HIGH TRIBUTE FOR COUNTY VOICED BY SPEAKERS OF DAY

Prof. Vining Lauds Spirit and Courage of Citizens in Building — Edifice a Monument to Sparrow

With simple and impressive ceremonies the new Jackson county courthouse was formally dedicated today in the presence of 8000 people from all sections of the county, and distinguished officials. Inspection of the magnificent edifice began as the exercises ended.

In a masterly and inspiring address, Prof. I. E. Vining of Ashland paid tribute to the pioneer citizenship of Jackson county, and the aggressive courage of the late beloved County Judge Alex Sparrow. Prof. Vining declared that the 'pioneers of Jackson county planted the principles of justice, in their first efforts for law and order, in the days of the gold rush, that are now regarded as landmarks by authorities on jurisprudence the world over.'

Memorial to Sparrow
Prof. Vining, in the course of tributes to the sturdy character and aggressiveness of the late Judge Alex Sparrow, said: 'The courthouse will ever stand as a monument to manhood and his character as a citizen.'

The address of Prof. Vining was regarded as the outstanding effort of his career as a public speaker, and was a masterpiece of sincerity and logic.

As a representative of Governor Julius L. Meier, State Treasurer Rufus C. Holman spoke from the platform, where was assembled leading state officials and citizens of southern Oregon counties.

Stelwer Lauds Building
United States Senator Frederick Stelwer in a short address declared the courthouse was a magnificent testimonial to the 'courage and Americanism, in a time of stress, of Jackson county citizenship.' Senator Stelwer declared that 'Jackson county, when many other communities of the land were prone to lag in civic enterprises, went ahead.' The senator also paid a high tribute to the enterprise of William H. Gore of this county for his efforts in securing the O-C tax refund monies with which the courthouse was built.

Tribute to Gore
Guy W. Gordon of Roseburg, active with Mr. Gore in securing the funds, also paid a glowing tribute to his ability and his efforts. Gordon declared that without the effort of Mr. Gore 'there would have been no O-C funds for any of the western Oregon counties.' Mr. Gore also spoke.

H. J. Bean, chief justice of the state supreme court, in brief remarks paid tribute to 'the spirit of the pioneers' that guided the builders of the structure.

Visiting officials from southern Oregon counties in attendance, as well as members of the county court, former county court officials, Mrs. Alex Sparrow and her mother, Mrs. Wittington, were presented to the audience by W. S. Bolger, president of the Chamber of Commerce, who acted as chairman.

Flag Presented
On behalf of the Medford post of the American Legion, George Codding presented an American flag to the county court in a few well chosen words, and on behalf of Jackson county County Judge C. B. Lamkin accepted the colors.

The flag raising was in charge of Capt. C. Y. Tengwald, Co. A, 18th Inf., O. N. G.

Following this ceremony, a plaque in honor of the late County Judge Alex Sparrow was unveiled.

The official dedication was by the Medford post of the American Legion, Wilson Wait, commander.

Addresses were carried to the audience by a public address system, through the courtesy of the Texas company.

The invocation was pronounced by the Rev. Alex G. Bennett and the benediction by the Rev. W. H. Easton.

LONG PARACHUTE PLUNGE THRILLS AIR MEET FANS

CLEVELAND, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Of all the thrills of the national air races, probably none gives the spectators such a breath-taking anxiety as the daring leaps of the parachute jumpers.

Though many of the world's greatest fliers make their planes do tricks that even birds can't equal, it's the boys who jump out who give the crowds their greatest "kick."

And of all the jumpers, none have made the air race crowds gasp like H. E. (Spud) Manning, who plunges two miles downward in a death-defying leap before he opens his parachute.

Manning was in fine form yesterday and leaped from an autogyro at 11,000 feet, with a bag of flour grasped in his arms. Gathering velocity each fraction of a second, he shot toward the ground, marking his progress by releasing a trail of flour.

Rolling over and over in the air, Manning dropped to within 800 feet of the ground before he pulled the cord which opened the umbrella-like fabric above his head. He landed unharmed, while thousands of spectators arose and cheered.

DAY OF PARADE TO BE HOLIDAY

SALEM, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Governor Julius L. Meier announced through his executive offices here he would issue a proclamation declaring September 13 a state holiday. This is the date of the American Legion convention parade in Portland.

In issuing the proclamation the governor said he would be following a precedent established by governors of other states in which national Legion conventions have been held. Request for the proclamation was made by the executive committee in charge of the Legion convention, which opens in Portland September 12.

