Redding. Rice, a dairyman, is a native of Washington, and she a native Californian. Her parents were born in Spain, according to the records.

Hinman's Sister Visits — Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Benefield and daughter Viola of Seattle arrived in Medford from California yesterday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hinman before continuing to their home in the north. Mrs. Benefield is Mr. Hinman's sister. The Washington folk are leaving today for Seattle, having been on a vacation in California. Mr. Benefield is fire chief in the Washington metropolises.

To Medford — Those who registered their automobiles here yesterday from out-of-state points, and listed their Oregon destination as Medford, were Henry L. Davis of Montague, V. H. Berry of Copco, L. V. Ferguson of Anderson, Cal., Gage Stephen Charles of Pomona, Cal., Glenn Wilder of Exeter, Cal., and Mrs. J. H. Smith of Pullerton, D. C. Goddard of Anaheim, Cal., listed Talent as his destination, and Menno D. Schmidt of Mt. Park, Okla., as Jacksonville.

Bay City Folk — Many Californians giving their addresses as San Francisco were registered at the hotels here last night. They were George C. Barbour, M. Robin, Gertrude Field, Miss Eckhardt, Miss Campbell, R. M. Taylor, Jr., George Borneman, C. O. Richardson, E. W. Lombardi, Ed W. Plate, H. A. Doering, W. C. Phillips, Ralph Beck, D. G. Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Betts, J. E. Newman, Dr. and Mrs. F. B. Orella, Dr. and Mrs. T. Maginnis, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ashton and D. H. Phillips.

Leaves for School — John Reddy is leaving tomorrow for San Francisco, where he will enter San Francisco university for the fall term. Last year Reddy attended Gonzaga university at Spokane. Victor Sether, formerly an instructor in Medford high school, is now a professor at San Francisco university.

Officials Leave — Henry O'Malley, United States commissioner of fisheries, Washington, D. C., and J. R. Russell, Pacific coast superintendent, who have been in Medford several days, visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Daniels and inspecting the government hatchery at Butte Falls, left for California today, to continue their inspection trip.

Collision Reported — An automobile collision at the corner of Third and Bartlett streets last evening at 5:30 o'clock was reported at the city police station. George M. Fiske of rural route No. 1 and Claude Hoover were drivers of the two cars. The Hoover car, said to be traveling at a high rate of speed, turned over three times, the officers stated.

To Cariboo Lodge — Mr. and Mrs. A. Perry and Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Belknap leave Friday for the Cariboo hunting and fishing lodge on Bear lake in British Columbia to hunt for big game. They go by auto to the end of the Cariboo trail and then pack in 125 miles to the lodge, of which Mr. Perry is a part owner. There are 11 lakes near the camp and in addition to cariboo, they hunt the grizzly bear and other big game. They will be gone a month. Mr. and Mrs. Perry and son were successful on their trip there last year, but did not get a grizzly. They hope to this year.

From the South — At the hotels in the city, the following Californians had their names listed: Mrs. J. W. Dickenson, J. W. Gotwals, J. L. Wilkerson, Mrs. Kate Sprague, Mrs. B. T. Buge and O. A. Brown of Los Angeles, Dorothy Condon of Long Beach, Frank N. Brown of Berkeley, Mrs. R. J. Shaw of Hollywood, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Whitman of San Diego, O. Lacey of Oakland, A. Ando, Lucile Blackwell, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Kreuger of Sacramento, J. B. Praeger of Alameda, and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. De Luca of Atherton.

In College Shop — Several photographs of Miss Ellen Sersanos of Portland, house guest here last week of Miss Mary Hayes, have appeared in the Portland newspapers during the past several days. Miss Sersanos, who is one of the University of Oregon's most popular misses, is one of four students chosen to preside in the Meier & Frank college shop during pre-school days to advise students in their choice of clothes for the coming year on the campus. The other three students chosen represent other schools of Oregon and Washington.

Berry Arrested — H. I. Berry, 26, was arrested by city police at a local hotel this morning, and placed in jail, after complaints had been made against him. According to officers, Berry had telephoned some of his friends this morning that he would give them a "shot." The hypodermic needle found in his possession was said to have been stolen from the home of Miss Blanche Runels, county nurse.

