Ruth Miller Weds B. E. Sanborn, Home Ceremony, Aug. 24

The home of Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Miller of Phoenix was the scene of a quiet wedding Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when their daughter Ruth Miller was united in marriage to Byron E. Sanborn, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sanborn of Ballantine, Mont. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. Hall of the Ashland Methodist church.

Following the ceremony, S. E. Smith sang "Oh, Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Smith.

The wedding was followed by a reception, after which Mr. and Mrs. Sanborn left by motor for Crescent City and the Oregon beaches before proceeding to their home in Twin Bridges, Mont.

Mrs. Sanborn is well known in this city. She graduated from the Medford high school and from Oregon State college. For the past three years she has been teaching in Twin Bridges high school.

Mr. Sanborn is a graduate of Inter-mountain Union college of Helena, Mont., and at present is the science and mathematics instructor in the Twin Bridges high school.

Guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. James Kahler of Spokane; Mrs. Kahler is Mr. Sanborn's sister; Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Smith and children of Scappoose, O.; and Mrs. R. B. Conklin. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Conklin are sisters of the bride; Rev. and Mrs. Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jammert of Ashland, and Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Webster of Phoenix.

Methodist Ladies' Aid Society Hears Splendid Program

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church met Tuesday for an enjoyable program and social hour. The meeting was opened with a hymn by Chas. Wesley and devotionals, led by Mrs. H. L. Gillette, included extracts from "The Fullness of the Blessing," a book by W. P. Mallaleu, devoted to hymns by Wesley.

Following the business meeting the program, arranged by Mrs. Heine, was presented. Seven girls entertained with songs and ukulele numbers. In the group were: Jeannette Root Kring, leader; Freda Hopkins, Margaret Hammett, Harle Hammett, Mary Alice Maguin, Frances Hope Kring and Corinne Harwood.

Miss Mae Phipps gave two readings from Richard Poesy Campbell's verses. Mrs. Florence Norman presented her two children, Jeannette, 4, and Robert, 2, in readings.

Ethel Grant, Bigler gave two readings, "Measles" and "Kids." At the close of the program refreshments were served by the Fidelity circle. The next meeting will be held September 27 and the Mary and Martha circle will entertain.

Mrs. Taylor Honor Guest at Surprise Party and Shower

Complimenting Mrs. L. C. Taylor on the occasion of her birthday, Mrs. M. M. Herman entertained with a delightful surprise party and handkerchief shower Monday. The rooms of her home were beautifully decorated in autumn flowers for the affair and two tables of bridge were in play during the afternoon.

Those present were Mrs. Taylor, the honor guest; Mrs. Violet Wilson, Mrs. Kenneth Murray, Mrs. J. C. Murray, Mrs. Chas. Ellis, Mrs. J. A. McDougall, Mrs. H. R. Barnes and the hostess.

Guild Bridge Club Plans Luncheon at Hamlin River Cabin

The attractive river cabin of Hugh Hamlin on the Rogue will be the scene Wednesday of this week of the meet of the Guild Bridge club, which will journey to the river during the morning for catered luncheon and an afternoon at cards.

Those planning to attend are asked to meet at the St. Mark's Parish house at 10 o'clock, sharp. From the parish house, they will motor to the Hamlin cabin, where Mrs. Hamlin and Mrs. Harry L. Butler will be hostesses at luncheon and bridge.

Mesdames Brayton Hostesses, Dinner Party on Thursday

A pleasant event of the past week was the dinner party given Thursday evening at Hollywood orchards, at which Mrs. Wm. Brayton and Mrs. Everett Brayton were hostesses.

Covers were arranged for 30 guests at the party.

Entertain at Normal School

Betty Jo and Doris Southwick of Talent were featured in a program sponsored by the Douglas County club at the Wednesday assembly of the Southern Oregon Normal school. Their first number was a violin-flute duet, "Marionettes," by Floy Little Bartlett, with Lorraine Pope as accompanist, followed by a reading, "Our Hired Girl," by Betty Jo.

These youthful entertainers have appeared at the Normal school in several programs and are always greatly enjoyed by the students and faculty.

Talisman Lodge To Meet Monday

Talisman Lodge No. 31, Knights of Pythias will meet Monday, Aug. 28th at 8 o'clock. All Knights and Docks are urged to attend as plans for an open meeting to be held Sept. 2nd will be made.

Plates That Please

Mrs. R. L. Hagar gave a sketch of the life of the late Joseph Clark. He served 50 years when death called him "home." He was a builder, an agriculturist, a preacher and a linguist—moving pictures of Africa.

