

MEDFORD PILOTS LAUD ASTORIA SPEEDBOAT MEET

Harold Grey and Floyd House, Medford motor boat pilots, returned to this city last night after competing in outboard races at Astoria, Ore., and Cathlamet, Wash., over the week end. Both regattas were outstanding successes, according to the local pilots, and numerous thrilling spills marked the races, which were held in the Columbia river.

Although northern newspaper accounts of the races announced that Harold Grey lost the motor from "Irish Luck" in a thrilling finish of the free-for-all race and divers were scouring the bottom of the river for the racing engine, Mr. Grey said today that the clamp broke when he was making a final burst of speed on the last lap, dropping the motor into the water. It was securely tied to the boat, however, and recovered when coast patrol boats picked up Grey and towed "Irish Luck" to the docks.

"Irish Luck" was well in the lead for second place when this accident occurred. In previous heats Grey had already secured enough points to place third in this feature race.

Following the Astoria regatta, Harold Grey entered his boat in the Cathlamet races after cleaning the motor and securing a new engine clamp and secured fourth place, Floyd House, driving "House Affire," was unable to get his motor in tip-top form and did not place in the Astoria regatta.

'DRUNK' PROVES FLEET OF FOOT

State police today were checking up on the fingerprints of John Colvin, a fruit worker who last night, after questioning, for alleged drunken and disorderly conduct on the Jacksonville highway, sought to evade arrest by flight when about to enter an auto for transit to the county jail. Colvin was captured in an alley back of the fire hall.

The state police suspect that Colvin's desire to escape was prompted by fear of a more serious charge than drunkenness. The authorities allege that his fleetness of foot belied his intoxication.

Arrested with Colvin were Alice Barnes, 35, landlady of a local rooming house, and Michael Archer, of Riverside, Calif., a fruit worker.

The trio was arrested, following a telephone report, that they were "raining red" on the Jacksonville highway.

BROWNS PROVIDE LIONS' PROGRAM

The Lions' club program today was furnished by Brown—Miss Genevieve Brown, winner of the local Atwater-Kent addition, and Fred L. Brown of the American Automobile association, being guests at the regular noon luncheon.

Miss Brown sang a delightful solo, playing her own accompaniment on the piano, and also played a piano solo.

Mr. Brown pointed out the startling number of automobile accidents during the past year, and told of the association's work to educate the people on safety.

He also told the club members that the association would establish traffic lanes here in the near future for the testing of brakes, and steering apparatus.

The club also considered the establishment of a soup kitchen this fall, but action was delayed until a later date.

NEW YORK MAYOR USES SALARY AXE

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Joseph McKee, mayor for less than a week, pulled tight today the purse strings of "six years of spending," as he called it, slicing $15,000 a year from his own $40,000 salary and setting a $12,000 a year maximum for other offices under his control.

By these salary slashes and allied economies he said an annual saving of $2,000,000 a year would be effected.

City employees receiving $2,000 a year or less are to be protected in their present incomes, he said.

In some cases the pay cuts amount to more than 50 per cent. This is true of the corporation counsel and superintendent of schools, each of whom now receives $25,000 a year.

LEVY ON ENGLEHARDT FOR FINE IN ASSAULT

A certificate of levy against John C. Englehardt of the Eagle Point area for $250, imposed as a fine upon his conviction by a jury for assault upon a neighbor, was filed with the county clerk today. His nephew, Carl Englehardt, was found guilty by a jury of the same offense and was paroled. The case was listed in the spring primary as one of the "breakdown of law and order in Jackson county" cases.

Prof. Englehardt is a well known resident of the Eagle Point district.

state inspector every few months was inadequate to pass on the types and conditions of the animals killed. The matter was referred for consideration to the health committee, of which W. M. Clemenson is chairman.

The specific charges in the matter presented by Attorney Neff showed that guests at a local hotel were unable to sleep until after a nearby theater had closed, because the noise emitted from the sound equipment was so loud. The proposed measure asked that the noise be confined to the theater after nine o'clock.

The ordinance was turned over to the license committee, C. O. Darby, chairman.

To Adopt Rental Plan

After announcement was made that several proposals had been presented City Superintendent Fred Scheffel in connection with rental of the old hall, a meeting of the building committee was called for this evening, with Dade Terrett presiding.

The committee was given power to work out a plan for rentals, and at the completion, is to call a special meeting of the council this week, to act on the recommendations. Mayor E. M. Wilson announced he would be out of town on Friday and Saturday, and named Councilman Clarence Meeker to act in his place. If the meeting is called for either day.

It was voted to give the A. F. and A. M. permission to bury a fuel tank under the sidewalk on West Main at Holly, in compliance with city and insurance regulations.

The council voted to accept the request of nine business houses that they be allowed to pay their delinquent property taxes on the installment plan.

NAME MEDFORD IN OREGON WELCOME FOR LEGIONNAIRES

Another example of the advertising which Medford and the Rogue River valley will secure through the National American Legion convention, which opens in Portland next Monday was shown in Medford today in the attractive restaurant and hotel menu cards produced by the Oregon products committee of the convention commission, which are now being distributed to local restaurants, where they will be featured for the next two weeks.

The menu cover title reads, "Welcome to Oregon and its agricultural wealth. Our finest, high quality Oregon grown products are listed on this menu." Medford pears, dairy products are listed and pictured on the end and other outstanding Oregon products are listed and pictured on the cover, while the back page features a map of the state of Oregon, showing the localities where the various products are grown.

Medford has been particularly fortunate in the menu set-up, according to R. C. Fowler, county agent, who received the menus this morning, as this is the only city named on the front cover, and one of the few designated on the map on the back.

Local restaurants and hotels which desire copies of this menu for use and distribution in their various places of business may secure them from the Medford Chamber of Commerce, and all are urged to make use of this attractive advertising medium featuring Medford pears.

NEW YORKERS COME RIGHT INTO HEADQUARTERS TO DEMONSTRATE

And that's where Ralph Hitchcock comes in. He listens to their songs, rolls their slogans over his tongue, looks at their cartoons, blinks non-committally at some of the strange inventions, and thanks one and all for their interest.

Filing cabinets in Hitchcock's office are crammed with the offerings including such engines of propaganda as a transparent soap enclosing a picture of the Democratic candidate and a tricky little gadget that is supposed to speak for itself, a rose on a piece of felt.

Some of the suggested slogans are:

"Vote for Roosevelt and roast beef."
 "Reject Roosevelt, reject the public."
 "Make everything rosy with Roosevelt."
 "Vote for Roosevelt and results."
 "Revive with Roosevelt."
 "Forget Roosevelt on election day and you forget yourself!"
