

Society and Club Events Reviewed for Week

Edited by Eva Nealon

Miss Myra Caley and Mr. Getchell To Marry, Sept. 8

Leading in interest events of the week, socially speaking, is announcement of the marriage of Miss Myra Caley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Collins Caley of Seattle, to Bayard Getchell of this city, which will be solemnized Thursday, September 8, in the northern city.

Mr. and Mrs. Getchell and daughter Gloria are leaving for Seattle Monday to attend the wedding.

The bride-elect is a popular member of Seattle's younger set. She is a niece of Miss Katherine Caley of the St. Nicholas school and a graduate of the University of Washington, where she was affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

Her marriage to Mr. Getchell comes as the culmination of a university romance, the two having been on the campus during the same years. Mr. Getchell is a member of Chi Psi fraternity and a prominent golfer in Seattle and Medford circles. Since graduation from the university he has made his home in Medford.

Miss Katherine McGowan of Seattle will attend the bride, and George Parsons of Medford and Seattle will be Mr. Getchell's best man at the wedding.

Following the wedding the bride and groom will leave for a several weeks' motor trip. They will be at home to their friends in Medford at their West Main street residence after October 1.

Californians Here Honor Polo Player At Tucker's Lodge

To honor the birthday of Clifford M. Weatherwax of Burlingame, internationally known polo player, a party of society folk from the south arrived here yesterday morning on the Snaata to journey up the Rogue river to "Rogue's Boats" where they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nion R. Tucker.

Included in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O. Tobin, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford M. Weatherwax, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Birch, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Cameron and Miss Helen Garritt. Mr. Tucker returned here with the party, having spent the past few days in Madera with Mr. Tobin for the opening of the dove shoot.

Johnstons Honored At Dinner Given By Edgells On Monday

For the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. T. Elster Johnston, whose wedding was an event of midsummer here, Mr. and Mrs. Corbin Edgell were hosts at dinner Monday evening at their home on Berkeley way. Covers were arranged for Mr. and Mrs. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. H. Chandler Egan, Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Roberts, Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Emmens, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Biddle and Mr. and Mrs. Edgell.

Another interesting event of the week among members of the river colony folk continue to lend interest to the late summer season, preventing the dreary fall, which usually precedes arrival of autumn.

Miss Helen Patton was among members of the younger set entertaining last week. She was hostess Thursday evening for swimming and dancing to a party of 18 friends.

Miss Patton Gives Swimming, Dancing Party On Thursday

Those enjoying the swim in the Patton pool, followed by several hours of dancing, were: Misses Helen McAllister, Joan DeLoach, Kathryn Robinson, Catherine Brandt, Lois Nichols, Mollie Brown, Doris Patton, Evelyn Leonard and the hostess, and Messrs. Bob Boyle, Dick Sleser, Wilton White, Russell Brown, Don Wold, Walt Young, Phil Quisenberry, Tom White and Francis Dallaire.

25 Children Enjoy Lawn Fete Tuesday

For a merry lawn fete, twenty-five children gathered at the home of Mrs. Royal E. Bebb on South Grape Tuesday afternoon. Chairs, pillows, umbrellas and other lawn furnishings in brilliant colors formed an ideal setting for the event and games and contests were followed by several musical selections. LaMure Beck, Mrs. H. O. Furucker and Mrs. Bebb entertained.

Miss Ruby Stone

Shangle Photo.

As winner of the Lions club contest Miss Ruby Stone has been chosen popularly queen of this city, where she is a charming member of the younger set. As winner of the contest she will enjoy a trip to Hollywood by plane and a tour of the motion picture studios. She will be crowned queen at a grand ball scheduled by the Lions club for the near future.

Many Participate In Dedication Of New Court House

The important event of the past week was the dedication of Jackson county's new court house, in which representatives of all social groups participated. A number of the women acted as hostesses at the official opening of the Alex Sparrow Memorial within the court house.

The beautiful clinic for children was visited during the afternoon by several thousand guests, who were received by: Mrs. F. Corning Kenly, Mrs. Nellie Jacobs, Mrs. J. C. S. Willis, Mrs. F. D. Wagner, Mrs. H. E. Green, Mrs. John Gammill, Mrs. I. E. Schuler, Mrs. W. H. Higgins, Mrs. Fred Middlebush, Mrs. E. G. Burgess, Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, Miss Harriett Sparrow, Mrs. Leonard Carpenter, Miss Helen Bullis and Mrs. C. L. Davis.

Garden Club Float Wins Admiration Of Large Audience

A beautiful contribution to the court house dedication parade in Medford last Thursday was the float entered by the Medford Garden club, which brought to the public a refreshing glimpse of summer's beauty just as it is on the verge of waning.

