"Back Street" Will Show, Holly; Drum Corps Booked Soon

"Back Street" is one of the finest novels ever written and that no doubt is the reason for its great popularity. Made into a motion picture, this story is even greater than it was in book form. In "Back Street," which comes to the Holly tomorrow for a four-day engagement, this story comes to life and one watching the picture actually feels that they have lived the experiences of this girl. Featured in the cast are Irene Dunne and John Boles. It is difficult to say much about "Back Street" in a short story. The picture covers a range of 27 years and a lot of events transpire during that time. Irene Dunne was never better than she is in "Back Street," and John Boles definitely places himself in a class with the best.

Medford people will have a sample of what the national Legion convention in Portland has to offer Saturday when the famous South Pasadena drum corps, crack aggregation that has won national honors, appears on Medford streets and on the stage of the Holly. The Pasadena Legionnaires have a clever little program to offer Holly patrons Saturday evening as an added attraction. According to Manager John Niedermyer.

'GRANDPA' HOLST MARKS BIRTHDAY AT HUGE PICNIC

"Grandpa" Henry Holst of Sams Valley, who has resided in that area for the past 26 years, celebrated his 81st birthday anniversary with a huge picnic Sunday afternoon at his home in that district, attended by 150 guests. Annually many of his friends are summoned to the valley for the birthday celebration.

Tables were arranged in the shade of the old apple tree, and the special friends of Mr. Holst sat with him at one table. A huge birthday cake was presented to him, and after Grandpa Holst had cut it, the cake was passed to the guests.

During the afternoon Rev. E. Iverson of Medford gave a talk, which was enjoyed by the guests, and in which he told of Grandpa Holst's life in the valley.

Included among the guests were his niece from Minnesota; his daughter, Mrs. Max Schultz; and his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Holst.

Previous to establishing his residence in Sams Valley, Grandpa Holst resided in the Dry Creek district. He came to this country from Germany, where he was born.

Holding his love for beauty, Mr. Holst still maintains the attractive flower gardens about his residence, which are greatly admired by his guests and neighbors.

As one of his accomplishments, the Sams Valley man has written a number of poems in German.

forces were thrown into retreat in late trading in the stock market today, after a bold rally early. Gains of $1 to $4 a share were largely erased, and several issues closed $2 to $3 under Saturday's final prices.

The market seemed to tire easily during the afternoon and in the last hour reactionary tendencies prevailed, despite efforts of the bullish professionals to hold up the coppers.