From the Metropoles — Those from Portland, who registered at the hotels here last night were A. Hale, B. L. Yost, L. A. Cornett, Charles M. Charlton, F. C. Thomas, E. G. Johnson, R. B. Burnett, Don Wakertin, F. B. Wine, M. L. Ryckman, Miss Leah Leger, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McLain, M. J. Covey, H. H. Griffin, A. G. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lake, A. A. Soule, K. L. Cooper, M. M. Page, R. C. McCracken, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Matlin, A. B. Young, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Taylor, F. B. Hammond, R. J. West, L. Kaufman and E. J. Forsythe.

"Igloo," sensational film of adventure in the Arctic circle, made its debut at the Fox Craterian theatre today.

The entire cast of "Igloo" is composed of Eskimos living in the desolate settlement of Point Barrow, Alaska, and the picture is said to be at once the most intimate and the most exciting ever filmed in the snowy wastes of the Far North.

Leave for Coquille — Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Bray left this afternoon for Coquille where Dr. Bray will attend the northwest conference of the M. E. church, south, of which he is a member. Mrs. Bray was elected a delegate to the Women's Missionary society meeting, conducted at the same time. They plan to return Sunday afternoon, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Blanche Kathleen, who is now at Coquille.

On Business Here — Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Betts of San Francisco arrived in Medford this morning by train. Mr. Betts is resident manager of the Continental Casualty company, and is attending to business matters here.

On Short Vacation — Miss Edna Elfert, bookkeeper at the Hutchison Mercantile company store, is on a several days' vacation this week, to be near her mother, Mrs. Rose Elfert, who is ill at the E. N. Eldridge home.

Mr. Beck in City — Phillips Beck of the California Insurance company is a Medford visitor today. He reports the weather exactly to his liking and that he is glad to be in southern Oregon.

To Water Carnival — Several parties of local people plan to attend the water carnival to be held at the Twin Plunges in Ashland tonight. The event is being put on by the Ashland American Legion post and a big time is promised those who attend.

Return to Portland — Frank Wire of the state game commission, and Matt Ryckman, superintendent of hatcheries, who spent yesterday here and at Butte Falls, leaving this morning for Portland.

Guests from Afar — Robert Ross and G. K. Brobeck of Minneapolis, Minn., were among hotel guests from distant points. R. H. Switzer of St. Louis, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hirsch of New York city and James Garnett of Salt Lake City were others from distant points registered.

Bishop Is Home — Lee Bishop has returned from a three weeks' motor trip to Des Moines, Iowa, where he visited his parents. Mr. Bishop made the trip east via Los Angeles where he attended the Olympic games, and returned the northern route, covering a total of 6,900 miles.

To Ranger Station — Hugh B. Rankin, supervisor of Rogue River national forest, and Norman C. White, assistant supervisor of the forest, are spending today on the Applegate. Mr. Rankin is inspecting the road crew job, and Mr. White is at the Star ranger station.

Miss Holbrook's Guests — Mr. and Mrs. Claude Matlock of Lakeview, Ore., guests of Miss Dolores Holbrook for the past several days, are leaving this evening for their home. Mrs. Matlock will be remembered here as Miss Bernie Gordon.

Leaves for School — John Reddy is leaving tomorrow for San Francisco, where he will enter San Francisco university for the fall term. Last year Reddy attended Gonzaga university at Spokane. Victor Sether, formerly an instructor in Medford high school, is now a professor at San Francisco university.

Officials Leave — Henry O'Malley, United States commissioner of fisheries, Washington, D. C., and J. R. Russell, Pacific coast superintendent, who have been in Medford several days, visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Daniels and inspecting the government hatchery at Butte Falls, left for California today, to continue their inspection trip.

Collision Reported — An automobile collision at the corner of Third and Bartlett streets last evening at 5:30 o'clock was reported at the city police station. George M. Fiske of rural route No. 1 and Claude Hoover were drivers of the two cars. The Hoover car, said to be traveling at a high rate of speed, turned over three times, the officers stated.

To Cariboo Lodge — Mr. and Mrs. A. Perry and Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Belknap leave Friday for the Cariboo hunting and fishing lodge on Bear lake in British Columbia to hunt for big game. They go by auto to the end of the Cariboo trail and then pack in 125 miles to the lodge, of which Mr. Perry is a part owner. There are 11 lakes near the camp and in addition to cariboo, they hunt the grizzly bear and other big game. They will be gone a month. Mr. and Mrs. Perry and son were successful on their trip there last year, but did not get a grizzly. They hope to this year.

