

M'GALE TO FIGHT JACK GIBBS HERE ON SEPT. 28 CARD

Frisco McGale and Jack Gibbs will swap punches in the main event of the next fight card here Sept. 28. The name Frisco was handed to McGale in his tour of Australia. Like many colored fighters, his parents gave him the name of George Washington. McGale fought a good deal around the San Francisco Bay regions before shipping to the big island. The Australians just called him Frisco for short and Frisco McGale it has been ever since.

McGale won the middleweight championship of Australia and engaged in more matches in the land down under than any other fighter to tour the country.

McGale is well known to all fight followers and the news flashes carrying the results of his many battles in the Rocky Mountain region and Pacific Coast fight centers reported him on the losers' end in only one bout that was a questionable decision to Sergeant Sammy Baker, famous New York fighter, in a ten-round bout in Portland.

Fight fans are anxious to see just how good the "Blonde Tiger," Jack Gibbs, is and, as McGale is a top-rung ring performer, they will probably find out.

McGale is expected to arrive in Medford several days ahead of the match to finish his training for his ten-rounder with Gibbs.

Promoter Mack Lillard is busy lining up a strong card of preliminaries to back up his stellar main event.

BABE DIDRICKSON FORCED TO REST

DALLAS, Tex., Sept. 20.—(AP)—Mildred Babe Didrickson, who has a trophy which proclaims her the world's greatest athlete, man or woman, began a rest cure today on orders from her doctor.

Physicians told her that unless she stayed at home for two to six weeks she would have a nervous breakdown or develop an athletic heart. Starting in the Olympic games, the Babe has been appearing in exhibitions of such diverse pastimes as football, golf and trap-shooting.

And so today, and a good many days hereafter, the Babe will have no visitors, answer no telephone calls and take no workouts.

GAR WOOD RECAPTURES RECORD IN HYDROPLANE

ALGONAC, Mich., Sept. 20.—(AP)—Gar Wood, America's premier speedboat pilot, drove his Miss America X over a measured mile in the St. Clair River here today at a speed of 124.91 miles an hour to recapture from Kaye Don, British pilot, the world's hydroplane speed record.

Don, who failed a fortnight ago in an attempt to take the Harmsworth trophy from Wood and his Miss America X, established the record at 119.75 on Loch Lomond, Scotland, July 18 last.

Wood went after the record this morning with little preliminary tuning up. He did the warming up before appearing on the course. Shortly ly he notified the timers he was ready and, despite a drizzle of rain, brought the big 48-cylinder brown-hulled Miss America out to roar upstream on the first official trial against the record.

Swinging around he shot the craft downstream even faster. The official timers announced that the average for the two trials had set the world's record at 124.91 miles an hour, exactly 5.16 miles an hour faster than the old mark.

The first run, upstream, had been clocked at a speed of 124.41 miles an hour. Downstream, the big craft shot over the course at 125.42 miles an hour.

president-elect of the new church, with Sir Robert Perks, who first proposed the union in 1878, as vice-president, the highest lay position in the new union. Sir Robert is 83.

Today's ceremony marked the beginning of an important religious development in Great Britain, which has been closely watched by the Anglican and Free churches.

The new church embraces 5,000 ministers, 200,000 Sunday school teachers, 1,200,000 Sunday school scholars and a million church members. Its total property in Great Britain in churches, schools, colleges and missions is estimated at from 60,000,000 to 80,000,000 pounds (about $210,000,000 to $280,000,000).

The new union will be linked to 15,000,000 Methodists all over the world.

CUBS NEED GAME TO CLINCH FLAG AND SERIES SPOT

(By the Associated Press)

The Chicago Cubs, scenting world series money, moved today to put the finishing touches on the Pittsburgh Pirates, their last surviving rivals for the National league title.

They met at Wrigley field, home of the prospective champions, in a double header labeled "Sudden Death" for the Pirates. A victory in either tussle was all the Cubs needed to make their triumph official and assure them a week of rest before tackling the Yankees, the American league kings, in the big battle.

Although today's games were important they were not, strictly speaking, of the crucial variety. The Cubs could drop all four parties with the Pirates and still win out by thumping Cincinnati in their last two games.

While the main show was going on at Wrigley field today, the Phillies and Brooklyn Dodgers were engaged in a private feud that had had Philadelphia fans pretty well worked up. The Phils, striving to knock the Dodgers out of second place, were within a half game of their goal, having beaten Max Carey's gang, 5 to 3, yesterday.

The Boston Braves jumped Waite Hoyt for four runs in the fifth inning to defeat the Giants, 6 to 3, in the National league's only other encounter.

The Boston Red Sox enlivened an otherwise dull program in the American league by trimming Detroit, 5 to 4.

Lefty Grove marked up his 25th victory of season as the Athletics defeated Chicago, 9 to 6.

All other clubs were idle.

EGGS ADVANCE IN PORTLAND MART

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 20.—(AP)—Further general advance of 1c a dozen in the price of eggs in the Portland market appears the result chiefly of improved outside market conditions and values.

The advance, which became effective during the day, was the first showing for some time of strength for all grades and sizes. Recently the strength has been confined to the large sized offerings but the latest advance includes all offerings by local co-ops as well as private firms.

Profits taking by speculative interests who are withdrawing liberal supplies from storage is causing a slight undertone of easiness in the market for butter here and along the coast generally.

Very good trading tone continues in the market for live chickens. No price changes are suggested. All sorts are in favor with prices generally maintained.
