4-SQUARE CHURCH RESOURCES TAXED BY CHARITY CALLS

Applications for help from needy Medford citizens are increasing to such an extent at the Four-square Gospel Light House, 401 East Fifth street, that Mrs. Estelle Jones, pastor, today issued an appeal for clothing, furniture, foodstuffs, and money.

The Light House is particularly in need of shoes, children's shoes, beds, bedding, foodstuffs of all kinds, and funds. Those connected with the institution give their services without pay and every article donated to this institution reaches people who need help. There is an unusual demand for men's clothing and the institution has given away practically all it has received.

A commissary is operated for families of Medford. No family ever is turned away. At present fruit is being canned on Wednesday afternoons and the institution is in need of volunteer workers in order that this activity may be carried on daily until the season closes.

Milk also is distributed daily to needy families. The Light House can use practically any article of clothing or furniture which is donated. The institution is badly in need of funds and has been ministering to Medford people at a remarkably low expense.