Duet by Mrs. Finley and Mrs. Merriman, "The Hand That Was Wounded for Me," accompanied by Mrs. B. F. Neffe.

Churches and school of Africa, by Mrs. A. B. Mead; "Natives Live in a Great Spirit World," Mrs. P. H. Daily gave a report on the Northern Baptist convention at San Francisco.

"Give Us a Watchword of the Hour."

"Our Watchword is Evangelize."

The convention prayer, "God of Our Fathers, we lift our hearts to Thee."

She gave thoughts from Dr. Truett, president of the Southern Baptist convention. "Unreserved Service"—"What would that mean to you?" A Lifting Power—Banish your own weaknesses—as a pebble dropped in water makes larger and larger circles. "Strangers"—Do you welcome them? "Poor"—Are you ready to help? "Sick"—Do you give excuses?

True Weight—weighed on the scales of God. If true in our love and service the money will come. Unreserved service, rooted in religion, must reach out. Religion must save America.

"The Truth Shall Make You Free." Remember, "Ye are not your own, ye are bought with a price."

Everything you have belongs to Christ.

Closing prayer, Mrs. E. E. Wilson. The social committee presented the following:

Piano solo—Miss Helen Judy. Vocal solo—"Nobody Knows But Jesus," Miss Helen Judy. Self-denial fund—$4.50.

What the Girl Scouts Are Doing

Today marks the close of the three weeks' session of Camp Willpen Pines on the Applegate. This session was most successful both from the standpoint of enthusiasm and attendance and will long be remembered by the many girls who attended, and the parents and friends who visited.

All credit is due the most capable staff of counselors headed by Miss Alice Loeffler of Sioux City, Iowa, who was camp director, assisted by Miss Naomi Hohman of Portland, Miss Gertrude Winslow of Salem, and Miss Lena Mae DeGnath of Elkton. Classes and projects carried on by them included archery, swimming, pioneering, dramatics, dancing, nature study, handicrafts and camp newspaper. Great progress was made by every girl in one or more of these classes, the greatest achievement being that of learning to live, play and work together with others in harmony and co-operation.

The closing camp ceremony will begin promptly at 2:30 this afternoon and all those interested are especially invited to attend. Everyone is urged to be there on time as there is a great deal for the staff to do after the departure of the campers.

D. A. R. News

The official report of the 41st Continental Congress of the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, which was held in Washington, D. C., in April, has been received by Mrs. Volney Dixon, regent of Crater Lake chapter. The book contains about 250 pages of valuable information and inspiring reports of patriotic work accomplished.

The D. A. R. magazine is offering a special reduced subscription price in celebration of its 40th anniversary. Mrs. C. C. Murray, telephone 1461, is chapter magazine chairman, and will be pleased to receive subscriptions or to give information to those interested.

Crater Lake chapter's program for the year is being completed and the opening meeting will be held on Constitution day, September 17, at Mrs. Dixon's home, 526 West Tenth street. Mrs. F. G. Thayer, Mrs. Wm. W. P. Holt, Mrs. C. C. Murray and Mrs. W. D. Welch will assist the hostess.

MRS. ALLA PHIPPS PIONEER RESIDENT IS CALLED BEYOND

Mrs. Alla Rena Phipps, who died at her home on Crater Lake avenue Friday evening, August 26 following an illness of eight weeks from heart and kidney trouble, was one of the best known pioneers of southern Oregon, having come west by ox team at the age of one year.

She was born at Western Grove, Ark., April 9, 1858, and was aged 76 years at the time of passing.

While on the trip to Centerville, Calif., now known as Fresno, a band of Indians became hostile because her father refused to give them a steer, so the little girl was kidnapped. Her father gave the steer for her return.

The family went to Galveston, Tex., where Mrs. Phipps' four brothers enlisted in the southern army. They remained there until the close of the war, then journeyed to Springfield, Mo., where Mrs. Phipps' mother died.

The family resided in Western Grove until she was 19, when with her father and step-mother, she came to Jackson county September 22, 1878. The trip was made by mule team.

On November 22, 1878, she was married to Mathew Preston Phipps, an early pioneer here. He purchased the donation land claim in 1870 of John W. Hillman, the man who is said to have discovered Crater Lake. She had resided there for the past 57 years.

Mrs. Phipps has been a member of the Christian church since 14 years of age, and was a member of the local congregation.

At the time of her passing, all but three of her children were at her bedside.