From the South — At the hotels in the city, the following Californians had their names listed: Mrs. J. W. Dickenson, J. W. Gotwals, J. L. Wilkerson, Mrs. Kate Sprague, Mrs. B. T. Buge and O. A. Brown of Los Angeles, Dorothy Condon of Long Beach, Frank N. Brown of Berkeley, Mrs. R. J. Shaw of Hollywood, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Whitman of San Diego, O. Lacey of Oakland, A. Ando, Lucile Blackwell, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Kreuger of Sacramento, J. B. Praeger of Alameda, and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. De Luca of Atherton.

In College Shop — Several photographs of Miss Ellen Sersanos of Portland, house guest here last week of Miss Mary Hayes, have appeared in the Portland newspapers during the past several days. Miss Sersanos, who is one of the University of Oregon's most popular misses, is one of four students chosen to preside in the Meier & Frank college shop during pre-school days to advise students in their choice of clothes for the coming year on the campus. The other three students chosen represent other schools of Oregon and Washington.

Berry Arrested — H. I. Berry, 26, was arrested by city police at a local hotel this morning, and placed in jail, after complaints had been made against him. According to officers, Berry had telephoned some of his friends this morning that he would give them a "shot." The hypodermic needle found in his possession was said to have been stolen from the home of Miss Blanche Runels, county nurse.

From the Metropoles — Those from Portland, who registered at the hotels here last night were A. Hale, B. L. Yost, L. A. Cornett, Charles M. Charlton, F. C. Thomas, E. G. Johnson, R. B. Burnett, Don Wakertin, F. B. Wine, M. L. Ryckman, Miss Leah Leger, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McLain, M. J. Covey, H. H. Griffin, A. G. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lake, A. A. Soule, K. L. Cooper, M. M. Page, R. C. McCracken, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Matlin, A. B. Young, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Taylor, F. B. Hammond, R. J. West, L. Kaufman and E. J. Forsythe.

"Igloo," sensational film of adventure in the Arctic circle, made its debut at the Fox Craterian theatre today.

The entire cast of "Igloo" is composed of Eskimos living in the desolate settlement of Point Barrow, Alaska, and the picture is said to be at once the most intimate and the most exciting ever filmed in the snowy wastes of the Far North.

Thrilling sequences in "Igloo" show the Eskimos engaged in hunts for whale, walrus and polar bear.

Hundreds of southern Oregon kiddies packed the Fox Craterian today for the first of two nickel matinees sponsored by the J. C. Penney store. Penney's Gang is featured at the matinees in addition to "Igloo" and free candy bars are distributed to the kiddies through the courtesy of their host, the J. C. Penney company.

Another Penney nickel matinee will be held at the Fox Craterian tomorrow afternoon.

Characters or situations that are entirely human and believable Alexander Kirkland, who portrays the madman, will have you biting your nails, and Ralph Bellamy and Violet Heming also give vivid characterizations. In fact, the acting of the entire cast is decidedly above the average.

Besides the feature picture, there will be a Bing Crosby short subject, giving his many admirers a chance not only to hear him sing, but also to see him.

Characters or situations that are entirely human and believable Alexander Kirkland, who portrays the madman, will have you biting your nails, and Ralph Bellamy and Violet Heming also give vivid characterizations. In fact, the acting of the entire cast is decidedly above the average.

Besides the feature picture, there will be a Bing Crosby short subject, giving his many admirers a chance not only to hear him sing, but also to see him.

"Devil's Lottery," and the Laurel-Hardy comedy, "The Music Box," shows for the last times today.

Characters or situations that are entirely human and believable Alexander Kirkland, who portrays the madman, will have you biting your nails, and Ralph Bellamy and Violet Heming also give vivid characterizations. In fact, the acting of the entire cast is decidedly above the average.

Besides the feature picture, there will be a Bing Crosby short subject, giving his many admirers a chance not only to hear him sing, but also to see him.

"Devil's Lottery," and the Laurel-Hardy comedy, "The Music Box," shows for the last times today.

Characters or situations that are entirely human and believable Alexander Kirkland, who portrays the madman, will have you biting your nails, and Ralph Bellamy and Violet Heming also give vivid characterizations. In fact, the acting of the entire cast is decidedly above the average.

Besides the feature picture, there will be a Bing Crosby short subject, giving his many admirers a chance not only to hear him sing, but also to see him.

"Devil's Lottery," and the Laurel-Hardy comedy, "The Music Box," shows for the last times today.

