Sea Hop Just a Jaunt for Hutchinsons

Four Years Of Flying Makes Family Right At Home Aboard Plane

Flying from Floyd Bennett Field, Brooklyn, to London, England, in easy stages doesn't perturb the George tchinsons. They've made longer hops than that before. Here is shown the "flying family" and the route of their Atlantic adventure. Hutchinson and Kathryn, S, are on the right and Mrs. Hutchinson and Janet Les,

NEW YORK. — (AP) — This flying business is truly a "family affair" with the George Hutchinsons.

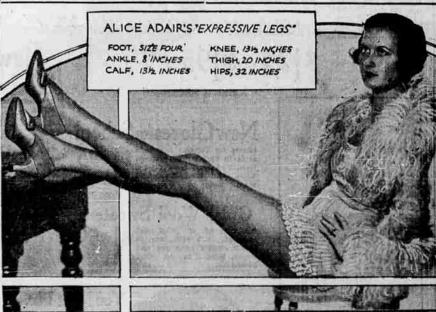

From father to the youngest daughter—Janet Lee, aged 6—the whole family is right "at home" in the air. And their flight from the United States to London in easy stages really isn't such a feat for them after all —for they, have toured the country together, touching every state capital.

That flight around the nation covered a mere 21,000 miles and required some seven months to complete. So a trip of $200 miles in a week or less is just a jaunt to Mr. and Mrs.

Hutchinson and the two girls. Eath thee, The Hutchinson mand they den't like purseles. There's no eating between meals for them, either. The air-touring Hutchinsons have been flying together for four years. They all went the same colored suits when the plane turned over as it his another the country together, touching every state capital. The two girls get restless, too, when the plane turned over as it his one was hurt. Carrying out the family scheme, the Hutchinsons have they don't go up often, Mrs. Hutchinsons have the words "Flying loss seven months to complete.
