

HUMANE SOCIETY ANNUAL SALE TO START SATURDAY

With a greater supply of quality merchandise on hand than on any previous year, the annual Candle Light sale of the Jackson County Humane society will open tomorrow morning at 8:30 o'clock in the Main street shop, formerly occupied by Bradford's jewelry store.

Committees in charge of the sale were busy today arranging the unusual offering of clothing, linens and household furnishings included in the sale list.

While prices are lower to correspond with depression purses, the merchandise is of high quality and more varied than at any previous sale of the society.

All things included in the sale have been dry cleaned or washed and are ready to be taken into the home, or worn. Lamps, vases, rugs, china, accessories for kitchen and bath, as well as a wealth of clothing for men, women and children are included in the sale of merchandise.

In the women's department are found hats, shoes, silk and chiffon dresses and lingerie. Sports attire for men is expected to sell soon after the doors open tomorrow morning as the knickers offered would be an asset to any golf game. There are linens and fancy tweeds included and numerous suits.

Each year the Candle Light sale of the Humane society is anticipated by residents from all sections of the valley as clothing and household furnishings are donated from the best homes. Quality materials for makers of children and many garments in the prevailing styles are always available.

Proceeds from the sale will be used to purchase feed for animals, upon which numerous families of the valley are dependent for milk supplies. Chickens, which also add their bit to family larders, otherwise quite empty, will be fed from funds realized from the sale.

The doors will open at 8:30 tomorrow morning and will remain open until the merchandise has been sold.

'YOUNG LIBERALS' DEMOCRATIC HOPE ROCKY AREA TOLD

F. D. Tells Denver Bourbons of Victory Chances—Will Carry New York State Policies into White House

ROOSEVELT SPECIAL, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, democratic presidential candidate, continued his trip through the west today after having told 110 leading Colorado democrats in Denver last night: "When we take over the control of the legislative and executive branches of the national government next March we shall have the opportunity to revise the executive branch of the government along lines sounder, less extravagant and designed for the greater good of the greater number."

The New York governor in an extemporaneous speech at a dinner at the Brown Palace hotel in Denver, said the government of New York state during 12 of the last 14 years had been in the hands of the democrats "because under the leadership of Alfred E. Smith in the first instance its government was for the welfare of the average citizen."

He said that "when I go into the White House, I plan to follow the same policy that I have followed as governor of New York and make frequent visits to the country instead of waiting for the country to come to Washington."

While Governor Roosevelt was attending the dinner given men of the party, his daughter, Mrs. Anna Roosevelt Dall, and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. James Roosevelt, were dinner guests of Mrs. Ben C. Hillard, national committee woman from Colorado.

Governor Roosevelt's first long stop today was set for Cheyenne, Wyo., where he is to arrive at 9 a. m. and remain until 11 a. m. Mountain Standard time. He was scheduled to arrive in Salt Lake City at 11:45 p. m.

When needing duplicating sales books, flat-packs or fan-fold cash register forms, ledger sheets for bookkeeping machines or any other kind of printing, don't order from out-of-town firms and pay more. Phone 75 and one of our representatives will call.

"I hold there is a great element of people who believe the time has come for a change. Of course that's purely a negative vote, but there is a very definite change in the thinking of men and women."

Governor Roosevelt made another, shorter extemporaneous talk in Denver last night. Soon after he arrived at the hotel, he appeared on a mezzanine balcony and addressed a crowd of several hundred that had gathered in the lobby below.

"This is not a campaign trip," he said. "I am making this trip to meet people in the different sections of the country and get acquainted with their problems to enable me when I go into the White House March 4 to deal with them on the basis of first hand knowledge."

He added that "when I go into the White House, I plan to follow the same policy that I have followed as governor of New York and make frequent visits to the country instead of waiting for the country to come to Washington."

WOOL SALES LAG, BUT PRICE FIRM ON BOSTON MART

BOSTON, Sept. 16.—(AP)—The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow:

"Activity in the wool market has slackened decidedly. Sales made during the week, however, have been at prices fully equal to any previously made in the current upward movement. In fact, early in the week, fractional advances were secured on some medium grade wools, both greasy and scoured. Scoured wools appear to have been more active relatively than greasy combed wools this week."

"In the west, there has been some further movement of wools at prices fully up to, or a little better than the prices reported a week ago, and some territory wool is reported to have been purchased at prices fully equal to 40 cents, clean, landed Boston."

"Brisbane has been a shade higher than Sydney was last week. The Liverpool East India sales showed the expected appreciation over the previous series of 15 to 20 per cent and London is expected to show Tuesday a similar appreciation over the July series."

"The piece goods markets have been less active this week, but some very substantial business has been placed and the mills are standing pat on the advanced prices recently made."

"Mohair is moderately active and prices are steady."

The Bulletin will publish the following quotations:

Scoured basis—Oregon: Fine and f. m. staple, 45@48; fine and f. m. fr. combed, 42@44; fine and f. m. clothing, 37@39; valley No. 1, 41@43.

Mohair—Oregon, 13@14; domestic graded, first combed, 24@25; second combed, 22@23; third combed, 17@18; fourth combed, 15@16; good carding, 24@25; first kid, 45@40; second kid, 35@40.
