GIBBS AND WHITE WARM UP TONITE IN KLAMATH RING

Klamath Falls fighting fans will see Medford's hard hitting battlers in action tonight.

Jack Gibbs is meeting Jack Young, Reno colored scrapper who has a large following in the Falls city due to his sensational milling.

Herb White, the local pride is taking on Ernie Bailey of Aberdeen, Washington, in the special event of the Klamath Falls card.

Wednesday night at the local armory the two glove throwers will return to their local ring and take on two more tough customers of the cauliflower industry.

A bonus ten round bill is the feature of Wednesday's card here. Gibbs is taking on Jack Crim for ten rounds or less and Herb White is paired against Jimmy Lewis, a fast lightweight from Spokane in the other ten round clash.

Ernie Newland who is trying his hand at the feather pushing business is tackling Ray Henderson of Portland. Both boys are green and nothing but slugging is expected when these two meet. Both boys are near the two hundred mark.

A grudge fight between two local men is in prospect. They are not fighters and not looking toward a fist career, just a personal grudge to settle, and want to fight for nothing. Mack Lillard, the promoter is lining them up, to support the Wednesday card.

BEAVERS' LEAD CUT BY WEEK END LOSS

(By the Associated Press)

Hollywood won three week-end games from Portland to take the series six games to two and reduce the Beavers' lead in the league to five games. The Stars took the first Sunday game, 6 to 5, breaking a tie with the winning run in the last half of the ninth. In addition to outpitching two Beaver hurlers in the nightcap, Emil Yde, star hurler tripled in the seventh and final frame and scored the tying run which paved the way for victory. The Stars won, 4 to 3. Batteries: First game, Portland, Bowman, Prudhomme, Jacobs and Fitzpatrick; Hollywood, Shellenback and Basler; second game, Peterson, Shores and Palmisano, Yde and Basler.

Sacramento's Senators climaxed their recent string of victories by taking three games over the week-end to jump from fifth to third place. They beat the Angels twice Sunday, 4 to 2 in the morning at Stockton, and 9 to 2 at home in the afternoon.

TIPS on Contract

CERTAINTY OF A GRAND SLAM
By Tom O'Neil.

A vulnerable grand slam, the success of which his partner felt was certain, is among the accomplishments of Bob Murray of Ely Culbertson's staff.

Many contracts to make grand slams have been defeated by distributional freaks, such as bunched trumps or a void in an adversary's hand. So great is the risk that many tournament players never try to make grand slams.

SPEED KINGS AT AIR RACES

GRANGE INSTITUTE FOR RECREATION NEEDS A SUCCESS

The four-day recreational institute conducted at the Central Point Grange hall last week under the auspices of the county home demonstration agent's office, closed Friday evening with a large group of representatives in attendance. John Bradford, field representative of the national recreation association of New York City was in charge of the sessions.

This was the third recreational institute to be conducted in Jackson county and the purpose of the gathering was to train leaders in the various communities to carry out this work.

Classes were conducted for advanced training in group singing, music appreciation, folk dancing and active games. Lectures on the psychology of recreation and application to the various age groups were given by Mr. Bradford.

He aggregated the groups according to ages, as follows: 15 to 24, 24 to 32, and 32 to 50.

Mr. Bradford emphasized appropriate programs for large crowds, and for smaller active groups, as well as age groups.

The instructions given by Mr. Bradford will be carried on by the leaders of various communities, who will meet the first Wednesday of each month as usual, to plan the recreational programs.

Music for the gatherings was furnished by a Victrola loaned through the courtesy of the Palmer Music house.

The committee, headed by Claire Hanley and Arnold Bohnert, served watermelons at the close of Friday evening's session.

Attending were Mrs. Mahal C. Mack, county home demonstration agent, Mrs. Jack O'Brien and Herbert Gilmore, Applegate Grange; Mrs. Lee Port and Mrs. L. C. PACIFIC GENERALS PONDER NATIONAL GUARD ECONOMY

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 12.—(AP)—Details of the ninth corps area's share in the $3,000,000 reduction in operating costs of the National Guard were being worked out here last night by the adjutant general of the district. Executive officials of the units in the district were in session with Major General George E. Leitch, Washington, D. C., administrative head of the National Guard.

The meetings, called for general Leitch by Major General George A. White, in charge of the National Guard forces in the northwest, had reached a program on the reduction, but particular phases of the economy program had not been completed, it was announced.

The session will continue tomorrow, after which many of the visiting army officials will remain for the balance of the national American Legion convention, which opens here tomorrow.

CUBS AND YANKEES BOTH NEAR FLAGS

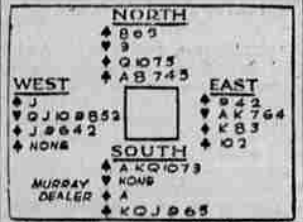

(Associated Press)

The major league finish line still is fourteen days away but, with a little luck, both pennant races may be decided this week.

The New York Yankees are almost certain of clinching the American league flag within the next few days. They need only two victories to eliminate the sole remaining contender, the Philadelphia Athletics and Washington Senators. In the National league, the Chicago Cubs are confronted with a sterner task. They need ten victories to eliminate the Pittsburgh Pirates, or any combination of victories, which, coupled with Pittsburgh defeats, totals ten. The odds are against any definite decision in the National league this week but it can be done if the Pirates hit the skids.

The Cubs stretched their lead over the idle Pirates to six full games yesterday by trimming the Brooklyn Dodgers, 3-1, behind Guy Bush's eight-pitching. Gabby Hartnett's home run with Manager Charley Grimm on the park, gave the Cubs their winning margin in the fourth inning. The defeat all but eliminated the Dodgers from the race.

The Yankees made no progress in their march to the American league flag for they were stopped by Wes Ferrell and the Cleveland Indians, 5-4. Ferrell, making his first appearance after a ten days suspension, held the Yankees to eight hits and won his 21st game of the season. Johnny Allen suffered his first defeat in eleven starts.

Murray opened the bidding with two spades. He had a two-suiter which met the requirements of a bid commanding partner to keep the bidding open at least until a contract for game should be reached. West passed and north bid two no-trumps, showing lack of normal support in spades, lack of a biddable suit, lack of much strength. East passed and Murray then bid three clubs.

West passed and north bid four clubs. East passed and Murray offered a little slam in clubs, and then north bid seven clubs, the contract. The slam was a lay-down with any opening.

When Murray bid little slam, it seemed as certain to north as anything can be in bridge that the only essential thing in doubt to Murray was the ace of clubs.

West and east would have saved points by a sacrifice contract of seven hearts, but if they had made such an offer Murray would have bid seven spades and succeeded, obtaining a greater count. The spade grand slam, however, would have been a venture. Had all the spades not in the north and south hands been in the west hand the contract could have been beaten.

North's assistance to the club bid and his grand slam bid gave definite assurance that Murray would lose no tricks in clubs.

Non Party Study Of Economic Ills

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—(AP)—Calvin Coolidge and other prominent national leaders, it was reliably reported in Wall Street today, are expected to become members of a non-partisan commission for the purpose of making a thorough study of the country's railroad problems, with a view of recommending remedial legislation at the next session of congress.

The output of natural gasoline in the United States in 1931 amounted to 1,181,000,000 gallons, a decrease of 17 per cent from 1930.

WALKER'S BOIL TO DELAY MAX BOUT

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—(AP)—A boil on Mickey Walker's left arm probably will force postponement of his 15-round bout with Max Schmelling until Friday, Sept. 23. The match, originally scheduled for Sept. 19, will be held in Madison Square Garden bowl on Long Island.
