

BUSH TO PITCH SERIES OPENER AGAINST YANKS

Cub Mound Ace Assured of Honor—Manager Grimm and Players Awed by National Pennant Victory

By WILLIAM WEEKES
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Chicago's Cubs today were "in" with little in the way of serious business to worry them until a week from today when they oppose the New York Yankees in the opening game of the world series—and they intended to get a little run out of their baseball. As soon as Kiki Cuyler smashed one of Steve Swetonic's curves for a triple with the bases loaded in the seventh inning of the first game of yesterday's "crucial" doubleheader, the veteran regular had earned a rest. They started taking it in the second game, and they don't have to go back to work until they have rested. Neither do they have to rest if they don't want to.

Grimm Full of Energy.
Manager Charlie Grimm almost went right back to work in the second game yesterday, although he long had planned to give Marvin Oudat a chance as soon as the National league title was won.

"Now that this battle is over," he said, "I could get a lot of fun out of this game. I won't rest long."
He has definitely announced only one item of his world series plans—that Guy Bush will pitch the opening game at New York. This has been common gossip ever since it looked as though the Cubs would win the championship. His other pitching selections depend on the outcome of that first game.

Players Awed.
The clubhouse celebration after the pennant winning triumph required a little time to develop. Billy Herman was the first player to reach the dressing room. He wore an awed sort of smile. The rest of the youngsters, with the exception of Lonnie Warneke, the sensational young right-hander, matched Herman's expression. The older players just beamed—until Grimm, who came in, appeared.

Then they yelled at Grimm, at each other, and finally demanded a speech from the manager. He obliged with one word, "Great," repeated many times. President William L. Veck, who on August 2, deposed Rogers Hornsby as manager and appointed Grimm, congratulated each man, finishing up with Grimm.

"Thanks, manager," Veck said, pumping Grimm's hand. "But we knew we could do it, didn't we?"

Warnke was little impressed, at least outwardly. He grinned at Cuyler and his only comment was "Well, we figured to do it."

Not a word of mention was accorded the Yankees. The athletes all seemed to have their minds too full of their own accomplishment. A crowd of nearly 40,000 stuck right to the finish, even though it rained all during the second game in which a makeshift Cub team was held to three hits by Heinie Meine and shut out, 5 to 0. Billy Herman started at second base, just to preserve his record of starting every game since he joined the club in 1931.

The Cub victory march started August 11 when Pittsburgh was beaten, 3 to 2, in 10 innings at Pittsburgh. The new champions never relinquished the leadership, and during their drive, set a major league season record of 14 straight victories, most of them hair-raisers, at Wrigley Field. Grimm became the first manager in modern baseball to take charge of a club during the season, and led it on to a championship, as the Cubs won their seventh National league title.

DUCKS RUN WILD AGAINST ANGELS TO WIN, 17 TO 6

(By the Associated Press)

Those pennant-mad Ducks went wild at Portland Tuesday night to trounce Los Angeles, 17 to 6, and increase their league lead to three full games over the Hollywood Stars, who led to Oakland, 3 to 2, at Los Angeles.

Four Angel hurlers were sent to the mound in a vain attempt to halt the Portland attack, but all four were hit freely, together allowing 15 hits and 14 walks. The Ducks clinched the game in the fourth inning when they scored eight runs on five singles, a double and three walks. They scored three more in the sixth and six in the eighth. Batteries: Los Angeles, Baecht, Ward, Middledorf, Curtis and Campbell; Portland, Peterson and Palmisano.

Stengraf of Oakland had a slight edge over Tom Sheehan of the Stars in a pitcher's duel at Los Angeles that gave the Oaks the series opener, 3 to 2.

San Francisco's Seals found Seattle pitching to their liking Tuesday night and pounded out 19 hits to defeat the Indians, 11 to 8 in the series opener at Seattle.

Pitcher Chelini of the Missions was stingy with hits, but generous with walks Tuesday and Sacramento won a hard-fought pitchers' duel, 2 to 0, from the San Francisco team.

GOLD HILL SCHOOL FUSS IS PONDERED

Decision in the application of the Gold Hill school district for a restraining order, and order declaring the contract of George A. Meisinger, void and unenforceable, was taken under advisement late yesterday by Circuit Judge H. D. Norton following the presentation of arguments and evidence in the case. The school district also asks that Meisinger, deposed head of the school, be prohibited from daily visits to the school property.

Meisinger contends the contract he signed with the old school board is valid. He was replaced by W. A. Thomson as principal, following a protracted dispute over school affairs in the district.

STARS OF AMERICAN LEAGUE PENNANT WINNERS

Old and new generations of the New York Yanks which have carried the club to an American league pennant after three years of trailing the Athletics are represented above. Photo of the Babe was made before his recent illness, but he'll be back in time to square off against the Cubs in the world's series. Other photos show Gehrig, Ruth's old home run twin, and the Yanks' new star batter: Gomez, pitcher, and Dickey, catcher.