NEBRASKAN WILL HEAD R. F. C. FARM CREDITS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Ford Hovey of Omaha, Neb., today was appointed head of the agricultural credit organization of the reconstruction corporation.

McCarthy said the Kansas City agricultural credit corporation would include part of the state of Kansas, but the exact lines had not yet been determined. Loans on feeder cattle from almost all of the western states probably will be handled at Kansas City, he said, because of the convenience of the city to the men who buy cattle as feeders.

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—(AP)—President Hoover and Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York may read the champion fish story of all times—at least that's the way the yarn is described by the "world's worst fisherman."

M'ADOO TO DUEL TUBBS FOR SEAT IN U. S. SENATE

Former Member of Wilson Cabinet Carried Into Political Comeback by Democrat Wave of Popularity

By Pearce Davies.
(Associated Press Staff Writer.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 1.—(AP)—William Gibbs McAdoo, member of the Woodrow Wilson cabinet, now carried on the wave of a political comeback, will contest November's general election with young Tallant Tubbs, San Francisco rope manufacturer, for the senate seat now held by Samuel M. Shortridge.

The Associated Press tabulation of unofficial returns from Tuesday's primary closed today, with only 336 precincts unrecorded of the state's 10,551. The figures indicated definitely the nomination of Tubbs, Republican, and McAdoo, Democrat, and the defeat of Shortridge, Republican, for 12 years California's junior senator.

Well over half of the state's 2,665,000 registered voters participated in the primary. Incumbent congressmen seeking re-nomination won, with one exception, and that fight was close. California this year elects 20 congressmen in place of the 11 now serving, due to reapportionment.

In the ninth district unofficial returns gave Glenn M. DeVore only 11 votes more than H. E. Barbour, incumbent. The totals were 10,339 and 10,328. Absent voters' ballots to be counted September 6 may determine the outcome. Only one precinct of 525 was missing in the unofficial returns.

The fight for the senatorial nominations found the Republican vote split four ways, not counting the trailing fifth candidate, while McAdoo had but one formidable rival. Here is the situation at a glance:

Republicans:
Tallant Tubbs, 214,157.
Samuel M. Shortridge, 201,645.
Albert P. Schuler, 196,198.
Joe Crall, 184,272.

Democrats:
William Gibbs McAdoo, 262,478.
Justus S. Wardell, 114,919.
Robert P. Schuler, 84,025.
Maurice J. McCarthy, 19,407.
Parson M. Abbott, 11,872.
Annie Riley Hale, 7,578.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Sept. 1.—(AP)—The Veterans of Foreign Wars national encampment, in session here, passed a resolution today "seriously censuring" federal government officials for using the army to drive "bonus marchers" from Washington, D. C., last July. The encampment adopted a similar resolution yesterday.

STEIWER'S SHOE CAUSE OF DELAY

United States Senator Frederick W. Steiwer today refused to take part in the dedicatory parade with one heel off his shoe, and although the procession had been delayed a half hour waiting his arrival on the late train, he fingered his heelless shoe and insisted on being taken to a shop for repairs before he greeted his friends.

Senator Steiwer's friend, Ben Sheldon, saw that the heel, which had fallen off as he stepped from the train, was replaced in short order. The solon was then whisked down the street in the Sheldon automobile, and "placed" in the parade with secure heels.

FARMER STRIKERS REFUSE TO OBEY ORDER FOR TRUCE

Activities Continue On Two Fronts in Iowa — Pickets Remain On Highways in Region of Sioux City

DES MOINES, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Despite official orders declaring a nine day truce, activities continued today on at least two fronts in a farmers' non-selling campaign which seeks higher prices for farm produce.

Near Council Bluffs, 29 pickets declared they would remain. William Gill, secretary of the Woodbury county Farmers Holiday association said picketing of highways near Sioux City would continue.

After the release of five pickets from the Clinton jail and receipt of an order to cease holiday activities pending a meeting of middle western governors in Sioux City September 9, holiday adherents in Clinton county early today abandoned picketing.

Near Des Moines there were no holiday workers on the highways. Milo Reno, president of the National Farmers Holiday association and John Chalmers, chairman of the Iowa Farmers Holiday association last night telegraphed county leaders of the movement to cease operations in the "strike" which began in Iowa Aug. 8.

The message follows: Governor Turner's edict that Iowa highways must be kept open and that "mob rule" would not be tolerated. Picketing continued on road leading into Sioux City from Nebraska and South Dakota.