The truck for the float was donated by Foster and Kleiser, the garden furniture by the Monarch Seed and Feed company, and the decorations, designed by Thos. Swann.

Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, head of the Garden club committee, working on the project, was assisted by Mrs. H. P. Spilver, Mrs. Porter J. Neff, Miss Helen Bullis, Mrs. L. Bundy, Mrs. Fred Cummings, Mrs. C. C. Darby and Mrs. Warnock.

Pythian Club Has Jolly Supper For Mrs. Olive Gaylord

In honor of Mrs. Olive Gaylord, who is leaving soon to visit friends in the middle west, the Pythian club entertained at supper and cards Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wortman.

About 30 guests attended the affair and prizes at cards were awarded Mrs. Joyce and Wm. Swartz.

Miss Bashaw is honored at party. On Wednesday evening, friends of Miss Doris Bashaw entertained with a delightful party honoring her 18th birthday. The group gathered at the home of Mrs. A. H. Gregory on East Jackson street.

Those present for the evening included Miss Bashaw, Miss Hazel Cassidy, Miss Dorothy Daniels, Miss Ardyce Lindley, Miss Velma Smith, Miss Virginia Gregory, Miss Dorothy Culy, Miss Lois Carter, Miss Julie Davis, Miss Alleen Latham, Miss Marjorie Gregory, Mrs. Elsie Bashaw and Mrs. Gregory.

Miss Holt Here For School Opening. Miss Christine Holt has arrived for the opening of the Medford schools, in which she is instructor, and is guest at the home of her aunt, Mrs. E. B. Pickett. Mrs. Pickett, who is now visiting in Eugene, is expected home in the very near future.

Stearns-Saunders Wedding Surprises Many Friends Here

Coming as a complete surprise to their many friends, who were anticipating a large wedding Sunday, was announcement last evening of the marriage of Miss Roberta Stearns, daughter of Dr. R. W. Stearns, to Charles Edward Saunders, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Saunders of San Jose, Calif.

A telegram from Grants Pass to Dr. Stearns yesterday morning announced that the couple had married. Elaborate plans had been made for a home wedding at noon today, but the bride and groom eloped Saturday morning and are en route to coast points for their honeymoon.

Misses Vilm and Elliott Entertain For Miss Chadwick

Misses Betty Vilm and Amy Elliott were joint hostesses Wednesday evening at the latter's home at a bridge party, feting Miss Shirley Chadwick, who left for Portland Thursday after being guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Belle Littrell, here, for the summer.

There were two tables of cards in play during the evening and prize for first honors awarded Miss Janet Mann.

Those present were Misses Shirley Chadwick, Virginia Lindley, Mildred Drury, Barbara Holt, Margaret Mary and Janet Mann and Georgia Webb and the hostesses.

Miss Robinson Honored, Bridge Party On Friday

Miss Jane Robinson, who left yesterday morning with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Robinson for their home in Salem after a month's stay here, was the inspiration Friday evening for a lovely bridge party, given by Miss Marian Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rawley Moore.

There were two tables of cards in play during the evening and high prize awarded Miss Doris Apton.

Miss Paley, Local Artist, Praised By Bay City Musicians

Miss Margery Paley has just returned from San Francisco where she has been studying violin with Mrs. N. Florence Alexander. While in San Francisco Miss Paley made several appearances and won the approval of many musicians.

On Sunday, August 28, Miss Paley played for an afternoon musical at the studio of Mrs. Alexander. Miss Paley's charming personality and manner of playing won the favor of a highly critical audience. The Rode Concerto was played with great skill and clearness of technic. Another number was the Adagio from the Moonlight Sonata. It was in the Adagio that Miss Paley had the best opportunity for displaying the richness and depth of her tone. She was assisted by little Ross Alexander with a 'cello solo. Ross is nine years of age and has many promising signs of exceptional talent.

Centerville Folks Visit Friends Here. Mr. and Mrs. Ora P. Flak and Mr. and Mrs. Noah S. Nelson of Centerville, Iowa, arrived in Medford Tuesday evening for a visit with Mrs. Irene Volk and Mrs. Edna Beeson, also at the H. E. Conger home. They will accompany friends to Crescent City, Oregon Caves, and Bandon, for the week end, leaving here Tuesday for Seattle, Wash., returning to Portland for the American Legion convention. On their return home they expect to visit friends in California.

Medford Misses Leave For San Francisco. Misses Evelyn Herman and Maxine Robinson left Friday evening for San Francisco, where they will be guests of friends for 10 days.

College Women To Resume Work For New Season

Mrs. P. O. Swedenburg, president of the College Women's club of the Rogue River Valley invites all members for the first meeting of the club, Saturday, September 10th at the home of Mrs. Theodore Malmgren at Phoenix.

