BLIGHT CLEAN-UP HELD ADVISABLE

Pear growers should at this time make every effort to clean up all cases of blight that may be in their orchards states L. P. Wilcox, county agent.

As soon as fruit is harvested the trees are subjected to more active activity and a dormant blight canker may often times become quite active.

KIDNAP SUSPECT TO BE RETURNED

George I. Grandon, arrested Friday by state police at Ashland, for investigation, following the sale of a diamond ring to a waitress there, is wanted in California on a warrant alleging child-stealing and extradition to that state will be sought.

Sheriff William Truesher of Oakland, Calif., advised local authorities Grandon is held in the county jail, pending disposition of his case.

The child, a three-year old boy, is also held. With his father, he is hitch-hiking from Idaho to California.

Grandon, according to the authorities, left with the boy last July, and on a previous occasion took the child, but was released without prosecution.

Joan At Holly

When Joan Blondell, star of "Big City Blues," starting at the Holly theatre today, wants to shed a few pounds she goes on a diet of skimmed milk and baked potatoes.

"Big City Blues" will be at the Holly Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. A very interesting group of short features have been arranged which will include a Ted Husing Sport-plant, and Ruth Etting in "The Mail Bride."

Ross Turney, who gave his home address as San Francisco is held in the county jail, for alleged transportation of liquor. Turney was arrested near Rogue River on the Pacific highway, early Saturday morning, by state police.

In a trailer, liberally covered with American Legion banners, state police say they found 24 gallons of bottled moonshine, and nine cases of gin. Turney said he was headed for the national convention of the Legion at Portland.

Captain Lee Bown of the state police, said in his opinion, the Legion banners on the side of the liquor car, were "camouflage, to cover up run running during the heavy auto travel to the national convention at Portland."