NORTHWEST BOYS LATEST IDOLS OF CALIFORNIA RINGS

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Out of the northwest has come southern California's two latest boxing idols. They are young Freddie Steele, of Tacoma and Don Fraser of Seattle, who by convincing victories over local favorites, established themselves as the new attractions.

Steele, with a long record of knock-outs, lived up to his reputation by putting Caferrino Garcia, Manila welterweight, to sleep in two rounds. Steele previously had stopped the Filipino in the northwest, but local fans had considered it just one of those things, as Garcia had shown he was no ordinary boxer, when he knocked out Alfredo Gaona, the Mexican, here in four rounds.

Bishop, in speaking of the coming match, said: "We in Seattle are not expecting to knock Gibbs out but feel confident that Frisco will come through with another win."
The Seattle promoter further stated that anyone who can win over Frisco is a "natural up here so if Gibbs is lucky enough to win over my colored boy, I would like to sign him up for a Seattle card."

Gibbs is training hard for the coming match and expects his six-round main event in Klamath Falls tomorrow night to put him on edge for the ten rounder in Medford. Gibbs' opponent in the Falls City is also a gentleman of color, Eddie Foy by name. Foy is a recent arrival on the coast from Chicago, where he has been a consistent winner.

Herb White is also on the Klamath Falls card, meeting Denny Barker, Weed, Cal., fighter.
For the semi-windup on the Medford card a battle of Red Heads is to be fought, Circus Red Howe is meeting Red Hansaker, the Eugene slugger. This will end a long dispute over the red headed championship of Oregon. Howe is training in Marshfield.

The Jackson County Primary Council will hold its first meeting for this year on Saturday, September 24, at 1:30 p. m. in the auditorium of the Courthouse. All primary teachers of the county are urged to attend as there is to be an election of officers and plans are to be made for future meetings.

GIBBS MAY SURPRISE SEATTLE NEGRO BOY IN RING BATTLE HERE

Steele, however, had a close call. Garcia landed a terrific right to the chin at the close of the first round and the Tacoma youth was saved only by the bell. Freddie, however, came back, outslugged and outboxed the Filipino and then put him away near the close of the second round.

Fraser took two, lost one and drew in the other of a four-round bout to win the decision from young Peter Jackson, California lightweight champion and considered one of the best boxers at any weight in the state.

Members of the Medford Lions' club today resolved to do everything possible to promote maintenance of the Crater Lake highway during the winter from Prospect to the park boundary.

This action is being requested of the state highway commission by the Medford chamber of commerce and if granted, the national park service will care for the road from the boundary to Anna Springs or Government Camp.

Lion Fred Ganfield of Marshfield was a guest at the club luncheon today at the Hotel Holland.

PHILLIES STAGE HARD FIGHT FOR SECOND DIVISION

(By Associated Press)

Generally overlooked in the excitement attending the winning of the National league pennant by Chicago has been the surprising fight put up by Burt Shotton's Phillies for a berth in the first division.

Sixth when the curtain went down a year ago, Shotton's sluggers have pounded their way into fourth place and right now are giving the Brooklyn Dodgers the battle of their lives for third. The Dodgers pulled away a little yesterday, increasing their lead to a game and a half by downing the Phillies, 3 to 1, but with four games to go there still is a possibility third place will go to the Quaker City crew.

Watson Clark, ace of the Brooklyn staff, chalked up his 10th victory in halting the Philis yesterday.

The Giants, seeking sixth place, plastered the Braves, 13 to 3. St. Louis, with Tex. Lirleton pitching five-hit ball, beat Cincinnati, 3 to 1, and the Cubs closed the race proper with a 5 to 2 win over Pittsburgh in the first game of a double-header. The crestfallen Corsairs took the second, 5 to 0.

Monte Weaver further established himself as one of the year's greatest freshman pitchers, as he beat Boston down with four hits and beat the Red Sox, 4 to 1.

Cleveland completed the day's activities in the American league by beating St. Louis, 5 to 2 and 11 to 2.

ROWLEY SEEKING SEAT ON COUNCIL

Petitions were started in circulation today for the nomination of Walter E. Rowley for a position on the city council, representing the third ward. Mr. Rowley, a well known resident of the city, resides at 307 North Ivy. He will oppose, if he files for the office, S. A. Kroschel, who has already filed for the third ward position.

J. O. Grey, who now represents the third ward, has announced his candidacy for the office of city treasurer. No other candidates have been announced, in spite of the fact that four councilmen are to be elected in November.

Scout Honor Court Friday, Elks Club

A large number of awards will be presented at the Boy Scout court of honor to be held at 8 o'clock Monday evening, September 26, at the Elks' club. The list of awards cover a large field of endeavor. In the time since camp, scouts have been able to finish work in many merit badge subjects. Don R. Newbury, chairman of court of honor, will preside, assisted by other members of the council.