GREEN CREEK UNIT PAVING CONTRACT WILL BE LET SOON

Paving of the new Pacific highway grade between Green creek and the Josephine county line, on the Grants Pass side of the Savage Rapids dam, is to be let at the September 28 meeting of the state highway commission.

The job is one of a number designated by the highway commission to be let at the meeting late in September. It was declared at the resident maintenance engineer's office in Grants Pass that paving, and the cutting of the old pavement where it crosses the new highway grade at Green creek is the only piece of work left to complete. The line change within Josephine county.

The new grade was run through the Green creek section a year ago and the fills were left to settle, traffic continuing until now on the old alignment, one of the most winding and dangerous pieces of pavement left on the Pacific highway and one doubly menacing when pavement is wet or frosty.

Now the fills had had their natural shrinkage and the plan will be to cut through the present pavement where it crosses the new grade on its dirt bridge, and use the material thus excavated to build up the fills beyond to their proper levels, laying the pavement in a direct line through from Green creek to the county line. The work has been delayed a half hour waiting his arrival on the late train, he fingered his heelless shoe and insisted on being taken to a shop for repairs before he greeted his friends.

CAVEMEN SCORE HIT IN PARADE IN FUR ATTIRE

Dick Belden, "Chief Rising Buck" of the Grants Pass Cavemen, led a squad of his fur-clad stone-age cohorts to Medford this morning and sprang a coup by appearing in the parade lineup brandishing their war clubs and uttering guttural war whoops. The Cavemen had a big hit with throngs lining the streets.

Belden said after the parade that due to the fact that a number of Medford men belonged to the famous booster organization it was deemed fitting that the squad invade Medford to participate in the courthouse dedication celebration.

An editorial in the Mail Tribune lauding the Cavemen some time ago was quoted by the organization's leader as giving rise to the hope that eventually the Cavemen may represent the entire southern Oregon area.

"In fact," said Belden, "we feel that we should enable the whole region to profit by the publicity which the Cavemen may be able to secure from time to time by their activities and appearance in distant cities."

Medford Girl's Recovery Borders on Modern Miracle

By Eva Nealson.
Mary Frances Holloway has come home! With a splash, and a dash, through the Nalatorium pool, she let Medford in on her secret yesterday. Turned a fancy somersault in proof, and sped, fish fashion, under the water for yards, then lifted a pert freckled nose from the bubbles and dared the gang to "try and drown" her.

The secret is: Mary Frances has learned to use her body—arms, legs and all, which were of little help to her a few months ago, when she left Medford for Warm Springs, Ga. She returned from the health resort yesterday morning with her mother, Mrs. W. A. Holloway, who motored south for her.

DEDICATION DAY PARADE DEPICTS AREA'S PROGRESS

Days of 1854 and Present Contrasted in Long Line of March — Throngs Line Streets to View Passing

The "golden" days of 1854, the "glamorous" days of '34, and the industrial days of 1932, were represented here today in quaint and stirring floats, as the dedication parade, first event in the extensive program for formal opening of Jackson county's new court house, moved through the city at 10:30 o'clock.

Several thousand residents of Jackson county, and former residents, gathered here from all sections of the state, thronged the streets from an early hour, the parade being delayed by the late arrival of the train, bringing to the dedication Senator Frederick W. Stelwer.

The history of the southern Oregon country was reviewed for all of them as the line of march continued from North Holly down Sixth street to Riverside, down Riverside to Main and on to the impressive new structure on South Oakdale and Main streets.

Famous Surrey in Line.
In the famous Iah survey, which carried beaux and belles to the leading social events of southern Oregon, long before Medford was realized, members of the Jacksonville (Grazed) portrayed the dedication of 1854, which marked the opening of the old court house in Jacksonville at a fancy ball New Year's eve.

The same ivory fan, which cooled the brow of some little waltzer that evening, was carried today by Miss Claire Hanley, who with Erma Niedermeyer took the back seat of the survey. The two shading themselves with a black lace parasol, which also

WILL ROGERS SAYS:

BISHOP, Cal., Aug. 31—California always did have one custom that they took serious, but it amused the rest of the U. S. That was in calling everything a "ranch." Everything big enough to spread a double mattress on is called a "ranch."

Well, up here in these mountains where there is lots of fishing, why every house you pass they sell fishing worms and it's called a "worm" ranch. Well, I always did want to own a "ranch," so I am in the market for a good worm ranch. I never was so hot as a cowboy, but I believe I would make a good "worm herder."

If I can land our presidents as clients, I could make it sound like England when they sell to the king — "Rogers" worm ranch, purveyor to his excellency, the president.