A program of modern fiction and poetry has been arranged by Mrs. Fred Wagner of Ashland, Mrs. L. E. Williams and Mrs. George Canode. Mrs. E. M. Drysdale will review the 1931 Pulitzer prize poem, "The Flowering Stone," by George Dillon, a very young writer of twenty-seven years.

Close of Vacation In Medford Brings Much Entertaining

Bridge was enjoyed yesterday afternoon by 16 members of the school set, who gathered at the Leonard home, where Misses Lois Nichols and Evelyn Leonard were hostesses, marking the close of the vacation period with much festivity.

Invited to the affair were Misses Kathryn Robinson, Catherine Brandt, Helen McAllister, Barbara Fields, Helen Patton, Dorothy Linbeck, Doris Patton, Virginia English, Helen Stearns, Mollie Brown, Catherine Chaney, Joan DeLoach, Jean Quisenberry and Marjorie Mulholland.

Childers' Observe 60th Wedding Day With Reunion Here

The home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Childers, 531 Spencer St., will be the scene today of an interesting reunion, when their eight children and their families gather here to join the Childers in celebrating the sixtieth anniversary of their wedding, which will be realized December 11.

The party has been arranged prior to the wedding date, to enable all the relatives to attend. Present will be the Childers' seven sons and one daughter; Bert Childers of Middletown, Cal., Guy Childers of Fresno, Cal., Gene Childers of this city, Elmer Childers of Medford, Raymond Childers of Redwood City, Cal., Harry Childers of San Francisco, Clem Childers of Medford and Mrs. Vivian Moran, also of this city.

W. C. T. U.

The W. C. T. U. will meet in regular session Thursday, September 8, at 2:30 p. m. at the Y. W. C. A. building.

Mrs. Gailhue of the Salvation Army will tell of the recent visit of Evangeline Booth to the Pacific coast. The Misses Martha and Ethelwyn Gailhue, both very talented musicians, will contribute musical numbers to the program. Arrangements for the county meeting will be discussed at this meeting.

Sunday, September 4, 2:30 p. m. at the Baptist church, Mrs. W. L. D. McCullough of Berkeley, Cal., will give a complete review of the national convention of the W. C. T. U. recently held at Seattle. Mrs. McCullough is a fluent speaker and will bring a message well worth hearing. Everyone is welcome to attend these meetings.

Mrs. Porter and daughter, Gertrude Porter and daughter, Jean, of Portland, former residents of Medford, are being entertained this week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Patton, having arrived a few days ago from Portland.

Larry Mann's Leave For Northern Home. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Mann, who have been much feted guests in Medford during the past week, left yesterday for Klamath Falls and will continue from there Monday to their home in Eugene.

ROCKEFELLER, 3RD, AND FIANCEE

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Huntington Hooker of Greenwich, Conn., announced recently the engagement of their daughter, Blanchette, to John D. Rockefeller, 3rd, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr. The wedding will take place this fall. (Associated Press Photos)

Dinner Followed By Bridge Party At Barnes Home

On Wednesday night Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lee Barnes entertained at dinner at their home on Glen Oak Court. There were twelve guests. Dinner was followed by bridge and high score was held by Mrs. Leo Mahar of San Francisco and Wm. Isaacs.

"Just Plannin'" on Air Again Monday From Station KNX

"Just Plannin'", the first radio play written by Miss Helen Norris, local authoress, will be presented by the Georgia Field players over station KNX, Hollywood, Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

This play, one of Miss Norris' favorites, has been broadcast from stations in all parts of the United States including the NBC studios of New York. The Monday presentation, however, will be the first by KNX. Grace Hampton, well known actress, will take the role of the mother in the production.

The play, when originally presented over KGO, brought a wonderful response and Miss Norris, the author, received in answer more than 1000 fan letters.

Residents of the valley, who heard the play during the previous broadcast, will welcome another opportunity to listen to the radio gem.

Ashpoles Return From Motor Trip. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ashpole and daughter, Pauline, have returned to the city from a six weeks' motor trip through Idaho, Utah, Wyoming and Nevada. While in Rigby, Idaho, they attended the golden wedding celebration of Mrs. Ashpole's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Cordon.

Wenonah Club Has Luncheon. The Wenonah club met at the home of Alena Erskine Thursday, Sept. 1. A delicious luncheon was followed by a short business meeting, conducted by Bee Blackburn, vice president. The afternoon was concluded by a few games of bridge. Florence Rush and Mattie Luman assisted the hostess.

Dr. H. P. Coleman Chiropractic and Physiotherapy OREGON LICENSE 264 CALIFORNIA LICENSE 3029 12 YEARS IN MEDFORD, ORE.

Misses Wood Of Portland Feted

For the pleasure of Misses Ann and Maryhelen Wood, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Wood of Portland, who are their house guests this week, end, Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Kelly entertained last evening with a dancing party at Twin Pines.