Characters or situations that are entirely human and believable Alexander Kirkland, who portrays the madman, will have you biting your nails, and Ralph Bellamy and Violet Heming also give vivid characterizations. In fact, the acting of the entire cast is decidedly above the average.

Besides the feature picture, there will be a Bing Crosby short subject, giving his many admirers a chance not only to hear him sing, but also to see him.

"Devil's Lottery," and the Laurel-Hardy comedy, "The Music Box," shows for the last times today.

Characters or situations that are entirely human and believable Alexander Kirkland, who portrays the madman, will have you biting your nails, and Ralph Bellamy and Violet Heming also give vivid characterizations. In fact, the acting of the entire cast is decidedly above the average.

Besides the feature picture, there will be a Bing Crosby short subject, giving his many admirers a chance not only to hear him sing, but also to see him.

"Devil's Lottery," and the Laurel-Hardy comedy, "The Music Box," shows for the last times today.

Characters or situations that are entirely human and believable Alexander Kirkland, who portrays the madman, will have you biting your nails, and Ralph Bellamy and Violet Heming also give vivid characterizations. In fact, the acting of the entire cast is decidedly above the average.

Besides the feature picture, there will be a Bing Crosby short subject, giving his many admirers a chance not only to hear him sing, but also to see him.

"Devil's Lottery," and the Laurel-Hardy comedy, "The Music Box," shows for the last times today.

Characters or situations that are entirely human and believable Alexander Kirkland, who portrays the madman, will have you biting your nails, and Ralph Bellamy and Violet Heming also give vivid characterizations. In fact, the acting of the entire cast is decidedly above the average.

Besides the feature picture, there will be a Bing Crosby short subject, giving his many admirers a chance not only to hear him sing, but also to see him.

"Devil's Lottery," and the Laurel-Hardy comedy, "The Music Box," shows for the last times today.

Characters or situations that are entirely human and believable Alexander Kirkland, who portrays the madman, will have you biting your nails, and Ralph Bellamy and Violet Heming also give vivid characterizations. In fact, the acting of the entire cast is decidedly above the average.

Besides the feature picture, there will be a Bing Crosby short subject, giving his many admirers a chance not only to hear him sing, but also to see him.

"Devil's Lottery," and the Laurel-Hardy comedy, "The Music Box," shows for the last times today.

Characters or situations that are entirely human and believable Alexander Kirkland, who portrays the madman, will have you biting your nails, and Ralph Bellamy and Violet Heming also give vivid characterizations. In fact, the acting of the entire cast is decidedly above the average.

Besides the feature picture, there will be a Bing Crosby short subject, giving his many admirers a chance not only to hear him sing, but also to see him.

Characters or situations that are entirely human and believable Alexander Kirkland, who portrays the madman, will have you biting your nails, and Ralph Bellamy and Violet Heming also give vivid characterizations. In fact, the acting of the entire cast is decidedly above the average.

Besides the feature picture, there will be a Bing Crosby short subject, giving his many admirers a chance not only to hear him sing, but also to see him.

"Devil's Lottery," and the Laurel-Hardy comedy, "The Music Box," shows for the last times today.

Characters or situations that are entirely human and believable Alexander Kirkland, who portrays the madman, will have you biting your nails, and Ralph Bellamy and Violet Heming also give vivid characterizations. In fact, the acting of the entire cast is decidedly above the average.

Besides the feature picture, there will be a Bing Crosby short subject, giving his many admirers a chance not only to hear him sing, but also to see him.

"Devil's Lottery," and the Laurel-Hardy comedy, "The Music Box," shows for the last times today.

Characters or situations that are entirely human and believable Alexander Kirkland, who portrays the madman, will have you biting your nails, and Ralph Bellamy and Violet Heming also give vivid characterizations. In fact, the acting of the entire cast is decidedly above the average.

Besides the feature picture, there will be a Bing Crosby short subject, giving his many admirers a chance not only to hear him sing, but also to see him.

"Devil's Lottery," and the Laurel-Hardy comedy, "The Music Box," shows for the last times today.

Characters or situations that are entirely human and believable Alexander Kirkland, who portrays the madman, will have you biting your nails, and Ralph Bellamy and Violet Heming also give vivid characterizations. In fact, the acting of the entire cast is decidedly above the average.

Besides the feature picture, there will be a Bing Crosby short subject, giving his many admirers a chance not only to hear him sing, but also to see him.

"Devil's Lottery," and the Laurel-Hardy comedy, "The Music Box," shows for the last times today.

