Oregon Loggers To Entertain Today The Holly Tody

The Oregon Loggers are appearing at the Holly theater today. Real loggers, they present one of the most novel stage acts in America. Their real Oregon products and have been working in the logging camps in the northern part of the state. Their tunes and songs proved so popular with the people that they were given an engagement at the RKO amphitheater in Portland, and since that time they have been appearing in the leading theaters in other cities. After their tour over Oregon the boys are going east to give our eastern friends an idea of what a real Oregon logger looks like.

The boys play a number of musical instruments, sing, throw axes and perform in the big woods of Oregon after the day's work was done. On the screen at the Holly will be "No Greater Love," which boasts a cast composed of Alexander Carr, western stage star, Dickie Moore, well known juvenile actor, Hobart Bosworth, Beryl Mercer and others. The loggers will appear for both matinee and evening shows and will be at the Holly today and tomorrow.

New Sound Will Be Installed At State

The State theater is closed for the installation of the latest R. C. A. sound equipment. Work started today removing the old equipment and putting in the new. The plans call for new projection machines, a new screen and title curtain and the construction of a small stage. The management hopes to have the theater in operation by the last of the week.

GATES PETITIONS DRAW SIGNERS IN MANY DISTRICTS

Circulation of petitions for the independent candidacy of C. E. (Pop) Gates, former state highway commissioner and mayor of Medford, continued today throughout the county, principally in Sams Valley, Butte Falls and Gold Hill districts. To date 300 names—enough alone to place Gates' name on the ballot—have been secured in Ashland.

Ed White, of Brown & White, said he had received three or four phone calls today from people in this city asking where they could find a petition so they could sign it. E. H. Janney and James C. Collins are circulating the petitions in this city, and they are being freely and widely signed by local residents, who see in Gates an able administrator of county affairs and "a harmonizing force" to quiet the political turmoil that has been raging for months in this county.

Reports from the county districts indicate that the Gates candidacy is the feature attraction at the Fox Craterian theater beginning Thursday. The nomination program will probably be filed Friday afternoon with the county clerk.

Sherlock Holmes Is Thriller At Rialto

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle wrote many novels about the experiences of the famed detective, Sherlock Holmes, but it is doubtful if any of them enjoyed more popularity than "The Final Problem" and "The Empty House" from which "Sherlock Holmes' Fatal Hour" has been adapted and which comes to the Rialto screen tomorrow. "Society Girl," starring James Duns, Spencer Tracy, and Peggy Shannon, shows for the last time today.

LARGE CROWDS ATTEND 'BIRTH OF A NATION'

Large crowds have been attending the four-day showing of "The Birth of a Nation," which closes tonight at the Rialto theater. The great picture has been made more entertaining and thrilling with the addition of sound.

Fuel Savers!

That work for you day and night. Two lines that pay for themselves and then continue to pay. In other words they are investments and not to be considered an expense.

HEATROLA

The genuine Estate Heatrola makes more heat with less fuel. Being airtight the flow of heat is almost instantly controlled. Wood models are built for wood, coal models for coal or briquets, and oil models for oil. Each model built especially for its fuel and with a view to burning as little of that fuel as possible and yet efficiently heating your home.

Nu-Metal Weather Strip

conserves the heat. It is easily installed, takes care of all shrinkage and expansion of doors and windows and makes them weatherproof.

Nu-Metal is made from spring metal and outlasts the building. Let us tell you the cost of installing these two fuel savers and see if you can afford to be without them.
