

On Dedication Day Card

Bearat Baker, Seattle colored heavyweight, who will meet Jimmy Byrne, Marshfield's hard rock, in the main event of the Dedication day fight program here, Sept. 1. Baker boasts a long string of knockouts in the Puget Sound country and his prospective appearance here has brought forth an early demand for seats. Four long distance calls were received Saturday from out-of-town fans. Byrne arrived in Medford last night to train for the bout.

GOLF LINKS OPEN TO ENTRANTS IN COMING TOURNEY

The Rogue River Valley golf course will be thrown open to all contestants in the Southern Oregon tournament, beginning this morning. By paying their entry fee they will be entitled to play until the following Monday, September 5. Jack Hueston, professional, announced yesterday. There are 49 entries up to date, and the list includes the following names, from out of town, which have been checked: D. W. Beckel, B. W. Lakin, W. O. Hayes, E. C. Correa, McCLOUD, Cal., and Scott Hamilton, Grants Pass.

A balance of 20 or more has not been checked. H. Chandler Egan, southern Oregon's real golfer, will be leaving for the national amateur championship at the Baltimore country club, Md., about August 30. He has been playing sub-par golf during the past several weeks, which will carry him a long way, if not to win.

Ladies' day for the fall tournaments will start August 31 at the local course, and luncheons will be served as usual.

HELENE FORSAKES AMATEUR STATUS

SEATTLE, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Helene Madison, queen of the waterways, late yesterday definitely forsook the ranks of amateur swimming and announced she would seek more goals in a new field, motion pictures. "I have engaged in my last amateur race," she said, with a long sigh of relief. She revealed that she had placed her contract in the hands of Ivan Kahn, of Hollywood, who has developed numerous motion picture personalities. She said she had received her first definite offer, although she declined to reveal its nature.

The 20-year-old swimming star, after receiving a greeting and ovation on her return here yesterday unparalleled in the city's annals, will make her final Seattle appearance on Sunday in two exhibition swims.

BLAUFUS WINNER OF OREGON TITLE

GEARHART, Ore., Aug. 27.—(AP)—Playing better than par golf all the way, Bill Blaufus, 21-year-old Portlander won for his second successive year the Oregon coast golf championship, defeating George Will, Portland, 7 and 8, here today. Mrs. B. E. Eva, Portland, also took her second successive Oregon coast title in the women's tournament, winning over Miss Jean Flageman, Portland, 10 and 9.

Blaufus, whose putting was virtually flawless, executed the first 18 holes in 70, two under par, and finished 4 up for the morning session. He took the first nine this afternoon in 35 and was two under par on the three holes played on the fourth nine.

MRS. HILL WINS WESTERN TITLE

PEORIA, Ill., Aug. 27.—(AP)—Mrs. Opal Hill of Kansas City, conquered Lucile Robinson, Des Moines, Ia., college girl, today to win permanent possession of the women's western golf championship trophy. Outlasting her younger opponent, who had a one-hole lead at the end of the morning round, Mrs. Hill won 3 and 1 to retain the title she gained last year and in 1929.