A motor trip to Crater Lake has been arranged for today in their honor. They expect to leave for Portland Monday.

Buffet Supper Is Enjoyed Saturday

The home of Dr. R. W. Stearns was the scene last evening of a buffet supper, honoring Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Saunders of San Jose, Calif., who are guests here of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Green.

Those attending were Dr. and Mrs. Saunders, Dr. and Mrs. Green and son Sandy, Dr. Stearns and daughters Helen and Kathryn, Mrs. Elizabeth Young and Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Boggs and son Carter.

Miss Boone Honors Guest From Ohio

Miss Golda Boone entertained at dinner Friday evening at Heath's cabin on the Rogue, where she is spending the summer. Guests were invited to dinner to greet Miss Charlotte Latourette of Athens, Ohio, who arrived a few days ago to visit Miss Boone, with whom she attended the University of Oregon several years ago.

Covers were placed for Miss Ella Bawlings, house guest of Dr. and Mrs. P. G. Thayer, Miss Arlene Butler, Miss Margaret Hensley and the honor guest and hostess.

Mrs. Patton Has Party For Class

A jolly party was enjoyed Wednesday afternoon at the Hamilton Patton home, when Mrs. Patton was hostess at swimming and a marshallmallow roast to members of her Sunday school class of the Presbyterian church.

Present for the afternoon's entertainment were Misses Amy Elliott, Barbara Holt, Betty Vilm, Janice Shreve, Doreen Elwood, Mary Cummings, Mollie Brown, Lois Remington, Shirley Littrell and Mignon Phipps.

Mrs. Alexander Leaves for School. Miss Roberta Alexander, who was summer guest of Mrs. Josephine Clark returned to her home in San Francisco last Sunday to enter Frederick Burk school. Miss Roberta also enjoyed her visit as house guest of Mrs. J. White at her summer home, Brookdale, also several days with her aunt, Mrs. Margaret Seeler, at her summer home on Rogue river, and with Mrs. F. Anderson, at the Foot hills orchard.

Miss DeLoach Fetes Miss Stratton At Lovely Luncheon

A delightful event of the past week for members of the younger set was the bridge luncheon, given Wednesday by Miss Joan DeLoach at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. S. Sumpter Smith, in compliment to Miss Caroline Stratton of Portland, who was guest of relatives in Ashland and Medford.

A corsage of late summer flowers marked the place of each guest at the attractive table, decorated in bouquets of marigolds, zinnias, roses and other garden flowers.

Following luncheon bridge was enjoyed and prizes awarded Miss Jean Quisenberry and Miss Helen McAllister. The honor guest, Miss Stratton, was also presented with a gift.

Guests present were: Misses Stratton, Jean Quisenberry, Mildred Gritsch, Margaret Warner, Doris Patton, Virginia English, Helen Stearns, Evelyn Leonard, Lois Nichols, Helen McAllister, Katherine Robinson and Helen Patton.

Miss Stratton and Miss DeLoach were schoolmates at St. Helen's hall last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Bullis Visit Relatives Here. Interesting guests in Medford from the south are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bullis and children, John and Sarah, who arrived some time ago from Whittier, Cal., to visit Mr. Bullis' sisters, Mrs. Ralph Boutelle and Miss Helen Bullis.

SAN FRANCISCO'S NEW HOTEL OXFORD

Every Room with Tub and Shower
Single $2.00 & $2.50
Double $2.50 & $3.00
Twin Beds $4.00
NOTHING HIGHER
Garage Service
Theodore A. Hase, Mgr.
MARKET and MASON STS.

Nandie's Grille

Special Sunday Dinner
50c and 65c
Also French and Italian Dinners
Try our Club Breakfasts
15c to 50c

Will Buy Bosc-Anjous
at the office of Medford Fruit Co. Inc.
Medford Warehouse
Corner 10th and Front Phone 92

Secure From Lawless Hands Safety Deposit Vaults

WHEN you have placed your valuables—jewelry, silver and important papers—in a safety deposit box here, you know that they are absolutely protected. Don't leave your treasured possessions at the mercy of thieves, or danger of destruction by fire.

The First National Bank
"A Departmentized Bank"

ADRIENNE'S FALL Fashion Revue
On Living Models
WEDNESDAY
SEPTEMBER 7TH—9:00 P. M.
AT THE Direction FOX WEST COAST THEATRES, FOX CRATERIAN
—On The Screen—
"Blondie of the Follies," with
Marion Davies & Robert Montgomery

David Macowsky
of the Grenadier-Macowsky Company, San Francisco, will be in Medford to assist with Adrienne's Fashion Revue
See his beautiful line of Coats, Suits, Street Dresses, Afternoon and Evening Gowns at the Hotel Medford, Wednesday, Sept. 7