She was the mother of twelve children, two passing away in infancy, and two later, John who died in 1910, and Elizabeth Spielman in 1901. Eight children survive, four sons, and four daughters, David I. Phipps, Preston and Lee of Medford, James Henry of American Lake, Wash., Mrs. Anna B. Lindsey of Bellingham, Wash., Miss Ellen Phipps of Medford, Mrs. Etta Hendershot of Eugene, Mrs. Isabella Hansen of Oakland, Calif., seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren, one sister, Mrs. Anna Denton of Port Klamath.

The funeral service will be conducted from the family residence on the Crater Lake highway, Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, by Rev. W. R. Baird and Rev. T. H. Theumler.

Active pallbearers will be James Owens, James Roberts, Gordon Schermerhorn, Harry Stanley, Louis Upp, and A. C. Hubbard.

Honorary pallbearers will be R. B. Beeson, George Nichols, J. D. Skinner, Fred Monnich, Charles Strang and Dr. Charles T. Sweeney.

Next Thursday will witness the formal dedication of the Jackson county court house, with a celebration under the sponsorship of the Medford and Ashland Posts of the American Legion, and according to the committee working on various phases of events, everything will be in readiness when the first event of the celebration occurs at ten a. m. Thursday.

The civic and industrial parade under the direction of Capt. C. Y. Tengwald, will be the first event of the program, and according to responses received by the committee, should be one of the longest parades held in Medford for several years.

Nearly all civic organizations in Medford and Ashland are preparing entries, and many commercial and industrial organizations will be represented. The parade will move from Grape and 6th streets at 10 o'clock, promptly, marching east on 6th to Riverside, south on Riverside to Court, thence west on Main to the main house and disband.

The formal dedication services will start at eleven o'clock with Post Wait, commander of the local Post of the Legion, presiding, and the program will include such men as W. H. Gore, Medford, Guy Gordon, Roseburg, I. E. Vining, Ashland, and other local and visiting state and county officials, as well as many of the civic leaders of Southern Oregon. Music for the occasion will be furnished by the Medford Gleemen, the new 40-voice male chorus directed by James Stevens; the Medford Elks band and the Ashland Scotch Kilite band.

A baseball game is scheduled for the afternoon, with a fine boxing card at the Army, promoted by Mack Lillard, followed by the dedication hall at the Oriental Gardens. Legion committee chairman in charge of the various events include Wilson Wait, general chairman; Cole Holmes, concessions and advertising; Capt. C. Y. Tengwald, parade; Jackson County Court, dedication ceremonies.

CRATER VISITORS SEE PICTURES OF WINTER

A capacity crowd filled the Community House at Crater Lake Thursday night and enjoyed an excellent program which featured an hour of Copco movies. The pictures, which were presented by H. L. Bromley, advertising manager of The California Oregon Power company, included several hundred feet of Crater Lake snow scenes taken when the Medford and Klamath entrances were officially opened this year. Some interesting "Copco Current Events" scenic pictures of Lake of the Woods and a big salmon run on the Rogue river made up a picture program of special interest to the many tourists present.

will arrive in Medford today to be guests of Miss Ruth Koozer for two weeks. Mrs. Davis is remembered by many friends here as the former Dora Conroy.

Next Thursday will witness the formal dedication of the Jackson county court house, with a celebration under the sponsorship of the Medford and Ashland Posts of the American Legion, and according to the committee working on various phases of events, everything will be in readiness when the first event of the celebration occurs at ten a. m. Thursday.

The civic and industrial parade under the direction of Capt. C. Y. Tengwald, will be the first event of the program, and according to responses received by the committee, should be one of the longest parades held in Medford for several years.

Nearly all civic organizations in Medford and Ashland are preparing entries, and many commercial and industrial organizations will be represented. The parade will move from Grape and 6th streets at 10 o'clock, promptly, marching east on 6th to Riverside, south on Riverside to Court, thence west on Main to the main house and disband.

The formal dedication services will start at eleven o'clock with Post Wait, commander of the local Post of the Legion, presiding, and the program will include such men as W. H. Gore, Medford, Guy Gordon, Roseburg, I. E. Vining, Ashland, and other local and visiting state and county officials, as well as many of the civic leaders of Southern Oregon. Music for the occasion will be furnished by the Medford Gleemen, the new 40-voice male chorus directed by James Stevens; the Medford Elks band and the Ashland Scotch Kilite band.

A baseball game is scheduled for the afternoon, with a fine boxing card at the Army, promoted by Mack Lillard, followed by the dedication hall at the Oriental Gardens. Legion committee chairman in charge of the various events include Wilson Wait, general chairman; Cole Holmes, concessions and advertising; Capt. C. Y. Tengwald, parade; Jackson County Court, dedication ceremonies.