Characters or situations that are entirely human and believable Alexander Kirkland, who portrays the madman, will have you biting your nails, and Ralph Bellamy and Violet Heming also give vivid characterizations. In fact, the acting of the entire cast is decidedly above the average.

Besides the feature picture, there will be a Bing Crosby short subject, giving his many admirers a chance not only to hear him sing, but also to see him.

"Devil's Lottery," and the Laurel-Hardy comedy, "The Music Box," shows for the last times today.

Characters or situations that are entirely human and believable Alexander Kirkland, who portrays the madman, will have you biting your nails, and Ralph Bellamy and Violet Heming also give vivid characterizations. In fact, the acting of the entire cast is decidedly above the average.

Besides the feature picture, there will be a Bing Crosby short subject, giving his many admirers a chance not only to hear him sing, but also to see him.

"Devil's Lottery," and the Laurel-Hardy comedy, "The Music Box," shows for the last times today.

Characters or situations that are entirely human and believable Alexander Kirkland, who portrays the madman, will have you biting your nails, and Ralph Bellamy and Violet Heming also give vivid characterizations. In fact, the acting of the entire cast is decidedly above the average.

Besides the feature picture, there will be a Bing Crosby short subject, giving his many admirers a chance not only to hear him sing, but also to see him.

"Devil's Lottery," and the Laurel-Hardy comedy, "The Music Box," shows for the last times today.

Characters or situations that are entirely human and believable Alexander Kirkland, who portrays the madman, will have you biting your nails, and Ralph Bellamy and Violet Heming also give vivid characterizations. In fact, the acting of the entire cast is decidedly above the average.

Besides the feature picture, there will be a Bing Crosby short subject, giving his many admirers a chance not only to hear him sing, but also to see him.

"Devil's Lottery," and the Laurel-Hardy comedy, "The Music Box," shows for the last times today.

Characters or situations that are entirely human and believable Alexander Kirkland, who portrays the madman, will have you biting your nails, and Ralph Bellamy and Violet Heming also give vivid characterizations. In fact, the acting of the entire cast is decidedly above the average.

Besides the feature picture, there will be a Bing Crosby short subject, giving his many admirers a chance not only to hear him sing, but also to see him.

Holt and Graves in Holly Hit

Ralph Graves, Jack Holt and Lila Lee in "War Correspondent"—A Columbia Picture

Very often we find that a couple of movie actors when paired together in a picture always prove to be a hit. This is the case with Jack Holt and Ralph Graves. These two have never failed to be a hit when placed together in a picture. "War Correspondent" now showing at the Holly theatre is their latest co-starring vehicle. It presents Ralph Graves as the wacko reporter who is covering difficulties between the Chinese Nationalists and a powerful rebel Gen-

HEY, KIDDIES!

Another Big Matinee at the Holly Tomorrow. Get in on this REAL TREAT. A Great Big Show, and Eskimo Pies to Boot! You can't afford to stay away.

COMING—COMING The Strangest Story Ever Told!

DOCTOR

EXTRATERRESTRIAL

Today and Thursday SENSATIONAL!

IGLOO

KIDDIES' 5¢ Matinees

"Penney's Gang" IGLOO and Other Features FREE CANDY BARS

M. H. S. BOYS Octette

PRICES Mats—Week Days 25¢ Evenings—Sunday Mats, and Holidays 35¢ Kiddies a Dime

Vote for your Favorite in the Lions Popularity Contest—Trip to Hollywood on United Air Lines plane for winner.

15c ANY SEAT ANY TIME

DEVIL'S LOTTERY Plus LAUREL—HARDY

STARK MAD! MURDEROUS!

'ALMOST MARRIED'

ALWAYS COOL ROXY..15c

STATE THEATRE NOW PLAYING DOLORES COSTELLO

We're Going Back to School in New OUTFITS from Ward's

Growing Girls' School Shoes $1.98

New Waterproof Fabricoid School Bags 89c

Girls' School Gym Bloomers Special at 79c

Boys' School SHIRTS 39c

Newest Shapes in These Girls' Felt Hats 98c

Girls' Coats $2.98

All Wool Tweed and Plain Coats $3.98

Run-Resistant Rayon Undies for Girls 39c

Boys' Pioneer Overalls 59c

Suede Cloth Jackets for Outdoor Wear $1.49

Boys' Shirts and Shorts Special, Each 19c

MONTGOMERY WARD & Co. 117 So. Central Phone 286 Madford, Ore.